Farmers save money by buying your seed corn at the elevator.

The anniversary services of St. John's United Church, Richmond Hill, will be held on Sunday, May 23. The morning service will be conducted by Rev. I. G. Bowles, of Yonge Street United Church, and the evening services by Rev. W. E. Wilson of the King Street United Church. Both are outstanding ministers of the church, and inspiring and eloquent messages are assured for the special services. There will be special music by the choir.

The Ladies' Aid of St. John's United Church will serve a hot dinner from 11.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m., and tea from 5.00 o'clock until all are served, on Monday, May 24. Tickets, adults 50c, children (under 12 years), 25c.

John T. Anderson, piano tuner, may be secured by making an appointment at Glenn's Drug Store. Mr. Anderson has had thirty-five years' practical experience and guarantees satisfaction.

There will be a dance in the Elgin Pavilion, Elgin Mills, on Friday, May 21, with Styles' Orchestra supplying the music. There will be demonstrations of fancy dances and a buffet lunch will be provided.

Automobile traffic on North Yonge Street was exceptionally heavy on Sunday. The ideal spring weather brought out motorists in large numbers.

In our issue last week we reported in error that the attendance at the Presbyterian W.M.S. was twenty-eight. The attendance at the meeting was thirty-eight.

F. Clarke has been serving on the jury at the York County court sessions this week.

Seeding operations throughout York County are pretty well completed, but the dry weather has considerably retarded growth. Farmers report that the ground worked well and that a few warm showers would do wonders.

Several local apostles of Isaac Walton have been "fishing" during the week and report good catches.

Pupils at the public school are busy these days with rake and hoe in the school gardens. This is the practical method of interesting the rising generation in horticulture and agriculture.

Correspondents all over the country are divided as to whether or not there is a scarcity of farm labor, but are unanimous as to the scarcity of skilled men. Some correspondents state that owing to the high cost of help, more land will be seeded to grass this year and that there will be more exchange of work between neighbors. Wages range from $25 to $50 per month.

A Temperanceville correspondent reports that the farmers on that line are meeting the milk truck at the side road instead of losing an hour's sleep by meeting the car on the "fast time."

The Liberal office will be open on Monday morning and evening and any one wishing to pay their subscriptions or subscribe for our paper may do so by calling at the office. Fair prize lists may be secured from the secretary or at the Liberal office.

Empire Day exercises will be held in the public school on Friday. There will be a short program of patriotic songs and an address, after which there will be special reference to Empire subjects by the teachers to the different classes.

The Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church will have a refreshment booth on the fair grounds on Monday and will serve light lunches, candy etc. and all are invited to call and have a share of the good things.

Miss Nellie Hopper wishes to express her sincere thanks and appreciation to St. John's United Church for the lovely bouquet of flowers sent to her in her sorrow.

Rev. Battersby of St. Mary's Anglican Church will conduct the Sunday services and will be assisted in the evening by Rev. H.H. Marsh of St. Paul's Church Toronto.

Mrs. (Rev.) McIntosh attended McMaster University graduation exercises in Toronto on Tuesday night.

E. M. Carroll, president of the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, has been invited to perform the official opening ceremonies at the Richmond Hill Fair on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan returned on Saturday from Florida where they spent the winter months.

Man Found Dead

John Graves, a carpenter, aged 52 years, was found dead, sitting in a chair, in his home, Payler's Crescent, East York Township, on Friday last, by John Watts, who shared the abode. There was a bullet wound in Graves' right temple and a .38 calibre revolver was found near the body. Mr. Watts informed the local police that although Graves appeared in good spirits in the morning he had for some time been despondent over the death of a chum.

"Let's Get Married" A Gay Comedy

Colleen Moore in "Irene" Also A Star Attraction.

Advance reports tell us that Richard Dix's latest Paramount picture, "Let's Get Married", which is showing at the Capitol Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday is good. They say it is a gay comedy that starts at sixty miles an hour and gets faster every foot.

We are asked to imagine rollicking Richard as a wild young man whose lovely fiancée threatens him with the gate if he gets into any more scrapes. Innocently, he is caught in a raid on a cabaret and sent to jail for thirty days. He tries, by means of letters, to convince her that he is selling hymn books to South Sea cannibals, and his tale almost works until—but then, you'd better see "Let's Get Married."

An Ace Production
There is little doubt that "Irene" is the big picture from Colleen Moore this season.

Everybody who has seen the film thinks so—even Colleen! And she's her own harshest critic!

Speaking about the gorgeous gowns worn in "Irene," Colleen said: "Aren't they wonderful? They are more like dream clothes than real silk and lace creations."

"And the pretty girls—sixty of 'em—the most beautiful in Hollywood, for a chorus. Many of them are winners of beauty contests. They are going to be the talk of the land."

And Colleen is not the only enthusiastic one. The technical experts are talking about their big settings with the novel designing, and the ballet masters are waving their hands and lauding the new and fancy steps they created for the big array of feminine beauty. Everybody is talking about "Irene."

These are the days every question mark in a boy's lesson looks more like a fish hook to him.

A bride's beauty is greatly enhanced by choosing ugly bridesmaids.

After scrubbing the front porch put out a "smallpox" sign so people won't track it all up.
