Installation Of Lights To Start In Two Months.

Work will be started on the lighting of this village in about two months. This decision was arrived at, at a recent meeting held here in the Victoria Hall, when a petition was signed by the property owners in the village to install lights on Yonge street from the foot of Morgan's Hill north to the public school at Langstaff, a distance of about a mile, also on the main streets in the village. These lights will be installed along Yonge Street similar to those through North York, on the radial poles about 400 feet apart. Yonge street will have fifteen, while thirteen are to be installed throughout the village. The cost of this lighting scheme is estimated at about $2,200. The petition was presented to the Vaughan and Markham township councils, and after getting their approval was handed to the Hydro Commission.
