Masquerade Dance
The annual masquerade of the Lady of North York L. O. B. A. No. 580 was held in the Township Hall on Friday evening, October 29th.

The Hall was much aglow with decorations, flowers etc., and many and varied were the costumes for this annual event. For the Gents original K. Vaughan was the winner and H. Selers won the Ladies original. Other prize winners were, Miss Stenson, ladies comic; C. Riches, Gents fancy, and A. Bloor, ladies fancy.

The orchestra of the Briars Golf Club headed by G. M. Rutherford, was very much appreciated by all present. The treasurer reported the ticket sale exceeded $100.00

Hallowe'en Pranks
Hallowe'en night passed quietly in the district and no serious damage to property has been reported. The village authorities were ready however, and had six special constables on duty on Saturday night.

Fixing Crossing
Village workmen are busy this week building a new street crossing at Yonge and Centre streets. The old one was in bad shape and the new one will be heartily appreciated by the citizens generally.

More Reasons Than One
Premier Ferguson is generally credited with being at least a clever politician but as an old subscriber suggests to us this week he certainly overlooked fixing the weather man. The steady rains this fall have been enough to make all the farmers vote dry.

Misunderstood
Referring to the letter of Free Speech in our issue last week Reeve Lunan stated that unfortunately the correspondent entirely misunderstood the motives of the council. He again firmly declared that it was not the intention of himself or any member of the council to interfere in any way with any body or organization holding religious meetings in Richmond Hill and that any action taken by them was merely to safeguard the interests of the general public. Permits will be granted for meetings to be held anywhere except on busy corners where the public safety would be endangered.

Car Stolen
James Goodyear of Oak Ridges had the misfortune on Tuesday night to have his new Ford touring car stolen. He had parked it on Victoria Street, near Dundas and returning in a short time found it had disappeared. The loss was reported to the police but no word of the stolen car has been heard at the time of going to press.

Hockey Meeting
A meeting of the local hockey fans is called for Tuesday evening, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m. in the Council Chambers. Organization is necessary to a good team and all who are interested in Richmond Hill having a good Hockey team should turn out to this meeting.

Masquerade Party
The Anglican Young Peoples Tennis club finished a successful summer of tennis by a masquerade party on Monday evening November 1st at the home of Mrs. Battersby. At which some very amusing and original costumes were worn by the club members. Ralph Paris as a nurse and Tom Carter as ghost were exceptionally good. Lucky number spot dance prizes were won by M. Duncan and A. White G. Goddard and E. Mansbridge. The committees in charge of the masquerade were as follows. Amusement Committee—Mrs. V. Paris, S. Battersby, A. White. Refreshment Committee—M. Battersby, K. Morris, J. Armstrong.

High School Notes
A most enjoyable evening was spent last Friday when Dr. and Mrs. Lockhart and family of King held a masquerade party at their home. Their guests were the teachers and pupils of fourth and fifth forms of the High School. One certainly felt that the spooks and evil spirits were flitting around where we saw the cauldron and lighted pumpkins at the gate and was met at the door by a witch, who proved to be the hostess. The living room, dining room and halls were very prettily decorated with Maple leaves, black cats and orange and black paper tastefully designed. There was a good variety of costumes, gay clowns, cow boys, sailors, an Irish maid, mother goose, gypsies, a jester and a Victorian lady being represented. Diving into the cauldron for fruit was very amusing. Lucky he who obtained a slippery apple without getting himself fairly wedged in the cauldron or upsetting it. Another tantalizing sport was eating apples which were suspended from the ceiling. One was so near and yet so far. A peanut relay a puzzle game and dancing provided amusement for all. Shortly after mid-night a very dainty lunch and coffee were served. Allan White, expressed on behalf of fourth and fifth forms, appreciation for the hospitality offered by Dr. Lockhart and Mrs. Lockhart and family. Mrs. Lockhart replied very graciously. The merry makers, after singing "Aul Lang Syne" and "For they're Jolly good Fellows" departed for their homes. The first meeting of the High School Literary Society for the school year was held last Friday afternoon. Members for the various offices were elected and the elections will take place on Wednesday. The Literary Society is a very important and interesting Society in our school life, and a great interest is taken in the coming elections by the scholars. May the Literary Society be bigger and better than ever every year.

