

POLITICAL SITUATION LESS TENSE FOLLOWING RETIREMENT OF ZAGHLOUL

London.—Former Premier Zaghoul Pasha, Egyptian Nationalist leader, has decided not to form a government in Egypt himself, and this announcement from Cairo considerably relieves the tension felt in Government quarters here.

An extremely grave view of the Egyptian political situation has been taken since Zaghoul's victory in the recent elections.

The Nationalist leader's decision is interpreted here as a direct result of strong pressure which the British Government brought to bear on him through Lord Lloyd, High Commissioner in Egypt. This pressure was backed by despatch of a battleship from Malta to Egypt and the announcement that others are held there in readiness to follow at a moment's notice.

The situation is complicated by the resignation of Judge Kershaw, president of the Cairo Assize Court, in protest against the acquittal of six or seven men tried for the assassination in 1924 of Sir Leo Stack, Sirdar of the Egyptian Army. He particularly objected to the acquittal of four of the six. He voted against it, but was overruled by his two Egyptian colleagues on the bench.

The note to Lord Lloyd explains that in view of Judge Kershaw's known impartiality and fairness, the British Government cannot consider the trial proof of the innocence of the accused nor satisfactory guarantee of the safety of foreigners in Egypt, for which Great Britain has made herself responsible. The British consequently reserve full liberty of action.

Even the political crisis is not ended by Zaghoul's decision. Assuming the more moderate Adly Pasha forms a government it remains to be seen whether he will be able to hold in check the Zaghoul party in the Chamber of Deputies and the country.

In any case, however, the British are determined to hold to the four reserved points in the Anglo-Egyptian "agreement":

1. Retention of the Sudan;
2. Maintenance of a garrison in Egypt for protection of the Suez Canal;
3. Protection of Egypt against foreign aggression, and
4. Protection of foreign interests and citizens in Egypt.

Zaghoul has always refused to admit these four reservations to complete Egyptian independence.

CANADA'S BALANCE OF TRADE ON INCREASE

Exports for Year Ended April, 1926, Are 379 Million Dollars in Excess of Imports.

Ottawa.—Canada's favorable balance of trade (the excess of domestic exports over imports) was nearly $380,000,000 in the 12 months ended April 30. This is nearly $100,000,000 more than in the 12 months ending April 30, 1925.

In the 12 months ending April, 1926, domestic exports were $1,315,000,000; imports, $936,000,000. Excess of exports over imports, $379,000,000.

In the 12 months ending April, 1925, domestic exports were $1,080,000,000; imports, $795,000,000. Excess of exports over imports, $285,000,000.

United Kingdom purchases in Canada increased $100,000,000 during the twelve months ended April. United States purchases increased $50,000,000 during the same period. At the same time Canada purchased over $100,000,000 more from the United States, but only $13,000,000 more from the United Kingdom.

During the twelve months ended April Canada imported from the United Kingdom goods to the value of $164,000,000, as against $151,000,000 in the previous twelve months. Exports to the United Kingdom were $505,000,000, as against $402,000,000 in the year previous.

In the same periods imports from the United States were: 1926, $615,000,000; 1925, $507,000,000. Exports, 1926, $475,000,000; 1925, $420,000,000.

Gold and Sulphides Found at Woman Lake

Sioux Lookout.—There is a real gold strike at Woman Lake. A party consisting of Messrs. Rowe, Jackson and Manion, of Fort William and Redditt, in a serious condition in the Oshawa General Hospital as a result, it is believed, of eating stale headcheese.

The dead child is Kathleen Gravelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gravelle, Ukrainians, residing at 200 Olive Ave. Those in the hospital are: Mrs. Michael Gravelle, aged 36 years; her baby, born Sunday; Lena Gravelle, aged 13 years; Margaret Gravelle, aged 8 years; Michael Gravelle, aged 3 years; Peter Gravelle, aged 2 years; John Gravelle, aged 1 year; Michael Savich, aged 10 years, and Alex Kobernik, aged 12 years.

