McDonalds Orchestra will supply music for dancing. Admission to grounds 25 cents. Supper on the grounds 35 cents. J. F. Lynett, Secretary Box 119, Richmond Hill.

Richmond Hill girls' softball team defeated Thornhill Saturday afternoon last at the Presbyterian Church Garden Party by a 22 to 18 score. The play was somewhat marred by the wet grounds and as would be expected there was plenty of errors on both sides. N. Sparks of Richvale and L. Burns formed the battery for Richmond Hill and W. Irish and G. Hooper for their opponents.

Richmond Hill girls have the players, all they need is the practice. If they get out to practise three nights a week they could have a real snappy team.

Monday evening, July 19 Aurora and Lansing girls will play a league game at Aurora Park.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. Allen Armstrong and daughter, Thelma are spending a few weeks at Sparrow Lake.

Mrs. G.H. Duncan is leaving on Monday for a trip to Vancouver. She will be away about two months.
