

ONE WOMAN KILLED, NINE INJURED, IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH NEAR TORONTO

Toronto, June 14.—When a motor car driven by William Patterson, Claremont Street, capsized in a ditch while going at a fast rate past the home of Lady Bailie, about two miles west of Oakville, Ont., on the Toronto-Hamilton Highway, at 2.15 Sunday morning, one young woman was killed, four of the occupants were badly injured and may not recover, and five others, one young girl and four men, sustained slight hurts. The victims are as follows:

- DEAD.
LORETTA BOSLEY, aged 19, of 107 Peter Street. Miss Bosley died in a motor car while on her way to St. Joseph's Hospital.
- SERIOUSLY INJURED.
GUSSIE PERRY, age 18 of 40 Mariposa Avenue, serious head injuries, possibly a fractured skull, and internal injuries.
GLORIA GRAY, age 20, of 104 Maitland Street, left shoulder broken, head injuries, and possible fracture of the right arm.
DULCIE BOSLEY, age 16, sister of the dead girl, serious head and internal injuries.
NORMAN McMILLAN, age 22, of 15 Westminister Avenue, fractured skull, concussion and internal injuries.
SLIGHTLY INJURED.
R. W. ALLAN, 278 Bain Avenue.

LEO TRAVERS, 409 Lansdowne Avenue.
THOMAS J. McELROY, 129 Margueretta Street.
ALMA PHILLIPS, 15 Seymour Avenue.
WILLIAM PATTERSON, age 22, Claremont Street, driver of the car.
 The body of the dead girl was removed to the Morgue, where an examination showed that practically every bone in her body had been broken.
 After an investigation by Chief of Police Kerr, of Oakville, Patterson was taken into custody on a charge of manslaughter. He is held without bail. Inquiries at the hospital last night gained the response that those seriously hurt had only a bare chance for life. McMillan, it is said, is in the worst condition.
 The party, ten in all, were on their way to Hamilton when the mishap occurred. The outing had been arranged by Patterson, who both owned and drove the car, a large machine. All went well with the party until they got past Oakville. There the car was espied by an Oakville constable, tearing along at between forty or fifty miles an hour. In fact, he said, the car was traveling so fast that he was unable to catch the number, despite the fact that the highway was fairly well lighted at the spot.

WOMAN STORE CLERK ASSAILED BY ROBBER

Hamilton Woman, Defending Cash Till, Clubbed With Hammer—Tussle With Police.

Hamilton.—Murderously assaulted at noon on Thursday by a thug armed with a hammer, Mrs. Percy Cook, 168 Gage Avenue North, will recover, it was stated at the General Hospital.
 She was attacked in S. S. Needle's shoe store, 653 Barton Street East, where she is a clerk, when she resisted the effort of a burly foreigner to rob the cash register.
 Her assailant was Joe Barty, 378 James Street North, powerful Hungarian steel worker, who was captured before he escaped from the store by reason of the plucky fight put up by the woman's husband and Mr. Needle, the proprietor. Inspector Cruikshank of the East End precinct laid Barty out prone with two blows from a short loaded "billy."

Barty entered the store under the pretence of buying a pair of shoes. Mrs. Cook is usually alone in the store during noon hour. As Mrs. Cook approached to wait upon him, Barty, it is alleged, struck her two cruel blows on the head with a hammer. She fell to the floor and was believed to be mortally wounded.

Powerful as Barty was, Cook and Needle, both small men, rushed upon the brutal assailant and grappled with him. He shook them off several times by sheer strength, and bit and clawed like one mad. Cook was bitten badly on the nose and neck. Needle feared Mrs. Cook's life was ebbing away and ran to the street for help. Meanwhile Cook held on to the powerful foreigner and both were in a clinch when Inspector Cruikshank reached the store and used his "billy" effectively.