Two of the Gravelle children, Mike and Margaret, may not live, but the others, according to Coroner F. J. Rundle, the physician working on the case, show slight improvement. The baby, like the other children, he said, was subject to fits of vomiting, and the mother is unable to feed it. The stomach of the dead child has been sent to the Provincial Analyst, Toronto, also the samples of the headcheese found by the local police in the Gravelle home.

The headcheese was prepared by Mrs. Frank Kobernik, mother of Alex. Kobernik, who is in the hospital. Mrs. Kobernik made the headcheese as part of a wedding feast, which was held on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Savich, 327 Ritchie Road. Mrs. Kobernik knew that the Gravelles were in poor circumstances, the father, Michael Gravelle having left them destitute five months ago when an O.T.A. charge was laid against him, and so on Thursday afternoon she sent her son, Alex, to the Gravelle home with some of the headcheese that had been left over from the wedding supper.

HOUSEHOLD POISONED BY STALE HEADCHEESE

Oshawa Child Dead and Eight Others in Serious Condition.

Oshawa.—One 9-year-old child is dead and eight other children, one of them a newborn baby, as well as the mother of the dead child, are lying in a serious condition in the Oshawa General Hospital as a result, it is believed, of eating stale headcheese.

The dead child is Kathleen Gravelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gravelle, Ukrainians, residing at 200 Olive Ave. Those in the hospital are: Mrs. Michael Gravelle, aged 36 years; her baby, born Sunday; Lena Gravelle, aged 13 years; Margaret Gravelle, aged 8 years; Michael Gravelle, aged 3 years; Peter Gravelle, aged 2 years; John Gravelle, aged 1 year; Michael Savich, aged 10 years, and Alex Kobernik, aged 12 years.

The baby, like the other children, he said, was subject to fits of vomiting, and the mother is unable to feed it. The stomach of the dead child has been sent to the Provincial Analyst, Toronto, also the samples of the headcheese found by the local police in the Gravelle home.

The headcheese was prepared by Mrs. Frank Kobernik, mother of Alex. Kobernik, who is in the hospital. Mrs. Kobernik made the headcheese as part of a wedding feast, which was held on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Savich, 327 Ritchie Road. Four Small Children Burned in B.C. Ranch Home

Cranbrook, B.C.—Four small children were burned to death when the ranch home of the Woods family, five miles southwest of York, was destroyed by fire. Meagre details received here are that the mother left her six children alone for a short time while she visited a neighbor.

Last Baccalaureate.

Belleville.—Albert College baccalaureate sermon was delivered to-day to the graduating class by Rev. Dr. Graham of the Tabernacle United Church. This was the last baccalaureate under the present conditions, for the new Albert College opens as a boys' school next autumn.

PRINCESS IS BAPTIZED IN BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Duke of York's Daughter is Named Elizabeth Alexandra Mary at Private Ceremony.

London.—The five weeks' old daughter of the Duke and Duchess of York, the third in line of succession to the British throne, was christened Elizabeth Alexandra Mary in the private chapel at Buckingham Palace on May 29th. She is the first royal baby to be baptized in that chapel.

The ceremony was private and hardly a score of persons, including, of course, the godparents, King George, Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales and Lady Ephinstone, sister of the Duchess of York, were present.

At the christening the infant wore a robe of old lace several feet long, which was worn by the King and the Prince of Wales when they were baptized. During the early part of the service the baby was held by a nurse, but when the time came for the christening the Queen took her granddaughter in her arms and handed her to the Archbishop of York. Then, with water especially brought from the River Jordan and placed in a gold font belonging to the gold plate of Windsor Castle, the Archbishop made the sign of the cross on the Princess's forehead. The baby, who had been perfectly quiet up to now during her first ceremony, gave a little squeal when the Primate sprinkled water on her brow, reciting the words "In token that hereafter she shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified."

The only hymn sung was "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven," selected by the Duchess of York. The register was then signed by the King, the Queen, the Prince of Wales, Princess Mary, the Duke of Connaught and the parents of the Duchess of York, the Earl and Countess of Strathmore.

