The Glover Family were greatly shocked on Monday evening when they received a message from the Durant Motor Co., of Oakland Cal., that their brother, Jack, had been killed in a motor accident the previous evening. Jack had been working for the Durant Motor Co., for a number of years, and made his home in California. He was one of the younger sons of the late Mr. E. Glover, and Mrs. Glover, and was well and favorably known in this village. He leaves a wife and two children, his mother and brothers and sisters to mourn his loss, and for whom much sympathy is felt.

NIGH—At the home of her daughter Mrs. Curtis, Gormley, on Friday, June 12, 1925, Nancy Woodard, widow of the late Elias Nigh, in her 84th year.

IN MEMORIAM

CURTIS—In fond and loving memory of my dear husband, Leonard Curtis who was killed by accident, June 11th, 1923.

There is someone who misses you sadly,
And finds the years long since you went,
There is someone who thinks of you daily,

But tries to be brave and content,
So we shed a tear that is silent,
And breathe a sigh of regret,
For you were ours and we remember,
Though all the world may forget.
— Wife and Little Ones.

Zion

A very successful Sunday School picnic was held on Saturday, June 13. The young people were taken by motor to Riverdale park, and after enjoying the sight-seeing, they were brought to the spacious lawn at the home of the superintendent, Mr. Abraham Pike. Games of ball and the swings were thoroughly enjoyed, after which a generous luncheon with ice-cream cones galore, was served. Music and a sing, accompanied by piano, cornet and violins, was enjoyed with a short programme of speeches and recitations. Altogether a most enjoyable time was spent and Mr. and Mrs. Pike were heartily thanked for their generosity and courtesy.

A fine new fence is being put around the Zion Church, and there are other evidences here of aggressive community life.

NEWTON BROOK

The United Church of Canada was inaugurated here with appropriate services. In the morning there was a Communion Service carried out by officials of the uniting churches. In the evening the young people had complete charge of the service. Mr. Gifford Summers presided, and in the service was helped by Mr. Rutherford, Miss Doris Goulding, Mr. Gordon Galbraith and the pastor, Rev. E. R. Young. The addresses were given by Miss Mina Hull and Mr. F. J. MacRae. Two young ladies, Miss Evelyn Graham and Miss Janet Riddell acted as ushers.

On Thursday, June 11th, a very enjoyable dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith to the Sunday School teachers. A little Sunday School business was also done and Saturday, July 4th, has been chosen as the date for the Annual S. S. picnic.

On Sunday evening, June 28th, the members of the Orange Order will parade to the United Church, Newtonbrook.

The members of the Session and Board of Management of the Presbyterian Church, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cowie, on Friday evening, last, in honor of Rev. A. McNab, M. A., who is leaving to resume the work of the ministry in Alberta. Mr. McNab has been a member of session for over four years and ever since coming to Richmond Hill has evinced a deep interest in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the Church and the Community. On behalf of the joint Boards, Mr. Phipps and Mr. Cowie presented Mr. McNab with a solid leather club bag. Several other members joined in expressing appreciation of Mr. McNab's good qualities as a man, a citizen, an elder and a minister, and best wishes were extended for his future success. A dainty supper was served by the hostess.
