Prize Winners at Annual King and Vaughan Plowing Match

Good Field, Ideal Weather and Keen Competition in all Classes Features of Annual Event.

The annual match of the King and Vaughan Branch of the Ontario Plowmen's Association was held on the farm of J. W. Constable, Vellore on Friday last. It was an ideal match and one of the most successful in the history of the association. The weatherman provided an excellent day and there was keen competition in all the classes by local as well as plowmen from a distance. The splendid field obtained for the event was the subject of much favorable comment and all the contestants and the large number of spectators were unanimous in praising the officers and directors for the efficient manner in which all the details were carried out.

In the evening a sumptuous supper was served in the Community Hall by the Vellore Women's Institute which was a repast "fit for a king." There was an abundance of all good things and the ladies of Vellore were heartily thanked by plowmen and visitors. Mrs. A. Cameron, president of the Institute acknowledged the thanks extended by several speakers.

After the supper President Johnston expressed his thanks to the judges and all others who had contributed to the success of the match and then called on J. T. Saigeon who acted as master of ceremonies for the remainder of the evening in his usual pleasant and acceptable manner. Mr. Saigeon who has been associated with the plowmen's association for a great number of years, stated that he had known a larger but no better match than the one held on Friday and he was delighted with the success of the day.

A. J. H. Eckhardt who for a great many years has been an ardent supporter of the event and known throughout the province as a friend of agricultural societies and plowing matches, presented his special prize of a handsome silver tea service to the winner Mr. J. ## LEST WE FORGET

Those who paid the supreme sacrifice during the Great War trod once again the petalled path of remembrance when an impressive service was carried out at the War Memorial this morning. The students of the High and Public Schools attended in a body and there was a fair representation of Citizens and organizations of the village. Wreaths from the Women's Institute, Village of Richmond Hill and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dunlop were placed on the memorial by Mrs. A. A. Perry, President of the Women's Institute. Rev. Battersby presided while the following program was carried out:—
Opening address by J. Lunau, Reeve, Prayer Rev. W. Wellwood, observation of two minutes silence, short addresses by Rev. Father Kelly and Rev. McIntosh, Hymn, "Breath on Ye Breath of God," prayer of remembrance, Rev. H. F. Battersby, Placing of wreaths by Mrs. A. A. Perry, "Reading of names of those who paid the Supreme Sacrifice" Benediction, National Anthem.

Burglars Busy In the District

Evidently not satisfied with the recent cut in the price of gasoline, an unknown person or persons forced open the casing on one of the gasoline pumps of the Pioneer Garage, Lansing, and stole a considerable amount of Gasoline. According to Mr. Nelson, proprietor who notified Chief Constable Risebrough of the theft, the gasoline must have been stolen between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. when the garage remains closed. This is the fourth robbery committed in the Willowdale and Lansing section during the past week, two houses on Eglers Avenue also having been entered and a supply of preserves taken. The thieves also gained admittance to Hart's Drug Store at Lansing, but found that the Burglar Alarm System was in perfect order. No goods were stolen.

Sunday School Workers Holding Convention

The annual convention of the South York Religious Education Council opened in St. John's United Church, Richmond Hill, on Wednesday morning. For the opening session representatives were present from 115 of the 145 Sunday Schools of the county. The morning was devoted to a business session and the hearing of reports of leaders of the different departments. During the afternoon a general discussion on subjects of interest to Sunday School workers took place under the direction of department leaders.
In the evening Judge Mott of the Juvenile Court Toronto, delivered an eloquent and inspiring address on "The Kingship of the Child," which was much enjoyed and greatly appreciated by the delegates. Miss N. M. Lewis, secretary of the C. G. I. T. also gave a short illustrated address on scientific health training. The convention concludes its sessions today.
