Seasonable Recipes

Tenderloin Fruit Steak.

When possible roast the meat in a waterless roaster, which adds doubly to the flavor of any roast. After allowing twenty-five minutes to the pound for roasting, place the finished product on a large platter. Then place halved pears on the meat and cover with this pear syrup: One and one-half cups pear syrup, one-fourth cup of brown sugar, two tablespoons cornstarch, one-eighth teaspoon salt. Rind and juice one lemon.

Bring the ingredients to the boiling point and then boil three minutes. Pour over meat and serve hot. Any fruit may be substituted.

Chilled Tomatoes with Cream Slaw

Peel tomatoes, scoop out center and chill on ice. Fill with finely chopped cabbage mixed with the following dressing: One teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon mustard, dash of cayenne, one tablespoon sugar, one egg, one-half cup hot milk, two teaspoons butter, one-fourth cup hot vinegar. Mix mustard, salt, cayenne and sugar in double boiler. Add egg (unbeaten), mix well, add hot milk, then butter. Cook until mixture thickens (about ten minutes), stirring constantly. Remove from fire and beat hot vinegar in gradually. Strain and pour over cabbage. Serve cold.

Angel Cake

White of nine eggs, one cup granulated sugar, one teaspoon cream of tartar, one cup flour, one teaspoon vanilla. Beat eggs to a stiff froth, stir in sugar by degrees. Sift flour four times, put in cream tartar and sift again. Stir lightly and bake thirty minutes in moderate oven. Do not open oven for ten minutes.

Corn on the Cob

Before corn is boiled on the cob it must be carefully husked and the silk removed. Then it should be placed in a stew pan which contains enough cold water to completely cover the ears. Salt is needed in the proportion of one level tablespoon for a dozen ears, and a rounded tablespoonful of sugar for the same amount of corn brings out the flavor. The dish requires a tight cover and the flame over which it is placed must be moderate. Ten to 20 minutes of cooking are necessary. When removed from the water it should be boiled in a napkin and placed on a platter.

Corn Soup

Grate the corn from 4 large ears and stew it for 10 minutes in a little salted water. Have one pint of hot milk not boiling. Drain the corn and put it in the milk, adding a large lump of butter, some minced parsley and such other seasoning as is liked. Serve immediately with stuffed olives.
