

Our Service

The Bank was established in 1875, and in the course of fifty years Branches have been established from time to time at carefully chosen points. The service at all Branches is local and personal, but it is also world wide in scope. A moderate sized Bank—not too machine-like,—with a friendly interest in its clients.

Opening Meeting of Y.P.S.
The opening meeting of the Young Peoples Society of the United Church here, was held last Monday evening. With the President Neil McDonald in the chair, a very interesting program was given. Rev. A. A. Wall of Richmond Hill gave a very interesting address. Miss E. Barker favored with the members, with a vocal solo entitled "When I come to the End of a Perfect Day," also a cello solo rendered by Miss E. Bird. Entitled "In a Monastery Garden." Refreshments were served and a social half hour spent.

Rev. Dr. Martyn of Toronto preached in the Presbyterian Church, here last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Peter Taylor, of Toronto, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday.

Women's Institute Meeting
The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. R. Simpson this afternoon (Thursday). Each lady answered the roll call with a pet proverb. A very interesting reading was given by Miss Carson entitled "Women's work past and Present." The afternoon address was given by Archdeacon Davidson, of Toronto, which was very instructive and interesting. A shower of fruit was given in aid of the Sick children's Hospital, Toronto, after which refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Organization of Young Ladies Class
The Young ladies class of the United Church here organized last week with the following officers being elected:—President, Marion Smillie, 1st Vice President, Rheo Hooper, Secretary, Mable Brillinger, Treasurer, Geraldine Wesley, Management Committee, Bessie Watts, Convenor, Doris Walker and Jean McDonald. The young ladies contemplate holding their meetings once a week with the purpose of taking up some special course either in sewing or first aid. All young ladies of the congregation are cordially invited to become members.

Young Men Here Visit York Bible Class
About twenty-five members of the Young Men's Class of the United Church here, visited the York Bible class, Toronto, last Sunday afternoon. The visit was on the occasion of the first meeting of that class in their new home, the Central United church, Bloor Street and Park Road. This Bible class, which is the largest organization of its kind in North America exclusively for young men, had an attendance last Sunday of around seven hundred, and all the young men from here are very enthusiastic in their praise of Mr. Denton Massey, the founder and leader of the class, who gave a very inspiring address.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church here are holding a bazaar, in the Sunday School room of the church Saturday, October 22, commencing at 3 O'clock. Sale of Home-made cooking, Candy Fancy Work, Produce and Vegetables. Ladies will serve tea.

Y.P.S. Meeting Withdrawn
The regular weekly meeting of the Young People's Society will be withdrawn next Monday evening on account of the Rally Service being held Sunday evening under the direction of the Society.

Y. P. S. Rally Service
A Rally service under the direction of the Young People's Society of the United Church here will be given in the church, next Sunday evening, October 23rd. This Rally will be conducted by members of the Society only. The choir will render special music, there will also be 3 short addresses by members of the Society. This meeting will be of special interest and a good congregation is looked for to help the Young People along in this work.

Social and Personal
Misses Ila Brillinger and Norma Ground are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Brillinger at Parry Sound.

Miss McGaw of the Memorial Hospital, Niagara Falls, Miss Bond and Miss Moffat of Toronto, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wells on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. McDonald are now living in the house recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Classey, who have taken up residence in Toronto.

Miss Ethel Till and Mrs. Cole of Toronto, visited on Tuesday with Misses Florence and Almeda Clubine.

Miss Irene Lane and Mrs. Frank Idenden, of Toronto, spent Tuesday with Mrs. (Major) Morrison.

The United and Anglican Churches here, served meals at the International Plowing Match and not with standing the inclemency of the weather, report having made very profitable returns.

Elgin Mills

On Friday, October 14th a meeting of the Elgin Mills Young Ladies' Club was held at the Pavilion with Mrs. Whitton, the President, as Chairman. They decided to hold a Halloween Masquerade on Oct. 28th, and are particularly anxious to have everyone wear fancy dress and masks. See bills for details.

On Sunday, October 16th, Sunday School was held in the Pavilion at 2 o'clock. There were thirty two children present. Church service was held at 3 o'clock with thirty-five in attendance. Rev. Mr. Burnyat of Aurora officiated at both services.

A few of the ladies from here helped the ladies of St. Mary's Church (C. of E. Richmond Hill, to serve refreshments at the plowing match last week.

The Young Ladies' Club is preparing a play to be given early in the winter.

J. C. Wesley and his mother Mrs. J. Wesley of Detroit, visited Mr. and Mrs. Whitton last week-end.

A number of the young girls have undertaken to prepare gifts for the Sunday School Christmas Tree and a sewing class may be formed for the purpose of dressing dolls.

The ratepayers are glad to see the Hydro poles being erected along the Elgin Mills sideroad. Nearly all the residence have their houses wired ready for the power as soon as it is available.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reid and family of Richmond Hill are moving into Mr. Snell's house on Leonard Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Sabiston, of Toronto spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Campbell.

The sudden death of Andrew MacKay last week was felt deeply in Elgin Mills as he had many friends in the community.

The first of the fall meeting of the Elgin Mills Ratepayers Association was held in the pavilion on Monday night. There was a large attendance and keen enthusiasm was shown in the activities of the organization, Mr. W. H. Legge is president and D. E. Sprague, secretary.

Willie—"Has your father stopped whipping you since he joined the church?"

Tommy—"No, but he's stopped sayin' that it hurts him worse than it does me."

He was only a fireman's son, but he knew a good thing in hose when he saw it.