After the ceremony the King gave a private party in the picture gallery of Buckingham Palace, where a cake weighing 150 pounds and set with silver lace, satin and flowers was cut.

PLAYING TRUANT, BOY MEETS TERRIBLE END

Gear Wheel Weighing a Ton Falls on Him and His Brother, Now in Hospital.

Windsor.—When a big gear wheel, weighing almost a ton, fell on Cornelius and Nicholas Boshniak, brothers, 12 and 13 years old, in the yards of the Canadian Lamp and Stamping Co., Ford City, the first named was fatally injured, and Nicholas suffered a double fracture of the left leg and other injuries.

The boys, whose parents live at 1115 Hickory Road, Ford City, had played truant in the afternoon. When they failed to return home at 4.30 o'clock the mother made inquiries, with the result that the police ascertained almost immediately that they had been injured.

Released from under the wheel by a gang of men using a block and pulley, the boys were rushed to Hotel Dieu, where Carnell, the younger brother, died at 9.30 o'clock. One of his ribs had punctured the lung. Nicholas will recover, it was stated at the hospital.

GOLD PROSPECTOR FINDS SECRET VALLEY IN RED LAKE AREA

Kenora.—A mysterious valley containing all the necessary features to the lost valleys famous in fiction has been discovered by Captain N. A. Atkinson. Captain Atkinson has filed claims at the local Record Office covering a strike he is reported to have made near Wingisus Lake, between Red Lake and the Manitoba boundary. The valley is near his claims, he said. The entrance is difficult and hard to find and at present a deep secret, although the Captain says he will divulge it to the game authorities with a view to having the abundance of game protected.

It is entirely surrounded by cliffs and precipices, the vegetation is rich, and bears, caribou, moose and other animals are so plentiful and so tame that they can easily be shot with a revolver. A "garden of Eden" is how the prospector described it.

On his return in a few days, Captain Atkinson intends building a cabin and in connection with the game warden making the place a haven for wildlife.

Referring to the story of Lorna Doone, he stated this place describes to perfection the place mentioned in that famous novel, and he has already christened it "Doone Glen."

BRITISH MINE OWNERS LAUNCH MOVEMENT TO SETTLE COAL CONTROVERSY

London.—After thirty-three days of complete stoppage in the coal mines, the owners announced they have asked the miners' leaders for a small, private, informal conference to see whether more formal peace negotiations could not be resumed with a prospect of success.

The invitation, contained in a letter from Evan Williams, chairman of the Mining Association, to Herbert Smith, president of the Miners' Federation, is the first hope of a settlement reached in the industry itself since the strike began.

Normally such a communication would have been sent to A. J. Cook, the miners' belligerent secretary. As it is, Cook will take the letter to Smith, now attending, with other miners' leaders, a Brussels meeting of the International Miners' Federation. Nothing is likely to happen until they return Saturday.

It is understood the mine owners have in mind the holding of a small conference of a few leaders from each side. This conference would be presided over by a neutral mediator, not an arbitrator, to which the miners strongly object.

Labor's organ, the Daily Herald, attributes the owners' new move to strong pressure from big business—manufacturers—reinforced by the great banks. These are understood to have pointed out to the owners that in order to obtain renewed Government financial aid for the coal industry, it is essential for the disputants to come to terms or at least arrange a tentative peace program.

WOMEN PLAN GIFT TO LADY BYNG

Farewell Present Will Take Form of Piece of Jewelry of Canadian Manufacture.

Ottawa.—A farewell gift from the women of Canada is to be made to her Excellency, Lady Byng of Vimy. It is understood that it will take the form of a piece of jewelry of distinctive Canadian character and manufacture, and will be of a design that will remind her of the years spent in this Dominion.

