The service in the United Church on Sunday evening last, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. R. Young, was a very interesting one. The singing by the choir composed of members of the Ladies' Aid was very much appreciated. They were assisted by Mrs. Earl Bales, who, also, sang a solo, "Abide with Me." A duet was also given by Mrs. Douglas Bales and Mrs. G. Shaw entitled "Ivory Palaces". The address was given by Mrs. Ruthford of Toronto, Vice-President of the Women's Missionary Board and was based on verses from the 27th and 28th chapters of Matthew. She also told of her association with the late Miss Frances Willard some years ago in the interests of the W. C. T. U. and impressed upon the women of the congregation their responsibility at the present time. The church was well filled.

The Home and School Club held its first concert on Thursday evening last in the United Church, the pastor of the Church presiding. Although the weather was somewhat unfavorable the concert was well patronized, almost every seat being occupied. The Church was decorated with flags and maple leaves. Those taking part in the program were Miss E. Thompson, Elocutionist, of Toronto, who brought forth peals of laughter from the audience, Miss Minnie Smett, Toronto, soprano soloist, who won the gold medal at the Toronto Exhibition, Miss Mildred Wright, Elocutionist, Lansing who was very much appreciated and her selections being particularly well given. On Monday (Thanksgiving) a fowl dinner, from 5 to 7 in the evening will be provided for the Men, in the Municipal Hall. Last year Thanksgiving day the men offered their first effort in this line, and the very flattering reports from those who were fortunate enough to participate have encouraged the men to repeat and extend their enterprise, so that on this occasion, even better things may be expected. A hearty invitation is therefore broadcasted to all to patronize the Men's Thanksgiving FOWL SUPPER, Monday Evening 5 to 7. The price for supper is 50c adults, and 25 cents for children.

A large crowd attended the supper and concert on Friday evening. After supper was served in the Masonic Hall, a splendid musical and literary program was given in the Community Hall by the choir of the Yonge St. United Church, Toronto, assisted by Miss McCully, Elocutionist. The audience was delighted with every number and the choir generously responded to the encores.
