Mr. F. M. Reesor has sold his residence on Main Street, Markham, to Mrs. Story of Toronto for $5,000. Mr. Reesor is moving to Sunderland.

Geo. McKuem has sold his fine farm of 100 acres at Lemonville to a Miss Huffman of Toronto for $13,000. This is one of the choicest farms in Whitchurch.

Three daughters of Mr. Stephenson, Hazelburn Farm, while returning from a practise at Oak Ridges school-house were run down by a motor near the Aurora subway. The girls were badly bruised and shaken up. The driver stopped but did not give his name or offer to drive the children home.

The Toronto Presbytery has confirmed the calls of Rev. J. C. Davies of Fenelon Falls to Woodbridge, and that of Rev. J. C. Miller of Forester's Falls to Eversley, Strange and King west.

Stouffville Curling Club has elected the following officers: Hon. President, W. H. Todd; President, W. Armstrong; Vice-President, Harry Brilinger; Representative to O.C.A. Annual Meeting—Wm. Armstrong and H. W. Sanders; Secy.—Treas.—H. W. Sanders.

Stanley G. Tobin, the newly-elected member of the House of Commons for Wetaskiwin, Alta., who recently wired Premier King offering to resign to provide a vacancy for the latter, has an able assistant in his life work in the person of his wife, Miss Greta Player.

Mrs. Tobin is a niece of W. C. Widdifield and J. E. Widdifield of Newmarket. She graduated from Newmarket High School and was one of Alberta's first women lawyers.

Vern Lundy, son of First Deputy Reeve Fred A. Lundy of Newmarket, has recently been appointed to the position of teller in the Imperial Bank at Brantford. Mr. Lundy has been with the Imperial Bank at Aurora. He was a valued member of the Newmarket Band.

The Stouffville Tribune says: There is a rumor afloat from a very reliable source to the effect that the Sutton train is soon to be discontinued by the Canadian National Railway. This train makes one trip daily from Sutton to Toronto. No doubt the people of Ballantrae, Mount Albert and other places will protest strongly against the discontinuance of the service, and if the protest is strong enough the company may be persuaded to operate a gasoline car from Stouffville.

James McCreight of the 9th concession, Markham, within the space of ten days shot two large hawks, male and female, the largest of which had a wing spread of four feet. Mr. McCreight shot both birds with a .22 rifle. One of the hawks had its crop stuffed with chicken and feathers, indicating that his chickens were furnishing the hawks' main article of diet.

K. G. Tarr has sold his farm at Mongolia to Russell Couperthwaite of Milliken, for $8,500. Mr. Tarr reserved five acres and a house at the corner of the farm, now occupied by J. W. Reesor. Mr. Couperthwaite's purchase consisted of 76 acres and the farm house and buildings.

Chief James E. McMullen of the York Township Police having failed to tender his resignation as requested by a motion of the Township Council on Nov. 30, the Council enacted a second resolution discharging the Chief on Dec. 15.

Many chickens were stolen this week from the hen house of the Amelia Jarvis Farm, south of Aurora. It is reported that thieves showed audacity to the extent of actually killing and plucking the birds in the Jarvis hen house.

County Constable T. B. Kirk advised poultry keepers to make sure their hen houses are secured against these gentlemen, who are so freely providing their Christmas dinners. Most every morning has found some hen house robbed in this district, so don't take chances.

NORMA TALMADGE AT THE CAPITAL

"California Straight Ahead," the rlicking comedy-drama, is the week-end feature provided by Manager McClellan at the Capitol Theatre, North Toronto, the favorite playhouse of all Suburban Yonge's picturegoers. Reginald Denny provides miles of laughs in this widely-heralded production.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the attraction is "Grand Stark," declared to be the greatest love story ever screened. The famous "Kingdom" of the George Barr McCutcheon novel became a reality in the screening of this picture, with a cast headed by Movieland's two greatest lovers, Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien.

Mrs. T. Oliver Dies In Maple

Maple, December 10, 1925

(Special to The Liberal)

On Wednesday of last week, Eliza Pickering, beloved wife of Thomas Oliver, passed away at her home. The funeral took place on Friday, and was attended by many relatives and friends. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

The bazaar held by the Junior Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Church on Saturday evening was very successful. Many useful articles were sold and a tempting lunch served. The lucky number for the quilt was drawn by Mrs. Hartley.

Next Friday evening Capt. W. S. Watkins will give a dramatic recital illustrated, on the Rocky Mountains, Yukon and Alaska. The entertainment is under the auspices of the public school.

About five hundred people were served with supper at the reception to Col. Lennox Friday evening. An entertainment was afterwards given in the Community Hall. During the evening, Mrs. Charles McNeil read an address and Mr. George Baggs presented the new member with an amber cane. The chair was occupied by Mr. T. A. Cousins.
