Matron Choked to Death

A shocking tragedy occurred at the Women's Jail Farm, West of Langstaff, after 10 o'clock Sunday night when the night matron, Mrs. Mick, was strangled by three girls in making their escape.

The girl inmates are Isabel Prouse, age 21; Bessie Carroll, age 16; and Jennie McMinn, aged 10. It appears that one of the girls crawled through a transom, 7 x 14 inches in her cell. Reaching the corridor she pried the lock of another inmates door which opened. The third imprisoned girl then called aloud to the matron to open her cell, saying the water from the taps was escaping. The matron opening the door was grabbed, choked, and tied to water pipes. They then took the matron's keys and made their escape. A girl in the fourth cell, heard them deliberately plan the work, but was too frightened to give an alarm.

The trio then walked to Thornhill. Shortly afterwards they hailed three young men in an auto, and asked them to drive them to the city. The latter did so, and took them to different places where their jail garb was changed to other clothing. The young men then motored them to Oshawa and Bowmanville. Coming back to Oshawa two of the girls got out of the car, saying they would meet them afterwards. Failing to do so the McMinn girl was driven to a brother-in-law's in Toronto, where she was afterwards arrested. The two other girls were arrested in Oshawa the following day. The three young men who are out on bail of $10,000 each are Leonard Swales, William Norton, and James Norton, all of Toronto.

Aurora Horse Show June 3rd

"Better Than Ever" is the byword for Aurora Horse Show for 1925, and from the prize list, sure it is.

Hunter and Jumper classes are numerous and complete and will make a fine exhibition in itself.

Clyde and Percheron team owners should rejoice at the attention given them. $30.00 for first, $20.00 for second, and $10.00 for third, is the best money we know of, and will attract all real team owners.

Gent's turnouts and Ladies' driving and pony classes are all well to the front with good rewards for exhibits and performance.

Stock—Fat Beef, Sheep, and Swine are there, and good money offered.

The day ends up with a first class concert, followed by a dance.

We have prize lists and entry sheets here, or write G. W. Baldwin, Secretary, Aurora, for prize list.

Spend the King's Birthday in Aurora.

NEWTON BROOK

"Empire Day" was duly celebrated in the Methodist Church last Sunday. A special sermon was preached in the morning on "What makes an Empire great" and the large place that Canada is destined to take in the British Empire. It was pointed out that the greatness of this place depended upon the young people of today; the courage, vision and unselfishness of their service not only to Canada but also to the Empire. We need people who will think "Imperially," and who will live to put their ideals into practice. Special anthems were rendered by the choir.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Young gave a study of the life of W. E. Gladstone, one of the greatest Statesmen that England has ever produced and one whose moral greatness was ever more influential than his political acumen.

Next Sunday morning there will be a Flower and Christening Service, and in the evening a Special Musical Service. A cordial welcome is extended to the strangers coming into the neighborhood.

The Junior Ball team went to York Mills last Friday and defeated the local team, 19 to 8.

On Friday evening the Juniors will visit Lansing.

On Monday, May 25th, at the Methodist Parsonage, Miss Elsie V. Keen was married to Mr. William G. Robinson by the Rev. E. R. Young.
