Choice Property

Anyone considering buying farm property would do well to attend the auction sale of the property of Isaac Nigh, Lot 31, Con. 3, Township of Markham, on Saturday October 16, at 2 o'clock. This is an excellent farm property in a good state of cultivation with good buildings equipped with all modern conveniences, good apple orchard, and in a very desirable locality.

Bazaar

The Ladies' Aid of St. John's United Church are serving a tea in the school room of the church on October 12th. Tea served from 5.30 to 7 o'clock, price 25c. In connection with the tea will be a miscellaneous shower for the bazaar where the society will be pleased to receive contributions from friends of the congregation.

Want "Ads"

Hundreds of people in this district will testify that you can't beat a want ad in the Liberal for results. One insertion has rented a farm; on insertion sold a cookstove that had been taking up good room in the back kitchen for years. Try us for results.

Sale Bills

Don't forget that the Liberal Job Printing department is headquarters in this district for printing concert and sale bills. It will pay you to come to us and be sure of a satisfactory job at the right price.

Hunt Club Meeting

A meeting of the Richmond Hill Rod and Gun club will be held at the home of Mr. John Grey, Aurora on Friday evening when plans will be made for the annual fall hunt.

Chicken Thieves

Last week a badly damaged Ford car was towed into Baldock's garage. It had been abandoned by an alleged chicken thief after he had crashed into a truck on Yonge Street. About forty chickens (Plymouth Rocks) were liberated by the driver of the car before he took his departure. The owner of the car has not yet been located.

The pessimist thinks he brought prosperity by sitting around waiting for it to come.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

An afternoon tea was held at the home of Mrs. Dr. Kelly, Buttonville, on Saturday last, in aid of the Presbyterian church Bazaar at Richmond Hill. A goodly number from this district were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton E. Wills entertained over the week-end at their country home, "Shadow Brook," Newtonbrook for Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Criqui, of Buffalo, and Mademoiselle Marceline d'Alroy.

Messrs. Norman Glass, A. T. Minnis, Reeve Lunau, A. E. Glass, Councillor G. H. Sloan, J. Bowman, of Newmarket, John Gray of Aurora and A. G. Savage enjoyed a fishing trip to Mr. Savage's cottage on Lake Couchiching over the week-end. The party struck very bad weather and were unable to venture forth only once but were successful in securing a good taste of fish.

Rev. H. F. Battersby and Mrs. F. J. Philpot attended the annual Sunday School teachers convention in Schomberg on Tuesday.

Miss Gwen Brooks and Miss Joyce Jones of Toronto spent the week-end with Miss Marion Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cruickshank returned home on Sunday evening from their motor trip to Boston, Mass. and Chatham, Cape Cod.

Mr. Leonard Burton of Preston who took charge of Mr. Cruickshank's business returned to Preston Monday morning.

Mr. Peter C. Browne of Thornhill, Ont., wishes to announce the engagement of his eldest daughter, Joan Dymocke, to Thomas W. Wilkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wilkinson, York Mills, Ont. Marriage to take place early in October.

Mrs. A. A. Perry returned on Saturday last from a delightful trip through Western Canada where she visited friends in several of the cities and attended the Author's convention in Vancouver.

Mr. M. J. Mahoney of Cleveland is spending a few days in the village.

Mr. E. P. Leno is able to be out again after being confined to the house through illness for a few days. Mrs. F. J. Mansbridge is expected to return from the Old Land the end of the week.

Vaughan Council

The regular meeting of the Vaughan township-council will be held in the Township hall, Velore on Monday Oct. 4, at 11 a.m. for the transaction of general business.

Veteran's Meeting

All great war veterans of the district are invited to attend an organization meeting in the Council Chamber Richmond Hill on Monday evening, Oct. 4, at 8 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is for the formation of a local organization which will be apart entirely from any national veterans organization. Prominent speakers will be present and it is hoped that a large representation of the veterans of York County will be present.

Final Games

Two final games in the Yonge St. Softball League will be played on Saturday afternoon when the championship of both Men's and Ladies' groups will be decided. Thornhill girls will clash with Aurora at Newmarket and Newtonbrook and Richmond Hill will play at Thornhill.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the Late John Slincy wish to express sincere thanks to their many friends and neighbors and appreciation of their kind expressions of sympathy during their recent sad bereavement.

Alfalfa Yield Will Be Fair

While the recent wet weather has not been suitable for harvesting clover and alfalfa seed, it is expected that the general crop in Eastern Canada will be fair. Alsike should run 60 per cent. of last years crops or better, alfalfa about the same as last year and sweet clover probably better.

Serg.-Major Butler Will Command Corps

The newly organized Salvation Army Corps opened fire in Richmond Hill on Saturday night and were given a very cordial reception by the citizens of this district. Weekly services both on the street and in the Council Chambers will be held and the work of the Army which has won commendation throughout the entire world will be actively carried on in this district.

The installation services at the Sunday night meeting were in charge of Capt. Parnell of Aurora. The new district Sergeant Major in charge of the corps is J. W. Butler of Richmond Hill. Sergeant Major Butler was formerly attached to the Fairbank Corp which he organized and has been living in Richmond Hill since May last. He served overseas with the Canadian Engineers and has a creditable war record. He will have charge of the district from Lansing as far north as Aurora and the Liberal joins the people of this district in extending best wishes to the army and its work here in this district.

Bowling Notes

The rink skipped by Geo. Gee won the J. A. Greene cup at the annual tournament at the local green on Thursday last. The games were keenly contested and thoroughly enjoyed. The winners were; 1st prize, Miss L. Harding, Geo. Glenn, Mrs. Geo. Glenn, Geo. Gee skip. Second prize; Miss L. Clement, A. Wright, Miss McLean, A. E. Glass, skip.

It has been suggested that the local club stage a doubles tournament to wind up the season. It is, however, still in the speculation stage but if there is prospects of good weather it will probably be held.

The prize for the championship of the ladies club have been presented to Mrs. Kerswill's rink which won the highest standing during the season. The prizes, four hand-worked linen handkerchiefs were donated by the president Mrs. Jackson. The winning rink was as follows; Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Trench, Mrs. Kerswill.