Committees have been organized in the various provinces for the purpose of arranging for the presentation. Mrs. Ernest Lapointe, wife of the Minister of Justice, is president of the Central Committee; Mrs. J. H. King, wife of the Minister of Public Works, is treasurer, and Miss Beccourt, daughter of Senator Beccourt, is secretary. No date has yet been set for the presentation.

As was the case when presentations were made to several other departing ladies of Rideau Hall, Lady Byng has been consulted as to the form the gift should take. In some instances in the past furs were selected as a distinctly Canadian gift.

Aged Man Perishes in Chatsworth Fire

Owen Sound.—David Callander, between 75 and 80 years of age, was burned to death in a fire that completely destroyed his home, along with three other buildings, in the Village of Chatsworth at a late hour on Wednesday night. Mr. Callander, who operated a small gasoline station, lived by himself in a small house on the main street of the village, and it was in this place that the fire started. With a strong west wind blowing, it soon spread to the adjoining buildings, a residence on one side and a garage and blacksmith shop on the other. The buildings were of frame construction, and were seen a mass of ruins.

AUTO PLUNGES INTO BAY—THREE DROWNED

Party from Prince Edward County Mistook Belleville Dock for Bay Bridge.

Belleville.—Mistaking the approach to Government Dock here for the Bay Bridge Road leading to Prince Edward County, four young people in an automobile plunged over the edge of the dock into 14 feet of water, three losing their lives.

The drowned are: Keith Ostrander, aged 19, driver of the five-passenger car; his sister, Bernice, aged 22, son and daughter of Walter Ostrander of South Bay, Prince Edward County; and Geraldine Dulmage, aged 20, daughter of Claude Dulmage of Long Point. Roy Dulmage, a relative of Miss Dulmage, was saved, as he was washed out of the back seat through the door to the surface, where he was rescued by Assistant Engineer Arthur Maines of the tug Joseph J. Russell, which was at the dock.

The party left their homes on the south side of Prince Edward about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon to visit friends near Shannonville. They were on their return when the tragedy occurred.

26,261 DEPOSITORS PAID BY GOVERNMENT

Home Bank Losses to the Extent of $2,227,203 Have Been Recouped.

Ottawa.—The Federal Government has paid a total of $1,334,623 to Home Bank depositors who had accounts in the defunct bank of over $500. Answering a question in the House of Commons, the Minister of Finance stated that there was still a balance of $754,821 available for payment out of the sum provided for the purpose.

In addition to the above sum, 23,277 depositors who had accounts of less than $500 have received relief. The number of depositors with accounts of more than $500 who have received relief to date total 2,984, and the aggregate paid to depositors of both classes is $2,227,203 up to May 31 of this year.

Message to Social Workers.

Addressing the Annual Convention of the Children's Aid Societies of Ontario recently held at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Mr. J. J. Keiso gave social workers the following message: Keep warm in your heart the real spirit of sympathy and good will for the poor, the distressed, the erring, for we can accomplish more of permanent good by a friendly forgiving attitude than we can ever hope for through employing the machinery of law. Officialdom—following blindly a set formula—hardens and deadens, but love restores and makes alive, and this alone gives influence and power in philanthropic as in Christian work.

Our guiding principle should be to overcome evil with good, to substitute reformation for punishment, to improve or change environment, to restore self-respect and the sense of responsibility, to awaken in dormant hearts a real desire for better and nobler living. Such a policy animating all our actions will surely be productive of lasting results, and give to the worker a joy and satisfaction in service that will compensate for all the failures and disappointments that are more or less inevitable in spite of our best efforts.

Welland Girl Picked up Rifle With Fatal Result

Welland, Ont.—Picking up a 22-calibre rifle, which she found lying on a bed, Julia Molner, ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Molner, Wright Street, Crowland, was fatally injured when the weapon was discharged, the bullet entering the abdomen. The girl was rushed to the Welland County Hospital but passed away three hours later.

The rifle was the property of her brother, Joseph, who, with two other brothers, were at home visiting.

Coroner Dr. Duncan Allison was notified, and after consultation with the Crown, adjudged an inquest as unnecessary, the fatality being clearly accidental.
