Lilacs In Bloom In October Twenty Years Ago, Sugar Beet Weighed Over Sixteen Pounds

Thirty Years Ago
From Our Issue of October 8, 1896

At the Markham fair last week Mr. John Palmer got first money for his trotting mare, Lady Richmond, in the 2.30 class and second for the same mare in the 2.50 class. Miss Jennie Palmer got first prize as lady driver.

A partridge seems to have got out of its latitude on Friday. When C. C. Billings was coming out of the bank he noticed the bird sitting in one of Mr. Lawrence's maples. Leaving the partridge flew against Atkinson and Switzer's plate glass window with such force that it stunned itself. Mr. Billings then caught it and as it was fat and plump it is needless to say the banker knew enough to the game to have it for dinner.

At Stouffville fair held last week several prizes were won by Mr. P. W. Boynton for sheep

Twenty-five Years Ago
From Our Issue of October 10, 1901

At the general elections in Nova Scotia the Liberals won 36 out of 38 seats.

If any person doubts the ability of Canadian soil to grow sugar beets let him visit the root field of Mr. Thos. Ludford on the Palmer farm. A beet from that field was brought to the Liberal office a few days ago weighing 16½ pounds. It was solid and perfect in every particular.

The market reports lambs at $3.50 each; choice hogs, per cwt. $7.00 and butchers choice cattle at $3.75.

Twenty Years Ago
From Our Issue of Oct. 11, 1905.

At the regular meeting of the Vaughan Township council a grant of Plowmen's Association.

Mrs. C. Crook of Maple won the gold watch offered by H. C. Bailey as a prize for the one guessing nearest the correct weight of a bar of soap. The bar weighed 91 pounds 4 ounces.

Lilacs in full bloom and as fragrant as in the month of May were picked a few days ago at the rear of the Standard Bank. Lilacs in October are certainly a novelty.

"A number of our citizens went to the James Bay railway station yesterday morning to see the first passenger train go through as per announcement. They were, however, asked to wait until next Monday.
