Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dunlop, Miss Lorraine Dunlop and Mrs. Billerman returned home on Monday last, after a very delightful two weeks motor trip to Nashua N.H., where Mrs. Dunlop has enjoyed an extended visit with her parents. En-route the party made overnight stops at Syracuse, N. Y., Springfield Mass, Worcester Mass, and after being joined at Nashua by Mrs. Dunlop visited Framingham and Hadley Mass, the latter town being well known as the place where the best forcing roses were originated. They stopped overnight at Northampton Mass and from there to Boston where a day was spent visiting the flower market and on Thursday afternoon visited the largest rose growing plant in New England at Revere Mass. The homeward journey was commenced from Nashua on Friday morning and a pleasant feature of the trip was a visit with Rev. J.W. and Mrs. McIntosh at St. Johnsbury, Vermont where they were met with the kindest hospitality and given a warm welcome by Rev. and Mrs. McIntosh formerly of Richmond Hill. Staying in St. Johnsbury until Saturday afternoon they visited many of the points of interest learning something of the magnificent philanthropy of the townspeople which was evidenced in many ways, among them a museum said to contain the largest collection of birds on the continent besides an art gallery in which are many valuable oil paintings and a collection of ancient and crude articles used in the early days of the settlement of this section of United States many of them being over 150 years old. In the town is a spacious library with a particularly interesting children's section where the very best books and papers for the young folks are available. The party met several members of the South Congregational church and learned of the high esteem in which Rev. and Mrs. McIntosh are held by members of the congregation and which feeling it was clearly evidenced was reciprocated by the popular minister and his wife. The parsonage is an ideal New England home supplied with all modern conveniences and comfortable as only a typical New England home can be. The church is in keeping with New England traditions and only last summer the decorations were renewed by the original artists who came from Boston to do the work. The church has a seating capacity of over 800. Rev. McIntosh will be inducted on Wednesday evening, November 9 when a number of distinguished ministers will take part in the service. Among them will be Rev. Dr. McPherson, of Springfield Mass., Rev. Dr. Moodie, previous pastor of this congregation and a son of the late great evangelist Rev. D. L. Moodie, Rev. Dr. Levey Wright, Newport, Vermont, Rev. Dr. Wallace of Orleans, formerly of Glebe Church Toronto and Rev. Dr. Frazier, of Burlington, who will preside. Mrs. Dunlop and party made the return trip via Montreal, reaching there on Saturday evening and continuing again on Sunday reached Kingston by night, and arrived home in Richmond Hill early Monday afternoon. They report a most pleasant trip of nearly 1800 miles which was accomplished without the slightest inconvenience and not an accident or even a puncture to mar the pleasure of the journey.

A Healthy Turnip
Speaking of bumper crops we have on display in The Liberal Window this week a turnip which has been the subject of much comment. It weighs nineteen and one half pounds and was grown by Lloyd Kerswill, King. It is of the Derby-Sweed variety and if there is anyone harvested a bigger one in this district we would be glad to hear of it.

Hallowe'en Was Quiet
Hallowe'en in this district passed in comparative quietness and no property damaged of any consequence has been reported. Of course the kiddies were around early in the evening with the old cry "Shell Out" and they were generously received by the general public. Later in the evening the older set were on the war path but fortunately pretty well confined their activities to innocent pranks. A special squad of constables was on duty locally but they did not have a very busy time.