Mrs. Cook is said to have suffered a fracture of the skull as a result of the blows from the hammer. She was reported Thursday night to be improved and her recovery is expected.
 Hamilton.—Taking a sudden turn for the worse, Mrs. Percy Cook, the young woman who was attacked by a thug with a hammer at noon on Thursday last when she resisted his attempt to rob the cash register of S. Needle's shoe store, on Barton Street East, succumbed in the General Hospital on Saturday afternoon.
 Joe Barty, burly Hungarian steel worker, her alleged assailant, is now on remand for one week charged with assault and attempted robbery, which may be raised, authorities state, after the inquest is held. He was arrested before he could escape from the store.

Lord and Lady Willingdon

NEW GOVERNOR-GENERAL HAS SERVED AS VICEROY OF BOMBAY AND MADRAS

London.—Lord Willingdon has been appointed governor-general of Canada to succeed Lord Byng of Vimy.
 Viscount Willingdon, before receiving his title of baron in 1910, was known as Freeman Freeman-Thomas. He was a great cricketer, having been captain of both the Eton and the Cambridge elevens.
 He was Liberal member of the House of Commons for Hastings from 1900 to 1906 and member for the Bodmin division of Cornwall from 1906 to 1910. From 1906 to 1912 he was junior lord of the treasury. The viscount was a member of the Sussex Imperial yeomanry and lord-in-waiting to the King.
 He married in 1892 Marie Adelaide, the youngest daughter of Lord Brassey. She is the "Marie" Brassey who figures on almost every page of that fascinating volume, "The Voyage of the Sunbeam," in which her mother, the authoress, portrayed the life of the family during the long time spent in their researches of the oceans.

 Viscount Willingdon has already had considerable experience in the affairs of the empire. He was A.D.C. to his father-in-law, Earl Brassey, when the latter was governor of Victoria. Later, in 1913, he was appointed governor of Bombay with its 30,000 population, and after a tenure of six years in that office, he added a further time as governor of the equally important presidency of Madras.
 Early this year Viscount Willingdon went to China, at the request of the British government, as chairman of a commission to consider on the spot the whole question of the best use of the funds accruing from the remitted Boxer indemnity.

YOUNG MEN DROWNED WHEN CANOE UPSETS

Two Students of Western Ontario University Lose Lives in Georgian Bay.

Midland.—Resolved to join a tennis club at Port McNicoll, and ignoring warnings not to attempt the passage, two young men, William C. Duddridge, aged 28, and Ray Eden, aged 21, both of London, Ont., set out from Triple Bay Park, and were drowned when the 16-foot canoe which they were paddling was swamped by the heavy seas running in Georgian Bay.
 Both young men were capable swimmers, but the iciness of the water and the difficulty of making headway through the turbulent waves proved too much for them, despite the fact that they were only some 200 yards from the shore.
 A. G. Elson, proprietor of Triple Bay Park, and by whom they were employed, attempted to swim through the breakers to their assistance, but was compelled to return to shore almost exhausted.
 Ray Eden and William C. Duddridge were students of the University of Western Ontario, London, and members of the college students' orchestra.

Bill Passed to Restrict Sale of Firearms

Ottawa.—The Belcourt bill, to impose further restrictions on the sale or possession of firearms other than hunting rifles, passed all stages in the Senate. It now goes to the House of Commons.
 The Senate gave final reading to two Government bills: one changing the income tax rate, and the excise bill, which affects the sale of Canadian tobacco in foreign ports and reducing to $3 a thousand the excise on cigars put up in boxes of ten or less.

Horse Found Dead With Tongue Cut Off

Orangeville, Ont.—To find his best horse dead, caused by some persons having cut off its tongue near the root, was the startling discovery made by Ross Dobson, a young farmer in Mulmur Township, Friday afternoon. The animal, valued at $150, was in a pasture on the next farm. A week before, a large black horse received a four-inch incision on the neck, just missing the jugular vein. Dobson, who is a veteran of the Great War, is at a loss to know the reason of these rash acts as he has no known enemies.

