Spectacle of a Lifetime Missed

Although the total eclipse of the Sun arrived on scheduled time Saturday morning, needless to say the result was a failure. It is true, in Chatham and a few of the Western Cities in Ontario a very fine view of the Sun's disc was witnessed, and in Toronto the citizens caught a momentary glimpse from behind the cloud curtain, but in Richmond Hill and vicinity a peculiar darkness was the only sign that anything out of the ordinary was occurring. Naturally, after so much preparation by scientists and others, there was great disappointment, especially as it is said it will be more than 200 years before another total eclipse will be observable here.

Crossley and Leonard Meetings

The campaign opened auspiciously on Sunday.

The men are well and popularly known from Atlantic to Pacific.

The meetings are bright enthusiastic and inspiring.

The methods are manly and commendable. No objectionable tests are put.

The messages are practical, vigorous and optimistic.

The Motto: Help everybody and hinder nobody.

No person should miss Dr Crossley's celebrated lecture to be given next Monday night on "Nature's Secret of Health and Long Life." It will be illustrated by living moving pictures. It was given on eight Saturday nights in Winnipeg to packed houses. Solos by evangelists. The seats are free as also printed chart giving the secret. Come early for a seat.

Benefit Concert

A real good entertainment was given in the Masonic Hall last Thursday evening. It was under the auspices of Victoria L. O. L. Richmond Hill, and the proceeds were in aid of the Orange Orphanage at Elgin Mills.

Reeve T. H. Trench who acted as chairman congratulated the Home on the splendid work they were doing for the orphaned children, and thanked the audience for their generous patronage.

Nine little girls, neatly dressed in white, and seven boys, sat on the platform and gave a number of choruses quite acceptably. The talent from the city was first class, the following taking part in the programme:

Mr. E. A. Hardy, Piano Dialogue; Miss McClean, Soprano; Miss Isaacs, Elocutionist; Miss Bonnick and Bob Wilson, Humorous Entertainers; Misses Bryce and Doris Wilson in Scotch Reels and Fancy Dances, and George McKay, Piper.

Before closing, the chairman thanked Mr. Wm. Powell, a former Richmond Hill boy, for bringing up such an excellent array of talent to assist in a worthy cause. Mr. Powell in reply said he hoped to come again at a not distant date. The concert closed with the National Anthem.

The Personal Element in Banking Affairs

BETWEEN the curtness and coldness of printed bank forms and the human element for whose use they are designed, are vast opportunities for the banker to give valuable personal assistance. The Standard Bank, through the members of its staff, is anxious to use any opportunity that arises to demonstrate its value in offering personal advice on financial matters. The local manager of the Standard Bank will be glad to give intimate counsel upon money matters pertaining to your business.
