GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS.

A good housewife in Richmond Hill has reported that she boiled some eggs in the town water and that the hen-fruit were badly tainted as a result. Let's hear it if you have a better one.

A Custom of northern peoples, in early civilization, was for newly married people to drink mead, a kind of wine made from honey, for thirty days after marriage. Hence the term honey-moon, or honey month.

The Ontario Dept. of Highways has awarded the contract for 470,000 markers for 1928 at a cost of 7½ cents per set.

A real hero is a man who does the sensational without trying to be sensational.

Announcement has been made by the Minister of Highways that yellow and black will be the colors of the Ontario automobile license markers for 1928. No change is to be made in the design.

Miss N. Daunt, who has charge of the Dairy and Poultry Departments at Eaton Hall Farm, will represent the farm at the world's Poultry Congress at Ottawa.

A college professor says a married man is smarter than a single man. He's got to be.—Ottawa Journal.

Some mosquitoes seem to delight to take in some territory than they can actually cover. —Brandon Sun.

The holdup men who robbed an editor the other day must have done it just for practice.—Kitchener Record.

It takes all kinds of people to make a world, so almost anyone should be able to fit in somewhere.

A man who can speak six languages has just married a woman who can speak three. That seems to be about the right handicap.—Kingston Whig Standard.

Barrie is to have a big day August 1st when the big swimming contest is to be staged on Kempenfeldt Bay at which it is stated eleven Ontario championship events will be staged.

Pioneer Passes
The death occurred on Sunday July 17, of the oldest man in North York, Mr. William Buckle who was in his 100 th year, following a short illness. Mr. Buckle was born in Yorkshire, England, and came to Canada 70 years ago settling on a farm in the Township of Whitechurch adjoining Aurora corporation, where he has resided ever since, and is now owned by his son, Mr. Joseph Buckle. He is survived by three sons and two daughters. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, interment being made at the Aurora Cemetery.

Sidewalks For Pedestrians
The minister of Highways for Ontario, recognizing the need of sidewalks along the Highways in certain municipalities for the safety of school children, announces a new policy in this matter. The Government will assume 30 per cent. of the cost if the municipality directly benefitted bears the other 70 per cent. Special provision of approaches to new highway bridges, in order to provide for these walks at the highway rate of cost. Several municipalities have already taken advantage of the provision.

Wants Not Yet Supplied
The art of advertising is not supposed to have reached perfection anywhere, and the miscellaneous "wants" which find expression through the newspaper often convey an idea directly opposite to that which the writer had in mind. A man who makes a practice of collecting amusing advertisements has lately discovered some gems in English papers.

He exhibits with glee a paragraph advertising for a domestic who "can cook and wash children."

Not quite so bloodthirsty but equally astonishing is the demand for "a room, wanted by two gentlemen about thirty feet long and twenty feet broad."

There is a huge sign over a certain restaurant which was undoubtedly intended to entice patrons, but one could hardly be blamed if, after reading it, he hesitated. "The sign reads: "Dine here and you will never dine anywhere else."

A furrier makes his novel bid for custom by announcing in a daily paper that "Mr. Blank is willing to make up capes, jackets and coats for ladies out of their own skins."

A butter merchant felt that he had given his wares the strongest possible recommendation when he hung this placard on a tub of butter: "Superior butter 6d. per pound. Nobody can touch it."

NEW BRITISH DOMINION
Sir Edward Grigg, Governor of Kenya Colony, has arrived in London to discuss a plan to unite the colonies of Uganda, Tanganyika, Rhodesia, Nyassa and Kenya into a self-governing federation on the African or Canadian plan. This will add a new Dominion to the British Empire.

Is Your Harvesting a Race Against Time?

Every day that yellow grain stands in the field, the danger of loss increases. Fordson tractors supply the power necessary to insure a harvest at the proper time.

Hitched to an 8-foot binder, the Fordson will cut 20 to 35 acres a day, and is not affected by the hot, harvest days which are so hard on horses.

Using a square-turn hitch and a line drive one man can operate binder and tractor from the binder seat.

You can harvest this year's crop with less hired help and less horse power than ever before, and in half the time.

One of Canada's 20,000 Fordson farmers must live near you. Ask him!

We will gladly send you a copy of our new folder: "Things You Should Know Before You Buy Your Tractor". Ask for it.
