W. H. Murphy is in receipt of a card from his partner, Morley Beynon, who with Mrs. Beynon is on a motor trip to Tampa, Florida, where they will spend some months. Mr. Beynon's mother and brother are at present in Tampa. At the time of writing Mr. Beynon was taking the Virginia hills on high, following a brief stay in Washington, where he had a look at the White House. "Tell Jim McLean," he adds in a stage whisper that was picked up by the amplifier, "that the President was quite disappointed on not seeing Drury."

Councillor J. A. Greene wishes the citizens of Richmond Hill a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Members of the York County Medical Society held their annual meeting at Aurora on Thursday in the home of Dr. C. J. Devins. Dr. H. I. Kinsey of Toronto, gave an address on "Differential Diagnosis of Diseases of the Chest," which was followed by a helpful discussion of the subject by the members. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. S. W. Otton, Newmarket; Vice-President, Dr. W. A. Sangster, Stouffville; Secretary, Dr. S. J. Boyd, Newmarket, and Treasurer, Dr. H. B. Freel, Stouffville.

In the report last week of the banquet given in Aurora by Naughton & Jenkins, solicitors, the name of E. M. Legge, Deputy Reeve of King Township, was inadvertently omitted. Mr. Legge responded to the toast to "York County."

The case of James Hunt of Richmond Hill, resulting from the automobile mishap at the Maple side road some weeks ago, in which two men were killed, has been postponed until after the holidays.

At the Masonic Hall, Tuesday, December 29, St. Mary's, Church of England, will hold a Christmas tree and entertainment. A splendid three-act play will be given by the Girls' Auxiliary, "The Inn of Desire." The following characters will take part: Mary Saxon, Gladys Goddard; Mary Cameron, Margaret Battersby; Mary O'Neil, Vera Morris; Miss French, Marian Carter; A Maid, Hilda Tooley; Candace, Grace Paris; Tenko, Dorothy Hick; Shushila, Marie Brooks; Madonna, Olive Paris; Five Angels, Kathleen Morris, Sylvia Battersby, Violet Neil, Ethel Kendal, Margaret Duncan.

Recitations, etc., will be given between the acts. Admission, 25c. Children, 10c. Everybody welcome.

Rev. J. W. McIntosh will conduct both services in St. Paul's United Church next Sunday, speaking on themes appropriate to the old year. The Sunday School will meet at 2.45 p.m. All are invited to these services.

Miss Carroll Langstaff, who is attending the University of Toronto, is spending the holiday season with her parents.

William Espey, of Markham, is taking over the store occupied by W. L. Rainey, at Elgin Mills, at New Year's. Mr. Rainey is moving to his fine new home and store at Langstaff, following his special sale of goods.

Fire which destroyed the home of Joseph Durand, Elgin Mills, Friday last, gave the new Richmond Hill fire truck its first real run. The blaze apparently starting from a stove, rapidly consumed the house, nothing being saved. Arrival of the Richmond Hill firefighters helped to save adjacent property, including the stable of Mr. Paton. Hose lines were run into a creek, water being pumped with great difficulty.

Ignoring the authority of Major Morrison, superintendent of the Jail Farm, and countermanning an order given by him, an inspector from the City Engineering Department, sent to the Jail Farm by the Property Commissioner, precipitated a verbal duel between the Major and himself a few days ago. The trouble started over one of the wells at the farm, which had been showing "red colonies" (bacteria) in the water. The Major ordered it emptied, cleaned and disinfected. The city inspector, it appears, countermanded Major Morrison's order about the well, without first consulting him. In addition to reporting the incident to the property committee chairman, Major Morrison has made a report to the inspector of prisons.

Arrangements have been completed by Messrs. Willis and Sloan, managers of the Richmond Hill Hockey Club, with the council for use of the rink, for games scheduled in the O.H. A. Intermediate series. Past players in Markham, who will be in the Richmond Hill line-up, are understood to be getting into form.

 Another meeting was held at the Hotel Richmond last week, with a view to carrying forward the organization of a Yonge Street League, Mr. Livingston, of the Hydro Railways, being in attendance. It is understood that no definite action has been taken yet.

Christmas In The Churches

ST. MARY'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
 At St. Mary's Church (C. of E.) Richmond Hill, on Christmas Day Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. and Choral Communion at 10 a.m. On Sunday, December 27, Holy Communion 8 a.m.; Morning Prayer and Sermon, 11 a.m.; Choral Evening-Song and Carols, 7 p.m.

CONTINUING PRESBYTERIAN

Two Christmas anthems were sung at last Sunday's service of the Continuing Presbyterian Church in Masonic Hall. With Miss Aileen Atkinson at the piano, the choir rendered with fine effect "Holy Night" and "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear." Next Sunday, Leo Stolls, tenor, of Toronto, will sing a solo. The anthem will be "Angels from the Realms of Glory." Rev. Mr. Murdoch, who preached last Sunday will again occupy the pulpit.

ST. PAUL'S UNITED

The Christmas services in St. Paul's United Church were well attended and with bright music and suitable messages left memories that will not soon be forgotten. The minister spoke at the morning service on "Jesus, the Word of God," showing how this name for the Saviour is most appropriate in the suggestions it gives of His character and work. The choir rendered a special Christmas anthem and Mrs. R. S. Cooper sang very appealingly Neidlinger's "Prince of Humanity." At the evening service the sermon subject was "How Jesus Saves." The choir sang "Holy Night," and also Cooke's beautiful setting of "Unto Us a Child is Born," in which Mr. A. T. Minnis rendered the bass solo with striking effect. Mr. David Stirling added to the beauty of the service by playing Handel's Laigo as a violin solo. Mr. A. Rand Phipps was in charge of the organ.

METHODIST UNITED CHURCH

The general superintendent, the matron, the teachers and about 100 children from the True Blue Orphanage, Yonge Street, north of Richmond Hill, attended the Christmas service last Sunday morning at the Richmond Hill United Church. The Richmond Hill Church is supplying gifts for the Christmas tree at the Orphanage, and the Victoria Square United Church is providing all the fowl required for Christmas dinner. Special music, as described in last week's Liberal, was rendered, and Rev. A. A. Wall preached on subjects appropriate to the season.

ST. MARY'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

On Thursday, midnight mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father Malone. The Notre Dame mass, sung in two parts, is selected for the service, the choir being under direction of Mr. J. M. Greene. Service will begin at three minutes to 12, with the singing of "Angels We Have Heard on High," with solo by Mr. Greene, and a chorus. "Adeste Fidelis" will be rung in quartette, and a solo at the Offertory will be taken by Miss May Green. J. Porell will sing two solos, one in the Gloria, and the other at the Offertory. Mrs. Greene will be organist.

At the same hour, Rev. Father Kelly will celebrate mass at Lansing.
