LOCAL NEWSY ITEMS

Real Estate
Anyone interested in real estate in the North Yonge Street district should not overlook the advertisement of Wm. Brotherton, which appears weekly in the Liberal. Mr. Brotherton is one of the live-wires in real estate in this district and always has some attractive properties listed.

Sale Bills
The "Liberal" Job Printing Department is recognized as the headquarters in this district for printing auction sale bills. Bills of the better kind at the most moderate prices are printed here. We are always glad to help with the arrangement of the items and be of any possible assistance to our customers. If you're having a sale it will pay you to see us.

"Ad" Got Results
In our classified advertising column last week we had a "Lost" item for an airle dog answering to the name of "Chance." This week Stewart Wilgar brought in a collar having the name of "Chance" marked on it and stated that he found the dog with its head crushed at Mill Road, Stop 23A. He thought it looked like a street car accident. Stewart feels so sorry for the owner's loss that he is willing to give him a Fox Terrier which he owns, provided the owner will buy a dog tag for it.

Lament of the Farmers Wife
The melancholy days have come,
The saddest of the year,
The harvest has been gathered in;
And the threshing gangs are here.

Poor Weather
Bradstreets, Toronto report that crops in Ontario which have not been harvested are in poor condition. The heavy rains and lack of sunshine have had a bad effect. Potatoes are showing considerable rot while some third cutting alfalfa is still in the fields. Roots, too, are suffering somewhat.

Thanksgiving Day
Monday, November 8, will be observed throughout Canada as Thanksgiving and Armistice Day. A recent statute provides that this joint celebration shall be fixed for the Monday of the week in which November 11 occurs. On the actual anniversary of the original Armistice Day, however, the people of Canada are invited to mark the occasion by maintaining silence for two minutes at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

Fair Has Deficit
At a meeting of the Newmarket fair board held last week for the purpose of winding up the business of the fair, the treasurer presented a report showing that after all outstanding accounts are paid together with all the prize money there will be a deficit of between $500.00 and $600.00. This will likely be reduced to at least $300.00 when two expected grants are received.

Bazaar
Come and buy your Christmas presents at the Presbyterian Bazaar on Saturday, November 6th, at 3 o'clock.
Towels, pillow cases, aprons, lingerie, fancy work, kitchen utensils, home-made cooking and candy will be sold. Lovers of art take this opportunity of procuring hand-painted china etc. at the Art booth.

L. O. L. Meeting
An enthusiastic meeting of Richmond Hill L. O. L. No. 2368 was held on Wednesday night. There was a large attendance of members and several brethren from the district were present and gave encouraging reports. Several candidates were initiated after which degrees were conferred by the degree team.

Ladies' Aid
A meeting of the Ladies' Aid of St. John's United Church will be held in the S. S. room on Wednesday afternoon, November 3, at 3 o'clock. Following the meeting there will be afternoon tea for 10 cents and a shower of articles ranging in value from 5 cents up.

Carrville Church
In the Old Country they used to say "All Roads lead to London." In York County, Lot 40, sideroads lead to Carrville Church to the Anniversary services next Sunday at 2.30 p.m. and 7 p.m. Come along.

37 Years a Subscriber
Mr. Peter Jones of Maple called at our office Wednesday to renew his subscription to the Home Paper. He has been a continuous subscriber for the past thirty seven years and states that he could not get along without the home news every week. Mr. Jones farmed in Western Canada for several years but he still kept up his subscription to the Liberal. His present farm is located in the justly famed "potato belt" and this year he had a splendid crop of spuds, over 2,000 bags in all. He reports that the rot or blight did not bother them and that the crop was very good. Mr. Jones was one of the winners in the potato field competition of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society this year and has been prominent in the list of winners for several years.

Tell Your Friends To Buy a Copy
The Liberal may be secured weekly at the following places: Glenn's Drug Store, H. E. Wray Druggist, Liberal Office, Richmond Hill; T. H. Hardware and Supplies, Thornhill; T. Allison, Richvale; E. A. Galbraith, Willowdale; Bennett's store, Brookside; Post Office, Maple and Post Office, King. Single copies 3 cents and $1.50 per year.

