Lennox Elected In North York

Col. T. H. Lennox emerged from one of the most keenly contested campaigns in the history of the historic riding of North York with a majority over his Liberal opponent of about 400 votes, about 100 less than his majority over Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in the election last year. Authentic detailed returns for the various polling sub-divisions could not be obtained for this issue but will be published in full next week. In the south part of the riding the showing of the Liberal candidate was exceptionally good and marked gains over last election were noted in Vaughan and Markham townships. Richmond Hill gave the Conservative candidate a majority of 52 which is six less than last year. Mr. Sifton made a splendid showing at Richvale, Thornhill and Victoria Square and his friends in this section of the riding are well pleased with the result. Contrary to reports which have been freely circulated the town of Newmarket gave the Liberal candidate a larger majority than was given Mr. King last election and Stouffville gave Mr. Sifton the handsome majority of 270.

Mr. Lennox was given a right royal reception in all parts of the riding after his election was conceded. Large crowds gathered at Aurora, Newmarket, Richmond Hill and other points and did honor to their candidate. At each reception Mr. Lennox thanked the electors for their support and was given loud and enthusiastic ovations all along the line. A large crowd waited until a late hour in the local arena until "Herb" arrived and cheered the winner to the echo. Conservative enthusiasm in North York seemed little dampened by the fate of the party elsewhere and they celebrated until the early hours.

Town Fathers Discuss Roads

The regular session of the town council was held in the Clerk's office on Monday Night. The condition of the roads in the village was the main item of discussion and it is probable that some of the side streets will be repaired in the very near future. It was the unanimous opinion of the councillors that Yonge Street should merely be patched in the worst places as they felt that the citizens of Richmond Hill should not be taxed for the upkeep of a road which is used largely by provincial traffic.

It was felt that some action should be taken in regards to Richmond and Centre Streets, and Reeve Lunau was delegated to secure an agreement from the county providing that the village will be reimbursed to the extent of 75 per cent on money expended on streets which are connecting links to Yonge Street. If a satisfactory agreement can be obtained Centre Street will be gravelled and other streets materially improved. Councillor Herrington reported that he had been approached by the Horticultural Society who offered to fix up and beautify the park provided the council would remove the asphalt floor of the old rink.

LARGE CROWD HEARD ELECTION RESULTS

Excellent service and Entertainment
Given by W. G. Baldock, Limited...

About 2000 residents of all sections of this district were guests of W. G. Baldock, Ltd., on Tuesday night when the election returns were received by Atwater Kent radio and flashed on the screen in the local arena. The North York Band of 22 pieces under the leadership of Mr. A. Anderson, of Richmond Hill, supplied the music and the work of the newly organized musical organization was the subject of much favorable comment.

Chevrolet and Oakland cars were on display and literature bearing numbers was distributed and prizes were awarded to the lucky numbers. The prize winners were 1. W. Tyndall 2. Father Kelly; 3. Mrs. W. H. Mylkes.

Won Prize

"Billy" Mylkes of Richmond Hill was the winner of a handsome prize, a Congoleum rug, in a lucky number contest at the Canadian National Exhibition last week.

NORTH YORK LIBERALS CELEBRATED GREAT LIBERAL VICTORY AT THE POLLS

Are the Liberals of North York downhearted? Over 4000 from every section of the riding who gathered in the Newmarket arena on Wednesday night to celebrate the Liberal victory at the polls with cheers and shouting answered NO. Liberal workers and Liberal voters gathered in thousands to do honor to the candidate, Mr. Harry Sifton, who carried the Liberal standard with credit to himself and to the party which he represented. A monster parade headed by the Newmarket band started at Thornhill and with shouts, cheers and honking of horns wended its way to Newmarket. Over one hundred cars took part in the parade and many more were waiting its arrival at Newmarket. "King "DID" Win" was the slogan which was prominently displayed.

Early in the evening seats were at a premium and the gathering was about similar in size to the joint meeting held in the same hall on Friday last. When Mr. Sifton mounted the platform he was loudly cheered; old men waved their hats women shouted, boys whistled, some had trumpets, some horns and the rest just cheered. It was a reception which was a tribute to the candidate who in the strict sense of the term was defeated but in the hearts of the vast gathering was a "winner" in the true sense of the term.

