A Heart-to-Heart talk with Canadians

This is the story of a motion picture in which millions of people took part. The leading man is the most popular individual in all the world. The cost of production was staggering, cities, brilliant in silks and flags, entire towns built in the jungle.

The props were provided from the treasures of nations. Warships and trains, navies and armies moved at a word to make this a spectacle of magnificence and grandeur.

The scenario, lavish in language and prodigal in the use of color, was written by hundreds of people, each striving to form a background befitting the chief character in this mighty pageant.

The world was his location, encompassing a voyage of 25,000 miles lasting seven months.

Regular Meeting Presbyterian W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, was held at the home of Miss C. Heise, on Thursday evening of last week.

A very interesting programme had been prepared for the occasion, as it was the first anniversary since organizing as a continuing Presbyterian society.

It is Christine Cameron, at present home on furlough from the mission field was the speaker and she told about her work and the very appalling and terrible conditions existing in Brazil, where Miss Cameron has been since 1913.

A call is sent out for 100 workers to go to Brazil and South America, and a large Mission Field is opening. Five hundred tribes at least have not heard anything of God and His love.

Mrs. Geo. Cooper, vice-president of Toronto Presbyterian was also at the meeting and spoke a few words of encouragement to the members.

The members of the Young Women's Auxiliary took a most active part in the programme. A duet, "Come Holy Spirit" was sung by Miss Ireland and Miss C. Heise and a reading, "Our Goals" was given by Miss E. Drury.

There were twenty-eight present which was a very satisfactory and encouraging attendance.

Obituary

LATE MRS. JAMES H. ROBSON
The funeral of the late Mrs. James H. Robson who died on Saturday, May 8, was held from her late home at Purpleville, on Monday afternoon, and was largely attended. The late Mrs. Robson, who before her marriage was Annie Elizabeth Wilson, and a daughter of Henry and the late Mrs. Wilson, formerly of Vaughan township, passed away after a lengthy illness of about two years which she bore with great patience.

She was in her forty-first year and leaves to mourn her death, a family of six children, ranging in years from three to sixteen years, besides her husband, her father and five brothers, Arthur, Daniel and George, of Nobleton, Richard and John, in Toronto, and Thomas, in Calgary.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Bowman of St Paul's Presbyterian Church, seventh concession, of which the deceased was a devoted member. The floral tributes were many and beautiful and included a wreath from the ladies of the church and the township council of Vaughan of which Mr. Robson is a member. Interment took place in Maple cemetery and the following acted as pall bearers: John McGillivray, Tilford Witherspoon, John Kerr, John Constable, and George Brownlee.

Will your barn be the next?

There were 900 barns burned last year in Ontario. Will yours be in the list this year?

Lack of adequate protection resulted in heavy fire losses paid by Ontario farmers. A great proportion of these losses could have been prevented by the use of metal roofing and siding on the barns.

Cover your barn with COUNCIL STANDARD Corrugated Iron and be safe

The COUNCIL STANDARD mark is your guide for Quality Products in corrugated iron.

Flying sparks do not ignite on these roofs. Your insurance rate is lower, your barn made lightning proof, and your mind set at ease from the worry of sudden heavy financial loss.

All requirements in roofing, siding and sundries promptly filled.
