Many Interesting Antiques Shown at Women's Institute

NOVEL FEATURE OF REGULAR PROGRAMME BROUGHT TO LIGHT MANY VALUABLE RELICS

At the October meeting of the Women's Institute which was held on the afternoon of the Tenth, at the home of Mrs. Osmond Wright, and which was well attended an exhibit of family or other relics with explanations from their owners as to their past history, made the major part of a thoroughly interesting program. It also served to show that if a really serious effort were made in this, one of the oldest settled parts of Canada to get together a comprehensive historical exhibit, it could be done with great success.

The president Mrs. A. L. Phipps brought an extremely rare pair of sandwich glass candlesticks which had come from her grandfather's home in Maine and had been produced by once famous craftsmen in the Cape Cod district, of a lemon colored glass, the making of which and the casting are now a lost art. An example of this glass was recently sold in New England at two hundred and fifty dollars and it was undecorated with the wonderful dolphins which are so fine a part of the Phipps candlesticks.

Miss Ness showed an old sampler, beautifully worked which had been done about 1820 by her great aunt Mrs. Jean Trench Wood. Mrs. Plewman exhibited a hand colored engraving by Boticelli of the famous picture done originally by Angelica Kaufmann as the insignia of the unique Shepherdess, Club of London, England to which, away back in the earliest days of the nineteenth century an ancestress of the present owner belonged as a member. Mrs. Plewman also showed an interesting hundred year old majolica fruit plate and several ancient brooches, one of which with its human hair set round with pearls, had belonged to her husband's uncle's mother-in-law.

Mrs. O. Wright showed a number of relics, including a brass fish oil lamp which was taken from the earliest Methodist church in this district, where it had long served as an illuminator, also a ladies' black riding hat of a Miss Law, ancestress of Mr. Wright, of the 1840 period which is still a smart chapeau but smaller than even bobbed heads of to-day demand; also a Deed of Custody concerning one Joanna Nichol, which had been drawn up in the County of York in 1740 a most interesting and valuable historical document; also several very ancient mugs.

Mrs. Mylks exhibited a mustard pot of copper lustre dating back one hundred and fifty years, which had belonged to one, Joanne Falconer. Mrs. Glass brought for Mrs. John Sanderson a most beautiful copper lustre and blue enamel jug one hundred and twenty-five years old and a very rare, valuable sample of its kind.

Miss Olive Switzer showed a pair of Black Forest candle snuffers of pewter of very ancient vintage and a hand carved, wooden based pin cushion of "monstrous mien," which had been made by prisoners in an English gaol of many years ago.

Miss Edean showed a purple and gold smelling salts bottle of early French manufacture with cut glass centre divided into two sections so that two varieties of salts could be used and with very handsome tops of worked gold at each end of the vinaigrette.

Mrs. H. Edean brought a cleverly carved meershaum pipe bowl of Old Dutch workmanship which had been picked up on the battle fields in South Africa during the Boer war by a relative.

Mrs. A. A. Perry showed a sample of "the Great Horn Spoon" in one which had belonged to a Scottish ancestor; a hundred year old sampler, now set in a tray, which had been done in 1922 by her great aunt Jean Boyle, sister of David Boyle, both of whom were for many years resident in Richmond Hill, another which is over eighty years old, and of exquisite workmanship done by her mother Martha Frankland Boyle, of Haworth, Yorkshire, and a hand painted snuff box over a century old which had been also in the possession of Jean Boyle.

When tea was served at the close of the meeting still other antiquities were in evidence in the teapot, sugar bowl and cream jug used by Mrs. Wright, quaint, immense samples of a far off type of ancient dish makers' art in Staffordshire.

Business matters occupying the meeting included the appointment of a Library Committee which was empowered to go into the matter of securing the services of a paid worker to institute a children's hour at the Library and to make plans in co-operation with the Library Board for all preliminary arrangements. To this Committee were appointed Mrs. H. Edean, Dr. Lillian Langstaff, Mrs. Phipps and Mrs. Wilson.

A note was read from Miss Moyle acknowledging a letter of condolence from the Institute in the great loss sustained by her in the loss of a second brother within the year.

Mrs. Mylks the treasurer reported a balance in the Library fund of $233.39 and in the General Fund of $27.97 and an addition of sixteen new members since the last meeting. Money was voted for the purchase of a wreath for the Soldiers' Monument on Armistice Day; delegates were appointed to attend the Central W.I. convention on the 15, 16 and 17th of this month in Toronto and suitable arrangements were made to make a presentation to Mrs. H. Innes, before her departure from Richmond Hill to take up residence in Oshawa.

Pleasing features of the meeting were two old songs, "Juanita" and "We'd Better Bide a Wee" sung most acceptably by Mrs. N.J. Glass.

Unionville

The foundation of the new $30,000 community skating and curling rink in the north end of the town, the gift of W. H. Crosbie, of Buffalo was this week completed, and H. H. Powers, the contractor in charge of the building, has a gang of men in readiness to rush the work of enclosing the structure, the walls of which will be of matched and planed lumber. The steel work is already under contract to a Toronto firm at a price of approximately $8,000, while the Powers contract calls for the expenditure of $14,000. At the present rate of progress it is expected that the key will be handed over to the village by Jan. 1st, in readiness for the formal opening, at which it is hoped that Mr. Crosbie will be present.
