Air Flights
On Yonge St., west side, on the old Hislop Farm, quite remarkable interest is daily enjoyed in the plane flights indulged in from this ground, on which now is established a regular service for ascents.

On Sunday last, the day being calm and otherwise favorable, a continuous stream of passengers seemed to be on hand, anxious to explore somewhat of the upper regions, while small crowds were fascinated, gazing at the carrying of the machine, as it swept and lurched along on its progress.

Many have their minds inclined upwards; but they think that $5 is a long fare and a big price for so short a piece of the way.

Must Stop
The trustees of the Richmond Hill cemetery have received reports of despicable vandalism during the past few weeks. Not only have flowers been tampered with at the cemetery but it is reported that several urns and other vessels have been stolen.
