York County And District

The old Temperance Hall at Laskay will be reopened Tuesday, December 8. Under the auspices of the Laskay Women's Institute the play "Nothing to Do" will be presented by the Aurora Dramatic Club. Hon. E. G. Davis will preside. Among those who will take part are Archie McCallum, J. M. Walton, Aubrey Davis, and J. M. O'Brien. On the following Thursday, December 10, the Women's Institute will hold a bazaar in the Hall.

Mr. Philip L. Querrie of Toronto, formerly of Aurora, died in the Western Hospital on Thursday last. Mr. Querrie, who was 73 years of age, had been ill some months. He was in the hospital for fourteen weeks, and came out but went back for an operation.

Farmer's Sun.—The organized farm movement in Ontario has lost a staunch supporter in the late J. A. Wilmot of North York. Mr. Wilmot was no recent recruit, but a veteran in the service, his activities, while living in Frontenac, dating back to the old Patron days.

Younger players were out in force for the annual meeting of the Newmarket Hockey Club. The financial statement presented by Ted. Duncan showed a credit balance of $392.46. Officers were elected as follows:—Hon. presidents, Hon. E. J. Davis, W. L. Shaw, R. F. Smith; president, A. J. Davis; 1st vice-president, Bert Day; 2nd vice-president, Verne Cane; secretary-treasurer, Ted. Duncan; executive committee, George Knowles, Jr., Bernard McHale, W. C. Lundy, Dr. Walker, W. E. Dolan; manager of the Intermediate Team, E. A. Doyle; manager of the Junior Team, Fred Thompson. Delegates to the O. H. A. Convention, the two managers.

Dr. K. H. VanNorman, a former Keswick boy, has been appointed as superintendent of the three hospitals grouped around the campus of the Western Reserve University at Cleveland. Dr. VanNorman is a graduate of the University of Toronto and took a post-graduate course at the Toronto General Hospital. He served during the war with the Canadian Army Medical Service.

Catholic Church Bazaar Success

The bazaar held in Masonic Hall, Richmond Hill, last Friday and Saturday, under auspices of Richmond Hill, Thornhill and Lansing Catholic Church was, as usual, a huge success. On Friday evening there was a grand euchre, the prize winners being Mr. Henry Esby and Miss Ella Young. The splendid fowl supper served on Saturday evening drew a large attendance. The following were the winners of prizes:

Mrs. John Whelan, Langstaff—Silver service.
Mr. D. Rumble, Richmond Hill—Bag of sugar.
Miss Helen Canessa, Maple—Electric iron.
Mr. R. Gordon, Jefferson—Barrel of apples.
Mr. McQuillen, Maple—Live turkey.
Mrs. W. Riddell, Thornhill—Set of dishes.

The committee in charge sincerely thank the donors of prizes, the workers and all who in any way contributed to make the affair the success it was.

Major Morrison Is On Executive

Major Morrison, Superintendent of the Jail Farm at Langstaff, has just returned from Winnipeg, where he attended the convention at which further steps were taken to consolidate the various veterans' organizations into "The Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League," of which Earl Haig is the head.

Major Morrison, who is First Vice-President of the Canadian Pensioners' Association, and Past Dominion President of the Grand Army of United Veterans, states that a keen struggle for control of the new organization developed at the Conference, although a great deal of important work was accomplished. The delegates representing various organizations, such as the Imperial Veterans, the Army & Navy Veteran and the Amputation Association, will report back on progress made.

Major Morrison believes that the new organization will enroll a large number of men now unattached. He was appointed as a member of the national executive.

EGERTON YOUNG AWARDED PRIZE

Winner In Provincial Competition Brings Honor To Newtonbrook

(Special to The Liberal)
Newtonbrook, Dec. 3.—The Ladies' Aid of the United Church held a successful bazaar on Wednesday afternoon, November 25th, in the Sunday School room of the Church. The event was opened by Mrs. (Hon.) G. S. Henry, with a large crowd in attendance. Many hand-made articles were sold, among them being an autographic quilt, containing over five hundred names, which was sold by auction to Mrs. O. D. Bales for $18.00. A bountiful supper and a good program were provided by the ladies. Miss Mary Smith, of Toronto, sang several solos, which were very much appreciated. Miss Marjorie Lewis, violinist, and Mrs. Lew. Hicks, soloist, also assisted with the program.

It is a pleasure to announce that Mr. Egerton Young has won the provincial prize for his essay on "As a Citizen, What Attitude Should I take Towards the Drinking of Alcoholic Liquors?" His Newtonbrook friends extend to him their hearty congratulations.

Mr. George and Miss Edna Street, and also Mr. Stanley Cox, have returned from the West this week. They enjoyed themselves thoroughly in the West.

Rev. A. A. Wall, of Richmond Hill, occupied the pulpit here last Sunday morning.

Hockey is not going very fast just yet, but an effort is being made to have a hockey cushion at Newtonbrook this season. The Inter-church League will possibly be renewed this winter, and if so a strong team, it is hoped, will come from here.

Fowl Supper Held At Hope

Maple, Dec. 3.—The old-time fowl supper in the United Church at Hope, was a success in every way. After supper was served an excellent program was given, and upwards of $200 was realized.

(Special to The Liberal)
The Junior Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Church intend holding a bazaar in the Masonic Hall next Saturday evening.