Soviet Workers Send $313,000 to Great Britain

Moscow.—The Soviet Trades Union Council, on June 8, turned over to the British Miners' Federation 400,000 roubles, representing the fifth instalment of a total of 626,000 roubles (about $313,000), according to Tass, the official news agency of the Soviet.

ESTIMATES PASSED FOR PUBLIC WORKS

Parliament Approves of Total Expenditure of Over Seven Million Dollars.

Ottawa, Ont.—Estimates of the Department of Public Works totalling $7,450,263, were passed in the House of Commons.
 Chief among the items was one for $5,344,000, covering improvements, repairs, heating, and the like, of Dominion public buildings. Other votes for public buildings included the following: For the Maritime Provinces generally, $43,000; Quebec, $448,920; Ontario, $530,243; Manitoba, $78,000; Saskatchewan, $20,000; Alberta, $40,000; British Columbia, $210,650.
 An item of $402,550, for harbors and rivers in Nova Scotia, and a further amount of $69,900 for harbors and rivers in Prince Edward Is. and were also included.

Russian Bolshevik Wears Court Dress

London.—The Russian Bolshevik Charge D'Affaires, M. Rozejelez, attended the Royal Court at the Palace wearing regulation court dress of satin knee breeches, silk stockings and a jewelled court sword, but no decorations.

B.C. Strawberry Growers Are Seeking Dumping Duty

Victoria, B.C.—Agitation by British Columbia strawberry growers for a dumping duty on berries brought into Canada from the United States has the support of the Provincial Department of Agriculture.
 Unusual weather conditions have resulted in the berries ripening earlier than usual and those of certain parts of the United States, particularly Missouri, being retarded in ripening, so they are now being shipped at the same time to the Prairie Provinces of Canada, where they have to be sold at exceptionally low prices.

CHILDREN SUFFER FROM SLOW STARVATION

Pathetic Tale of Want, Hunger and Whippings Unfolded in Court.

Peterboro.—Startling evidence was produced in the trial of Mrs. George Dwyer of Dummer on a charge of neglect of her step-children, one of whom died in March last in a terribly emaciated condition. Another, George, lay for a long time in hospital, suffering from frozen feet and hands. A statement made by Mrs. Dwyer was read, telling of the boys being beaten with a blacksnake whip wielded by their father until the whip broke, and of how he then continued to belabor John, aged 11, with the stock. When she tried to interfere, she, too, was beaten, and the dog that took the boys' part was beaten off.
 Nellie, aged 13, the third of the alleged victims, told in heart-breaking manner of the privations suffered in the rude Dummer shack, of early rising to a breakfast of dry porridge, of beatings given the boys, and of hard work on bodies that were, she said tearfully, "mostly hungry."
 The Crown Prosecutor, J. K. McKay of Toronto, wiped often in his examination to wipe the little girl's eyes with his handkerchief and still her sobs.
 George, 10-year-old brother, was another pathetic figure as he told the same story of want and hunger and beating, but perhaps not so much in anything else as when he admitted that he had never been taught a prayer until he came to the Children's Shelter.
 Mrs. Dwyer is defended by F. D. Kerr, K.C., and Judge E. C. S. Huyck is presiding.
 Medical evidence was to the effect that the children all suffered from slow starvation.

EXPLORER FINDS NEW SPECIES OF TREES

Discoveries in Central America Include Tree That Furnishes Milk.

New Haven, Conn.—Indians of Eastern Guatemala have at least one advantage over more civilized peoples which must depend on cows and goats for milk. Whenever a Guatemalan feels thirsty all he has to do is to go into the jungles and cut a gash in a "cow tree."
 So Dr. Samuel J. Record, professor of forests' products at Yale, explained in announcing the discovery on a recent trip to Central America of a dozen new species of trees, one the "cow tree," and a tree whose sap is blood red.
 Creamy white latex gushes out of the "cow tree" when it is cut with an axe, Dr. Record said. After tasting the sap and finding it free from stickiness, he said his only regret was that he had no way of carrying a supply back to his camp to pour on a dish of bananas.
 In British Honduras he found the "bleeding" tree, another relative of the Paduac of India and Africa, which is used in the making of fine furniture.
 Another tree he has reported to the Bureau of Forestry at Washington is one whose wood is excellent for cabinets, but whose sap is poisonous, inflicting deep burns.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS OPPOSE U.S. DEBT PLAN

Party With 100 Votes Will Vote Against Settlement in its Present Form.

