Not In Richmond Hill
The fair name of Richmond Hill was blazoned forth in the police court news of the Toronto press on Tuesday when it was reported that one, Fred Sass, was arrested here on a charge of fraud. It will be a relief to all who felt uneasy on the thought of such an undesirable character harboring in our midst to learn however that the man was arrested at Young's greenhouses at Steele's Corners. He was taken to the United States to stand trial.

IN MEMORIAM

CURTIS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, William Curtis who was released of his suffering March 15, 1918.

One fine afternoon on the fifteenth of March,
A voice was calling that seemed to say;
Ye that are weary come and rest,
Lay down thy head upon my breast
Come follow me and I will guide,
Thy footsteps, on the Jordan side,
My husband heard the sweet command,
And tenderly took his Savior's hand
He breathed a prayer and then a sigh
Leaving us here for his home on high,
I cannot find you in life's common place
But everything of beauty that I see
And all that glids the day with beauty's grace,
Brings you to me.
Sadly missed by wife and daughters Violet and Annie May.
