Monster Parade
The business men's parade in North Toronto starts from Eglinton Ave. and Mount Pleasant Road at 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 22, via Merton St. to Yonge to City Limits. The streets will be decorated in conjunction with the Central Jubilee Committee and will be well worth coming to see.

Painting Up
J. J. Clement of Thornhill who is well known throughout this district as a painter and decorator is engaged this week painting the residence of Mrs. Harrison, Richmond Street. This is Jubilee year and a more general desire on the part of citizens generally to paint up and clean up would be commendable.

IN MEMORIAM
CURTIS—In loving memory of my dear husband and father, Leonard William Curtis who was killed by accident near Thornhill, June 11th, 1923. We always think of you dear Daddy. And think of how you died. To think you could not say good-bye Before you closed your eyes. So we shed a tear that is silent— And breathe a sigh of regret, For you were ours, we remember. If all the world forgets. Sadly missed, Wife, June, Billy and Margery.

"Domestic Science" should include the science of keeping still at least nine of the ten times you wish to say something.

Regular Monday Night Tournament

The regular mixed bowling tournament will be held at the local green on Monday evening at 7.30 and it is hoped that there will be a good turnout of members.

Jubilee Celebration

Plans are well under way for the Jubilee celebration in Richmond Hill and as the time draws near the people are more and more appreciating the significance of the event and the day promises to be one long to be remembered in this community. Several of the surrounding communities have signified their intention of joining in the celebration here and the success of the day seems assured. The program of sports will commence at 2.30 daylight saving time and will be featured by softball games and athletic events and races for the children of the district with suitable prizes. In the evening at 7.30 a colorful pageant "The Crowning of Canada" will be presented by the Richmond Hill public school pupils under the direction of Miss F. M. Brown. Other numbers will be given by outside schools and there will be choruses by all the children and community singing. It is expected that an address will be given by the popular parliamentary veteran, Mr. W. F. McLean, ex-M.P. No admission fee will be charged and lemonade will be provided free for the adults and an ice cream cone will be given free to every child in attendance. It is expected that many will come in the afternoon and picnic on the grounds for which provision has been made.

WEDDING

BEYNON—PHILLIPS

Lakeview Farm, Temperanceville, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock when Elsie Margaret only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips became the bride of Elmer Clayton, "Kelly" Beynon of Maple. The Rev. T. R. White of Aurora officiated. The bride who was given away by her father, looked charming in ivory georgette with wedding veil caught with orange blossoms and carried Ophelia roses and lily-of-the-valley and wore the gift of the groom a white gold wrist watch. The bride was attended by her cousin Miss Ida Rankin of Mount Dennis who wore Nile green georgette with leg-horn hat to match and carried Madam Butterfly roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Dennis Beynon. During the signing of the register Miss Ruth Oram of Temperanceville sang "Because." After a dainty buffet luncheon the happy couple left for Midland and Honey Harbor, the bride wearing a rose dress with hat to match and black satin coat. On their return they will reside on Broadview Farm, Maple.

War Cry Confederation Number
We are in receipt of a copy of the Confederation Number of the War Cry. It is a very creditable number and is a publication which every household should be glad of an opportunity to purchase. It contains a write up on every province and is attractively illustrated with pictures of all the Governor Generals and Prime Ministers since Confederation as well as many other historical pictures. It will be a fitting souvenir of the Jubilee year and is a credit to the Salvation Army who are responsible for compiling it. It may be procured locally from the Army Officers.
