Presentation To Hockey Manager

Members of Hockey Club Do Honor
To Mr. "Wes" Middleton.

On Thursday evening last when the members of the hockey club were being entertained to a social evening at the home of Mr. Wes. Middleton the members of the club took advantage of the opportunity to show their appreciation of the services of the popular manager of the team. On behalf of the club Mr. Chas. Cowie read an appropriate address and Mr. Bruce Ross, captain of the team, presented Mr. Middleton with a handsome gold watch. Although completely taken by surprise the recipient thanked the members for their splendid gift and also for their co-operation throughout the year. Mr. Middleton has been active in local sport for a number of years and at all times has given freely of his time and energy in the promotion of the welfare of local teams. The presentation on Thursday last is evidence of the place he holds in the hearts of the players he has been associated with and was tribute to his services as manager of the team.

Progressive euchre was enjoyed during the evening, the prize winners being, first prize, John Hart, "Booby" prize, Bert Cook. After the euchre dainty refreshments were served.

Young Women's Auxiliary Held Annual Meeting

Had Very Successful Year.

The annual meeting of the Young Women's Auxiliary of the United Church, Richmond Hill was held at the home of Miss Evelyn Neill on Wednesday evening, March 23rd.

The society had had a very successful year having exceeded their allocation of $105 and also sent a bale valued at $35 to a mission hospital in Western Canada. The success of the society was due to the untiring efforts of our president and honorary president, namely, Mrs. Bedford, Mrs. McIntosh and Mrs. W. Mortson who instilled the thought of greater service for the Master into the minds of the young women.

The following are list of officers for the ensuing year:—Hon. Pres. Mrs. W. Mortson; Pres. M. Brown; 1st vice, M. Smith; 2nd vice, B. Fox; Rec. Sec., D. Hart; Corres. Sec., E. Neill; Treas., M. Sims; Supply Secs., Mrs. Wellman, M. Hunt, Mrs. Lumb; Sec. Christian Stewardship, C. Gee; Strangers Sec., Mrs. Webster, V. Hunt; Press Sec., L. Mortley; Pianist, C. Mortson; Assist. Pianist, O. Mortson; Program Committee, G. Harding, O. Mortson, M. Batty.

Appeals For Support Richmond Hill Band

The Editor,
Sir:

The writer is desirous of furthering the cause of a first class band in Richmond Hill and wonders if the citizens are aware that bandmaster P. A. Drury and his bandmen are practicing in Lorne Hall every Tuesday night. Every citizen is aware that considerable expense is involved in the organization and maintenance of a band and the writer would be pleased to receive subscriptions from the merchants and citizens to provide the necessary funds for the organization.

Yours truly,
W. G. BALDOCK.

Maple

St Andrew's W. M. S. will hold a birthday tea on Wednesday evening April 6th commencing at 6.30 p.m. in the school room of the church. A program will be given after and a social evening spent. Everybody welcome. Come and bring your birthday money, a cent for every year.

New Church Parlor Formally Opened

Through the efforts of the women of the Presbyterian church, Richmond Hill, a room in the basement of the church has been converted into a very comfortable parlor. It has been newly furnished and decorated and will supply a long-felt want.

To mark the occasion the executive committee of the Women's Association held a reception there on Tuesday afternoon from three till five o'clock.

After the refreshments a short program was given. It consisted of violin solos by Miss Aileen Atkinson. Humorous reading by Mrs. Snodden also piano selections by Lucy Yerex and Frances Drury.

Victoria Square

Victoria Square, March 30—Mr. Henry Heise of Palatine, Illinois was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heise of Victoria Square over Sunday, Mar. 20th Mr. Heise was taken to the place of his birth, being the home owned by Mr. Robert Gee, Lot 25, concession 3, Markham.

This property was purchased from the government in the year 1830 the eleventh year of the reign of King George IV. The price paid was 100 pound for one hundred acres. The deed was signed by Sir John Colborne on behalf of the King.

Mr. Heise returned for a brief visit with friends and relatives in Markham, Vaughan and Whitechurch Townships after an absence of fifty years. He spent twenty-five years in the banking business in the Chicago district and now has retired from active business life and will have as a hobby one hundred kips of bees.

BUTTONVILLE

The people of the community had a delightful time at the home of Miss Drew Kelly, Friday evening, March 25 on the occasion of her annual birthday party. There was a quilting bee in the afternoon followed by a delicious dinner. The evening was spent playing progressive euchre, the prize being won by Mrs. R. L. Stiver and Mr. Jack Ash. The home was profusely decorated with roses and daffodils. Friends from Cashel and Toronto were also present.

The roads are still in bad condition owing to the recent wet weather.

The regular bi-weekly euchre was held in the hall on March 11. The first prizes were won by Miss Edith McClymont and Russell Brillinger. The consolations by Miss Laverta Hood and E. Walton.

Friends from Newmarket called on Mr. and Mrs. Allen Meyer on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Russel Brillinger and Mr. Walter Craig had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Meyer Sunday evening.