A. D. Bruce the capable and efficient campaign manager who has worked unceasingly since the commencement of the campaign ably acted as chairman. He said that what on the surface seemed defeat was really victory. Harry Sifton had not won, but he was on the way. He urged all the workers to maintain their organization so that next time they could start where they left off, and not have to start all over again.

Harry Sifton the candidate sincerely thanked the vast audience for the splendid support accorded him on Tuesday and declared that the next time he would be victorious. "I am quite confident," he said "with a little longer time in the riding the result would have been different. I had no fear of the decision of the voters, I had the privilege of meeting personally and discussing the issues; but it is not surprising that those who did not meet me when subjected to influence of one kind and another could not see their way clear to vote for me. But I am with you now and I am going to stay with you. (Cheers) By the time the next election rolls around I will know you all a good deal better and I know we will win." "It is a source of great satisfaction," said Mr. Sifton, "to know that we have played the game clean. Not one charge or insinuation has been made against a Liberal worker anywhere in the riding."

Among the speakers of the evening were Hon. Nelson Parliament, Joseph Singer, Wesley Williams, Warden Pearson, Chas. Collins, A. Hamilton, and W. A. Ward. All were unanimous in paying tribute to the splendid Liberal victory won throughout the Dominion and to the splendid clean manly and vigorous campaign of the local candidate.

The Newmarket, Aurora and Stouffville bands were in attendance and rendered pleasing numbers during the evening. A pleasing feature was the introduction to the audience by the candidate of his wife and young son. They were given a mighty cheer by the gathering.

If any proof were needed that Liberalism is very much alive in North York the monster gathering certainly supplied the proof. Every section of the riding was represented and a more enthusiastic crowd could not even be imagined. It was a great tribute to the personality, the honesty and the integrity of Harry Sifton, to the Liberal party and to its leader, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

The Liberal Candidate in North York Who Came Through the Strenuous Campaign "Smiling" After Considerably Reducing The Majority of T. H. Lennox The Veteran Campaigner

Coming Prime Minister and Leader Of The Liberal Party Who Won A Decisive Victory at the Polls on Tuesday.

Liberal Victory

The Liberal Party won a decisive victory at the polls on Tuesday. The short-lived Conservative administration was rejected by the electors in no uncertain manner and Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King will be Prime Minister of the next parliament. The King administration when formed will have a majority in the house of probably over sixty and latest returns give the standing of the parties as follows:—Liberals, 119; Conservatives, 91; Progressives, 8; Lib. Progressives, 11; U. F. A. 11; Labor, 3; Independent, 2.

Premier Meighen and five of his shadow cabinet ministers went down to personal defeat in their constituencies while Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and all the members of his cabinet were elected by substantial majorities.

Toronto and the Yorks were somewhat out of tune in the Liberal sweep and went solid Conservative, although in other parts of Ontario the Liberals made substantial gains.

Ontario has never had so many Liberal members as in the new house since the "reciprocity" election of 1911, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier was swept from power and his Ontario representation diminished from 36 to 13. In the wartime election of 1917 his following was practically wiped out. In 1921 the contest was featured by the entry of the Progressives as a new political force in the province, and in that election the new party captured 24 seats, as compared with the Liberals 21, while the Conservatives carried 37 seats. In the election last October the Liberals took but 12 seats out of 82.

An analysis of the Ontario returns would indicate that, as a rule, the larger cities returned Conservatives almost in entirety, while the smaller cities and the rural districts were more inclined to vote Liberal or Progressive.

The approximate majorities of the elected candidates in the Yorks are as follows:—York N., T. H. Lennox, 400; York W., Sir Henry Drayton, 9,265; York S., R. H. McGregor, 1,897.

The largest majority in Ontario was given Harris, Conservative candidate in Toronto, Scarborough, 10,375. The largest majority accorded a candidate in the Dominion was given to Denis, Liberal in St. Denis, Quebec.
