Claims "Boys Will Be Boys."
Editor of The Liberal

Dear Sir—
In your last week's Liberal I noticed it mentioned a lot about firecrackers set off in the town, and I would be glad to have a space in your paper to answer to the writer's who wished to go to the trouble to have it so widely spread throughout the country. In the first place can the people who claimed to be so disturbed by the noise tell us what amusement they have in Richmond Hill at the present time for the boys who come to the town or that live in it, you might say they can go to bed if they couldn't do anything else besides shooting off firecrackers. You as older people would like to put old heads on young shoulders but at the present time you will find it impossible. You must remember the world is travelling a whole lot faster than ever it did when you were boys. You speak of being wise but we fail to see it.

The writer that called us "hoodil-ism" and a public nuisance should be a little careful in this way. He might be glad to receive help from some of the "hoodilism" as he called them. We have business men in Richmond Hill who set very poor examples for the young men of the town. One man in particular was not bothered by the boys until he set his dog on us and we have proof that we were quite a distance from his shop. Now that the readers have read what was said about the boys telling us we could go to the park, let me say they have a business man in town who ran down the street using the most degrading language as ever a man could use. The writer of this heard two women say the language was "Awful." Would you people give a man like that the privilege to talk in this way in the town before women? It was mentioned in another piece about reading Wild West Books.
This man we refer to must have been reading them, and also thought he was there. (Even the park would be too good to send him).

Thanking you for the space,
I am,
A. LIVEWIRE.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of my dear husband, George Brown, who passed away May 19, 1919.
Time fades away but sweet memories linger on.—Wife.

GLOVER—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Norma Couperthwaite, wife of Roy E. Glover, who departed this life, May 21, 1926.
What would be give to clasp her hands Her dear sweet face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
That meant so much to us.
Our lips cannot speak how we loved her,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say, God only knows how we miss her,
In a home that is lonesome to-day.
Father, Mother, Bertha.

Organize Town League

A meeting of baseball fans was held in the Hotel Richmond on Monday evening when plans were discussed for the coming season and it was decided to have a town league composed of three teams. The teams will line up as follows:—The Tigers managed by "Steve" Young; Cecil Harding's "Dreadnoughts" and Wes Middleton's Colts. It is hoped that this league will bring along a lot of young players who will be mixed on the various teams with the veterans. It should provide a good season's sport locally and it is to be hoped that the players and fans enter enthusiastically into the league. It is probable that a handsome trophy will be donated for the league.

mond Hill Lawn Bowling Club will be held on Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.
Pupils' Recital

Marguerite Boyle (professional graduate of the Owen A. Smiley Studio) announces a recital by twenty of her elocution pupils in West Toronto Assembly Hall, Friday, May 28th, assisted by Ethel Grainger, Contralto and Claire Henley, tenor and pianist, Miss Boyle is instructress in elocution of the Harris School of Music.
And is herself an artist of distinction along elocutionary lines. Of her performance in Massey Hall last week "The Telegram" said in part, "Marguerite Boyle of the Owen A. Smiley Studio deserved very high commendation—her enunciation was flawless, her stage business and gestures never overdone. She replied to profuse applause with several impersonations, perfect gems of characterization."
"The Mail and Empire" said, "Her charm and personality alone make her contribution to a performance a popular event. She made a very decided hit with two humorous monologues and two poems with musical accompaniment, received encores and bouquets on each occasion and gave a delightful variety to the program."
