Still The Bumps

Motorists travelling through Richmond Hill still complain of the treacherous holes in the highway on Yonge Street and very often leave our town in very bad humor as a result. At least a few of the worst holes should be filled up before some serious accident occurs.

Taken Over Agency

Mr. Mathews has been associated with the implement business for a number of years and is prepared to give prompt service to the farmers of this district. He will carry a full line of repairs for all implements.

An Opportunity

We believe that there is a good chance for someone looking for work to pick up a nice little bit of money during the next few weeks. There are a lot of chimneys, stovepipes, stoves and furnaces to be cleaned and if some energetic person would make canvas of the town or better still put an ad in the Liberal and can do the job right without mucking up the whole house there is lots of work in sight.

Union Services

The Pastor and congregation of St. Paul's will join with the pastor and congregation of St. John's on Sunday Oct. 10 at morning service. The service will be of a special inaugural nature will effect what has been anticipated ever since the vote was taken over a year ago and bring together for united Christian effort these two strong United church congregations to more effectively carry on work of God in Richmond Hill and surrounding community.

Many ex-pupils were present at the social evening held in the high school gymnasium on Friday evening. About two hundred attended and the teachers and pupils were very pleased to see their former students and companions.

The platform on which the members of the orchestra were seated was tastefully decorated.

Dancing was the main enjoyment of the evening but alas! all good things come to an end. Shortly after eleven o'clock refreshments were served and with a few final dances the pleasant evening came to a close.
