WEDDING

BAKER — WILTSHIRE

A very pretty wedding took place in the Newtonbrook United Church on Wednesday evening, October 26th, when Beatrice Rose, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Wiltshire was united in marriage to Lloyd W.T. Baker, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker of Richmond Hill by the pastor of the church, Rev. E. R. Young, Cora Good presided at the organ, Miss Edna Wiltshire sang a solo, "Because." The large audience filled the church to capacity, which was daintily decorated by Autumn leaves and flowers. The bride who was given away by her eldest brother Mr. Wm. Wiltshire, of Vineland, looked charming in a gown of white georgette over satin, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses and wore the gift of the groom a harpin.

The Bridesmaid Miss Dorothy Baker, the groom's sister, was daintily gowned in shell pink georgette, with black picture hat and shoes to match, and carried bouquet of Briarcliffe roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Thomas Wiltshire, brother of the bride. The grooms gift to the bridesmaid was pearls, to the organist pearls, to the soloist compact, to the grooms cufflinks. The ushers were Messrs Allan Wiltshire, Elmore Hill, Leslie Baker and Edgar Anning. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiltshire at the homestead. The happy couple left on a motor trip, the bride travelling in a gown of cocoa crepe black satin, brown needle point coat with hat and shoes to match. On their return they will reside on Roseview Ave., Richmond Hill.

North York Tories Election Of Officers

Proceedings were somewhat stormy at the postponed annual election of officers of the North York Liberal Conservative Association held at the residence of A. Scott, Lansing on Tuesday evening. At the former meeting the election was put off because one of the officers was absent and the contention was made that to hold an election without his presence would be contrary to the constitution.

At the postponed meeting, secretary W. Brotherton was absent and the same arguments were used by those who desired to delay the election. Mr. Bywater expressed the view that the election in Mr. Brotherton's absence would be illegal and he was supported by Austin Thomas.

William Darwin took the opposite tack. He claimed close familiarity with the constitution. He assured the members that the election would be legal and felt sure it would end ill-feeling that had been generated.

After considerable argument a motion by Mr. Goode and Mr. Pugh that the election be proceeded with was carried. Mr. Tallet was appointed secretary pro-tem and the following officers were elected: Past president, H. A. Bywater; president, F. J. Goode; 1st vice-president, Wm. Darwin; 2nd vice-president, R. Dillon; 3rd vice-president, Wm. Carson, J. P.; Secretary, C. Tallet; treasurer, Frank Howard; auditors, A. Coleman, H. J. Pugh.

Mr. Draycott in addressing the new chairman, Mr. Goode, said he thought that it was not a question of an illegal meeting, but one of an absent secretary intentionally endeavoring to stall off the meeting. He hoped that with the new set of officers the members, as a whole, would go forward in one united effort to further the cause.

Mr. Goode promised that every effort would be made to work in complete harmony.

At this point Mr. Brotherton arrived. The former secretary was vigorous in his expressions of surprise and indignation that the election had been held and things took on a stormy aspect until he was prevailed upon to leave.
