An absolutely safe investment rarely returns more than four or five per cent. And should it become necessary to realize cash promptly, a sacrifice of two or three per cent of the principal will probably be entailed.

To depositors in the Standard Bank of Canada is offered absolute safety with interest at three per cent.

And deposits may be withdrawn at a moment's notice, without sacrifice!

NOT BOASTFULLY BUT THANKFULLY

We enjoy the wonderful satisfaction of having achieved a family laundry service that is unique in the history of Toronto and district. Our years of patient research work have made it possible for any housewife to have the "family wash" done in five different ways—and at a price which is within easy reach of the most modest house-keeping budget.

WE CALL IN RICHMOND HILL DISTRICT Wednesday and Saturday

If you will have laundry ready when driver calls, you will assist us in giving good service. If you only have driver call when phoned for, call up as early as convenient to insure prompt attention.

Santa Claus is due to attend the Christmas entertainment at the Methodist United Church next Wednesday evening. The scholars are preparing the usual fine programme of choruses, recitations, dialogues etc. All the grown-ups are invited to share in the occasion. An admission fee of twenty-five cents towards expenses.

Christmas services will be held next Sunday in the Methodist United Sunday School at Richmond Hill. An appropriate programme has been arranged and parents and friends are invited to attend. A feature of the service will be the presentation of gifts from the scholars for the Christmas dinner at the Orphanage and to assist some needy families.

Miss Irene MacDonald, of Melville, Sask., is spending a few days with Mrs. J. R. Herrington, on her way to New York, where she expects to spend Christmas.

New Year's Eve the Capitol Theatre North Toronto, will be having a midnight show, with eight big special vaudeville attractions, comedies, etc. Favors will be given to all. Tickets are now on sale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. James, of 107 Alexandra Boulevard, Toronto, are spending Christmas with Mr. James' brother, Mr. Frank H. James, of Carstairs, Alberta, and New Year's with his brother, Mr. C. S. James, at Vancouver B. C. They expect to return to Toronto the second week in January.

A very delightful wedding was performed at the Methodist parsonage, Richmond Hill, December 12, by Rev. A. A. Wall, when Miss Florence Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rose of Newmarket became the bride of Mr. Bertram Tait of Stouffville. The young couple left for points south with the best wishes of a host of friends. After the trip they will reside in Stouffville where Mr. Tait has a successful business.

At the Methodist United Church, Rev. A. A. Wall will preach on "New Born Joys of Christmas." Special Christmas Music will be given in the evening service with Mr. Melucci at the organ, the anthem "Rejoice in the Lord by Hoffings" will be sung. Musical selections will be: Intermezzo, Mascagni, violin, piano and organ. Tenor Solo: "O Come to My Heart, Lord Jesus." Mr. Lauder Glass, Violin Solo: Miss Aileen Atkinson. Anthem Solo: Cherubim Song, Berlinsky. The subject of the sermon will be "The Angels' Song."

Rev. E. F. McL. Smith, of Weston, will conduct the anniversary service of Lasky United Church, Sunday, December 20. A concert and Christmas Tree will be held the following evening in Institute Hall.

Teston Old Boys are giving a dance Christmas night.

By reason of the volume of news and advertising in the present issue it has been found necessary to hold until next week the concluding portion of Mr. James McLean's interesting survey of plowing activities in the province. Space limitations also make it impossible to publish this week's "Way Back In The Liberal Files."

Mrs. Ed. Leary, of Gormley, suffered a broken arm and other injuries and an employee who was driving her to the station was also hurt, when their team ran away Tuesday. Dr. Langstaff and Dr. Wilson also gave prompt attention and Mrs. Leary was removed to the General Hospital, Toronto.

Clever Charades Are Presented

The December meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. H. Innes, Thursday evening last. In a competitive Christmas programme three teams took part led respectively by Mrs. A. Plewman, Mrs. A. Phipps, Mrs. O. Wright. The judges were Mrs. Hall, Miss Munday, and Mrs. Thompson from Thornhill. The first team under Mrs. Plewman put on a clever charade including as one act a style show with picturesque costumes old and new.

Mrs. Phipps' team produced an exceedingly life-like Sunday School concert with all the boys and girls in short clothes and herself as a quite marvellous superintendent. This act was the greatest fun raiser of the evening. Mrs. O. Wright's team put on a Pickwick Christmas party with ten Dickens characters in costume. The last team and its act was adjudged the best of the three performances and was awarded the prize.

Business transacted included a resolution to go on with the library assistance as formerly planned.

A Public Health meeting is planned for January when Dr. J. McCullough, Chief Medical Health Officer of Ontario, will speak on Rural Health Problems and "What Every Parent Should Know." The date of the meeting will be announced later.

At the regular January meeting Mrs. A. Perry will give a report of the Central Institutes Convention recently held in Toronto, which was an outstanding event with many interesting features.

Colored lights twinkle round the throne of Santa Claus in the attractive Toyland in Davies' Dry Goods Store. Multi-coloured streamers and other decorations heighten the effect of a most creditable Christmas display.

The Ford Motor Company presents in this issue a handsomely-designed advertisement conveying a Christmas suggestion which may interest many readers.

What could be a more acceptable Christmas gift for an old friend than a year's subscription to The Liberal? It is a gift that brings the news of the old home surroundings and will be appreciated every week.

Among the pretty Christmas displays in Richmond Hill stores is that of Mrs. Norman Batty, of the Quality Shoppe. The wide range of holiday specialties attractively shown is a convincing argument as to the advantages of "buying at home."

On Thursday, December 10, the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, met at the home of Mrs. J. Chatterly, Aurora, when Mrs. Soanes, on behalf of the members, presented her with a life membership as a token of their great esteem and appreciation of her long and faithful service in the Auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hewison are spending the Christmas holidays at Fergus.