Paris.—The Socialist party, with 100 votes in the French Chamber of Deputies, will vote against the United States debt settlement.
 The failure to include any clause safeguarding France from paying beyond her capacity or any transfer clause such as Germany was given under the Dawes plan to prevent payments if they lower the payer's currency is the reason given for the Socialist opposition.
 The Socialists raised their objection now because the agreement will come up for ratification in the Chamber soon. The announcement is a warning that the party will fight ratification unless the settlement is altered.

Asphodel Farmer Crushed by Machine

Peterboro, Ont.—Thomas Star, a well known resident of Asphodel, was instantly killed on Saturday, when a machine he had been repairing fell on him and crushed him to death.
 The machine, which was a manure-spreader and loaded, and evidently been jacked up and in some way the props gave way, letting the heavy load fall on him. He was found later by his little daughter. Help soon arrived but life was extinct.

You rob children when you let fire loose in the woods. Fifty million acres of young growth in our Dominion belong to the next generation.

QUEBEC COUPLE DROWNED, FOUR RESCUED, WHEN AUTO LEAPS DAM

Angliers, Que.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vandale, of Ville Marie, were drowned and four others were rescued from certain death through the courage of a guide, Angus Chevrier, when the automobile in which the six were riding, drove over the dam on Lake Quinze, a few miles from here, Saturday evening. The bodies of the two victims were not recovered until some time later, and it was evident that they had been thrown from the car.
 The rescued were: Joseph Golinski, of Angliers; Peter and Dorothy Vandale, son and daughter of the deceased couple, and Fern Tremblay. All four were severely bruised and cut by the fall.
 The six were in the Vandale car and were crossing on the dam when they met a horse and rig. In turning out for the rig, Mr. Vandale drove too close to the edge of the dam and the right wheels dropped off, pulling the car down a fifteen-foot embankment into twelve feet of water on the north shore of Lake Quinze. Angus Chevrier, paddling in that vicinity, saw the accident and rushed to the rescue. His prompt and efficient efforts succeeded in saving Mr. Golinski and the three children. He effected the rescue by cutting a hole through the top of the car.

 Mr. and Mrs. Vandale were driving in the front seat and were evidently thrown from the car as it rolled down the embankment. The others, riding in the back seat, were not thrown out. Jack Clare, local diver, located both bodies.
 Messrs. Vandale and Golinski operated the Timiskaming Fisheries at Angliers. Deceased couple leave five small children, the oldest being eight years.

 Who on June 4 celebrated the 35th anniversary of his appointment to the York County bench. All alone he handles one-third of the division court work of Ontario.

INCOME TAX AMENDMENTS RECEIVE THIRD READING IN FEDERAL HOUSE

Ottawa, Ont.—Income tax changes announced in the budget were given third reading in the House with one amendment. This was a substitute clause, touching on personal corporations, proposed by Hon. G. H. Boivin, Minister of Customs. The new clause provides:
 "Dividends actually declared by a personal corporation after December 31, 1924, shall be deemed to be paid out of income earned after said December 31, 1924, so far as the same is available, and to that extent shall not be liable to further taxation in the hands of shareholders."
 Explaining the change, Mr. Boivin said there was no intention of putting the personal corporation out of existence. "But we do say," he added, "you shall pay the same amount of Federal taxation as if you had remained an individual." In future, no matter what the surplus might be, the entire earnings of the corporation would be taxed as personal income for the year.

 C. H. Cahan (St. Lawrence-St. George) had an amendment to exempt 1925 Canadian dividends from taxation. Henri Bourassa (Labelle) had another that the exemption age for dependent children be raised from 18 to 21. Both amendments were withdrawn.
