Following the amalgamation of the Standard and the Sterling Bank, the staff spent a busy day on New Year's transferring books and appliances from the Sterling Bank in the Lorne Block to the Standard Bank building. Young People's Rally

There was a large audience in the Presbyterian School Room on Monday night, composed chiefly of the members of the Methodist League and the Presbyterian Y. P. S. The meeting was in charge of Mr. Will Batty, who had with him two of his fellow-students from McMaster University, Messrs. Argles and McGinley, and also Miss Argles, of Toronto. The whole meeting was an appeal to the audiences to follow Christ in His sacrificial service during the new year, and the duets by Miss Miss Argles and Mr. Batty strengthened the impassioned appeal of Mr. McGinley, who gave an exposition of the story of the fiery furnace. The meeting of the Presbyterian Y. P. S. is to be held on Thursday evening of next week, when Dr. D. M. Black, son of the Provincial Treasurer for Manitoba, will give an address.

The Youth's Companion Home Calendar for 1925

Usefulness and convenience are the two things aimed in The Companion Home Calendar for 1925. Embellishment, however, has not been forgotten. It is beautifully printed in red, blue and gold. On each monthly leaf is a rhymed aphorism by Arthur Guiterman or other rhymster, with a cheerful little vignette suggested by the month's festivals or typical weather. Each leaf, moreover, carries, besides the calendar of the current month in bold, readable type, a marginal reproduction of the calendars for the preceding and succeeding months. This calendar will be sent, if requested with order, free to every subscriber who pays $2.50 for the 52 numbers of The Youth's Companion for 1925.

"I'll Be Home Soon, Mother," Writes Sammy

Sammy is a keen little lad. He looks much younger than he is—only sixteen—and he has much more wisdom than is usual at his age. For two years he worked in a foundry doing a man's work. His father worked beside him and helped him master the art of pouring molten metal. One day Sammy complained of a sore side but his people didn't worry much. "I'll be all right in the morning," mother said, "go and take a rest." But it wasn't all right in the morning, nor the morning after, nor a week after. It was then time for a doctor to examine Sammy. The doctor looked him over several times, then took him to a specialist. Both medical men agreed that Sammy was consumptive and both held out some hope if he "took the cure" at once.

Sammy is quite a favorite up in the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives. He keeps the other patients in good humor with his pleasant smile and his quaint stories of French Quebec where he spent his boyhood days. "Tell the folks I'll be home soon," he wrote in his last letter; and he probably will be, for he is making splendid progress.

The Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives, the Haven of the poor afflicted with tuberculosis, is in a large measure reliant upon public generosity for its funds to carry on its work.

Contributions may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton, President, 223 College Street, Toronto, Ontario.