LANGSTAFF
Monday night the ratepayers of the S. S. No. 2 V. M. endorsed the purchase by the trustees of one acre to enlarge the school grounds. This acre will cost $1500.00.

They also authorized the raising of money to equip the two new rooms and drill the well.

It is expected the new rooms of the school will be ready by November 15th.

The Bell Telephone Company have constructed a pole line east from the post office and installed five new telephones.

The Langstaff supply Company received a car load of coal and a car of coke this week.

Mr. Henry Richards is tearing down the old stage coach stables at his place and it is surprising how well the old mud brick of which it was built are preserved.

Now that the Langstaff road from Langstaff east has been made a provincial highway we look for greater improvements in our district.

YORK MILLS
LATE GEO. J. VAN NOSTRAND
George John Van Nostrand, a retired business man of Toronto died suddenly at his country place, Vandorf, Ontario, on Saturday evening, 23rd instant, in the 70th year of his age.

Mr. Van Nostrand was of U. E. Loyalist stock on the paternal side, his great grandfather, Cornelius van Nostrand after serving as an officer in the British Army on Long Island N. Y. during the revolution, having followed the flag to Canada, bringing with him his immediate descendants.

They drew their Crown Grant of 700 acres in Markham Township in 1797, but in 1805 purchased a farm at York Mills, which place still continues to be the home of members of the family.

On the maternal side, Mr. van Nostrand's grandfather, William Marsh brought his family from Somersetshire, England, in 1828 and settled at York Mills.

John van Nostrand, the father of the deceased, was born at York Mills in 1824 but from 1855 until his death in 1895 he was engaged in lumbering at Vandorf.

Mr. van Nostrand received his education in the local public school and Newmarket high school, later taking a business course in Toronto, which then became his home. He became a partner in the firm of Northrop and Lyman, and after having severed his connection with that firm he was elected president of the E. B. Shuttleworth Chemical company, retaining that position until his retirement in 1922.

In 1833 he married Miss Henrietta Mackenzie, who with two sons, John and Cornelius, and two daughters, Mrs. Stanley M. Wedd and Miss Jan-naca all of Toronto, and eleven grandchildren survives him.

Mr. van Nostrand was an Anglican, a Conservative and a Mason, being a member of the Engineers Club of Toronto, the Canadian Club and other similar organizations. His retiring disposition served but to endear him to those who knew him well.

Interment took place on Tuesday afternoon after a service at the family residence, 107 Roxborough Street, West, by the Rev. Mr. Armitage. The pall bearers were his son-in-law and five nephews each representing different branches of the families of van Nostrand and his wife. Among the chief mourners were his sister Mrs. M. E. Rowsell and two brothers, A. J. and J. A. M. van Nostrand. He was laid to rest in the family plot in the churchyard of St. John's, York Mills, where six generations of the family beginning in the year 1806, are represented. It may be noted that the original church was erected in 1816, and the present edifice in 1843, both grandfathers of the deceased being church-wardens at that time.

Letters From the People

A Modern Fable
Richmond Hill, Ont.
October 2, 1926.

Editor of the Liberal.
Sir:—
Once upon a time there was a village. It had Good Schools. And Good Churches. And a Good Newspaper. But it had a Bad Road. And when Tourists came through the Village they Remembered it as the only Place on Twenty-Five Miles of Highway with a Bad Road.

By and by the Province said "Let us pave the road on the Second Concession line to relieve the Congestion of Traffic on the Highway." So straightway the road was paved.

And the Tourists said to each other "Let us use the New Road and avoid the Village with the bad road."

So they used the New Road and the Village died.

Yours Sincerely,
Esop.

Thornhill, Ont.
October 26, 1926.

Editor of the Liberal.
Sir:—
I was glad to see that gallant group of Christian men proclaiming the Gospel on the street corner in Richmond Hill on Saturday night last despite the efforts of the council to stop it. As long as the Word of God is proclaimed freely before all men there is no estimating the good that may be done. Better far, Mr. Editor, that one Soul should be saved than that some merchant should sell a set of collar buttons. I was surprised and grieved to read in your paper of the action of the Council and I think that the great majority agree with me when I say that it was "small potatoes" on their part. Thanking you and trusting that the time has not come when the Word may not freely be proclaimed in Richmond Hill.

Yours Truly,
Free Speech.