Bazaar, Supper and Concert
In the Masonic Hall the Women's Association are putting on an exceptionally extensive bazaar. There is an unusually large variety of articles useful and ornamental—mostly useful—and the marked prices are within rather than beyond the ordinary, for goods of the class offered. After the bazaar sale a supper will be served in the smaller hall; and it needs only to be mentioned that it is provided by and is under the same auspices as favored us last year on a similar occasion. Plenteousness, tastefulness and a tempting, delicate service, are only a few of many commendations which characterize these suppers. Following the supper a concert will be held and as the bills say, this event will be worth taking in. Artists are expected from the city, and some from the neighborhood. Altogether, it promises to be a Musical Concert of more than ordinary interest and merit and the public are cordially invited to patronize it.

Presbyterian Services
Richmond Hill Presbyterian services will, as already intimated, be devoted to a Peace or Armistice commemoration. The minister, will give an address on Peace, which ended the War, and the Choir will render special Music appropriate to the occasion and event. The congregation are reminded and the public are warmly welcomed and invited to this service, at 11 o'clock in the Masonic Hall. Ex-soldiers are especially invited to this service.

Letters From the People
Richmond Hill, Ont.
November 2, 1926.
Editor Liberal
Sir:— I am keenly interested in the hockey possibilities of our district but at present I'm feeling pretty down-in-the-mouth. It has been rumored that one of the old hockey players of the town will be definitely out of the game this year owing to his having become flat footed through walking his beat on Hallowe'en. It seems to me, Mr. Editor, that the fates are a'gin us. What will we do?
Yours truly,
Hockey Fan.

Editors note:—We are always glad to be of assistance to our subscribers on a wide range of subjects but in this case we would recommend that you consult a foot specialist.

Editor,
Richmond Hill Liberal.
Sir:— I am surprised that there has been no reply re O. T. A. which appeared in your recent issue. That was surely a splendid opportunity for the members of the W. C. T. U. to stick to their guns and fire a few shots in the cause. The reason was probably that in their secret hearts they all know that prohibition has been a failure. There is a queer streak in human nature which always makes the unobtainable the most desirable thing. There are hundreds of young people drinking today because the Government said "thou shalt not." Before prohibition a youth who carried a pocket flask was simply ostracized, today those who do it are considered smart. Local option is the only solution of the problem. Nobody wants the bar to come back, but no thinking person wants the present conditions to continue. It is simply a question of money—the rich man can drink as much as he likes, only the poor man is deprived of the privilege. Those who vote for Prohibition are helping the bootleggers. I voted for it myself last time but—
NEVER AGAIN.

BUTTONVILLE

The Hallowe'en Masquerade held Friday evening, October 29 was a grand success. Over 200 joined in the vigil of All Hallows. Some twenty masqueraders paraded before a delighted and laughing audience and the following were chosen as winners. Best Couple. Miss Drew Kelly and Mrs. George Kelly Jr. as Jiggs and Maggie. Best dressed man, Douglas Brown as a negro and Best Lady, Miss Janet Brown as a Hallowe'en sprite. Old times, hard times, clowns and other Hallowe'en sprites were among the Masqueraders failing to win prizes. The rest of the evening was joyously spent in dancing. We congratulate the committee consisting of Messrs. Charles Hooper, Douglas Brown, Newton Brown for putting on such an eventful program. The Macdonald orchestra was in attendance. Dogs attacked one of Mr. Henry Hooper's sheep and no doubt would have killed it if they had not been driven away. We understand the council offers a reward to anyone who shoots a dog found attacking sheep. So owners of sheep marauders beware—The Scripser.

OBITUARY

LATE MARGARET LEDGERWOOD
The sudden death of Margaret Hart Ledgerwood occurred at her home, Taber, Alberta, on Sunday, October 31st. The news of her death came as a shock to her friends here as she had been enjoying the best of health. The late Miss Ledgerwood was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ledgerwood who lived for many years in this district. She left here about sixteen years ago and has since made her home in Western Canada. She is survived by two brothers, William and Walter, who also live in the West. The funeral was held from the home of her Uncle, Mr. John Hislop on Thursday afternoon. Rev. M. C. Campbell of the Presbyterian Church conducted the services and interment followed at Richmond Hill cemetery.
