HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Garnish
Fill large red cherries with nut meats and use to garnish fruit salads or ice cream.

Toughens It
Never salt meat before cooking, for it will harden the tissues and cause it to be tough. Season when it is on the platter ready for the table.

Preserves Fresh Fish.
When you have some fresh fish that you do not wish to cook the day you get it, sprinkle it liberally with salt and wrap in a piece of muslin wrung out of vinegar. Rinse under cold water before cooking.

Uses the Hook.
When baby gets to the active age he is quite likely to tip over his high chair. One mother had a screen door hook on the back of the high chair and a screw-eye in the woodwork of each room frequented by baby, including the porch. Then she hooked the chair securely and knows that he can play and be active without coming to harm.

Oil Stains.
To remove oil stains rub the material with lard and wash with warm water and soap.

NEW Mop.
When starting a new floor mop, try brushing out the dirt with a whisk broom after each using, instead of shaking it.

Even Slices.
Wrap a piece of waxed paper around the knife blade before cutting butter into squares for serving. It will make much neater pieces of butter.

Style Whimsies

A decidedly flared line below tight fitting hips is a feature of many of the new dresses.

Waistlines are generally located at the hips, but occasionally a wide girdle makes a lower line.

Gold trimming is noted in new dress models. Many belts are of metal or of leather trimmed with metal.

Many of the new jerseys are heavier than those of last year.

Contrast in bodice and skirt is strongly in evidence in some of the Paris style openings. Often a short jacket completes these costumes.

Smart tailored suits with vests are either plain black or with plain velour jackets and checked skirts.

Rhinestone embroideries on black are prominent in evening dresses in Agnes' collection.

'Tis said that jersey will be a strong favorite in the fall fabrics. It is shown in many novelty mixtures.

In the autumn Redfern collection the silhouette is varied. Skirts are generally longer in the back and the hem is flaring. Pointed effects are shown in both coats and dresses.

Fox fur serves as trimming on many of the new fall afternoon frocks, the head and tail also being used.

Preparedness.
In putting a paraffine top on your jams and jellies first coat with a thin layer, then lay a piece of string across and finish the coating. Let the end of the string hang over the edge of the glass. When the paraffine is to be removed, pull the string and it will come off whole.

ONE WAY OF PUTTING IT

The editor of the Altoona Tribune is an independent and he says so in this way: "Some people have an idea when they pay $1.50 a year for a newspaper they own the whole proposition, including the editor, and can run both to suit themselves. Occasionally there is a fellow comes along and pays up a year or two of arrears and then with a pitying look at the editor, as if he felt sorry he was going to lose his subscription, says: "I guess you might as well stop my paper; I would like to help you, but am getting more papers than I can read." Bless your life, son the editor never loses any sleep over losing a subscriber. He wants all the subscribers he can get; the more the better; but he wants those who appreciate his paper and consider they are getting value received for their money. We do not want your subscription as a matter of charity; if you do not want the paper say so, it's a business proposition with the editor. We can pull the bell cord over the old gray mule to perfection and if we can't run a paper that is worth the price we'll quit. Don't subscribe for our paper as a matter of charity. It costs $1.50 a year and you could not print one weeks copy for $4.00.—Ex.

Rastus—"Quick, Sam, a wildcat jes run into yo' house where yo' wife am."

Sam—"Well, he'll jes' hab to git out de bes' way he kin—dat's all."
