Confederation Bazaar

A Confederation bazaar will be held in the Sunday school room of the United Church here next Wednesday, November 30. The bazaar will be opened at 4 p.m. by Mrs. R. W. Eaton, of Toronto. The booths will consist of embroidered pillow slips, fancy and useful articles, aprons and towels, homemade baking and candy, fish pond for the kiddies. Music by the Thornhill orchestra. Supper served from 5.30 to 7 p.m. Adults 40c. Children under 12, 25 cents.

Young People's Meeting

The regular weekly meeting of the Young People's Society of the United Church here was held in the Sunday school room last Monday evening. Mrs. Echlin and Miss Margaurite Echlin favored the members with a piano duet which was greatly appreciated and was heartily enjoyed after which a very interesting advertising contest was put on. Miss Lela Brillinger winning the ladies prize of a miniature manicure set, and Mr. Bryan Sharpless winning the gents, a silk handkerchief. While the judges were coming to this decision a very interesting reading was given by Miss Lottie Ball, entitled "The New Church Organ," and God Save the King ended a very enjoyable evening. Next Monday evening the Rev. J. W. Fox, of Richmond Hill will speak and outside talent will contribute to the musical part of the programme. It is the Presidents desire that all young people of this village try and be present at this meeting.

ELGIN MILLS

Community Appreciates the Work Done This Year By Vaughan Council

There was a good attendance at church and Sunday school services in the pavilion last Sunday with Rev. Mr. Noxon, of Toronto, in charge. Next Sunday the service will be held in the evening at seven o'clock and Sunday School at three in the afternoon. Rev. Mr. H. Burnzeat, will conduct both services.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Elgin Mills Ratepayers Association held on Monday, November 21st, a resolution was passed expressing appreciation to the Vaughan council for work done on the roads in the community.

The girls called "The Seven Workers" will hold a sale of home cooking in the pavilion on Saturday, November 26th, for the purpose of raising funds for Sunday School Christmas tree.

The Elgin Mills Young Ladies club held a business meeting on Thursday evening last.

Col. and Mrs. A. J. Van Nostrand and Mr. and Mrs. H. Molyneux and family of York Mills, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Campbell.

The Boys' club held their weekly meeting on Tuesday at seven o'clock. Sixteen boys were in attendance and they are working hard for their cobweb social which will be held on Dec. 3. The community joins in wishing them a great success for their first social evening.

Col. T. H. Lennox, M.P. paid a visit to Elgin Mills on Tuesday night. He found active preparations for their Sunday school Christmas tree and wished them all success in their work and commended them for their kindness and fore thought. He also visited the boys club, and had an enthusiastic reception.

Successful Dance

Last Friday night Elgin Mills was the scene of a splendid dance, given under the auspices of the Elgin Mills Concert Band, the prize winners at C. N. E. At nine o'clock the band played a few numbers to attract the dancers to the pavilion and then the Orchestra arrived, and every body settled down for a good nights fun. The orchestra was comprised entirely of the bandsmen themselves, who played excellent music. The personnel was as follows: Harold Reid, at the piano; George Stiles on the violin; Band Master, P. A. Drury, the Trombone; Ted May the Euphonium, and Frank Hodge at the Drums. The special feature of the evening was a Novelty Moon Waltz, played by the band. The lights where reflected in the large Bass Horn of Harry Hodge, throwing a ray of moonlight across the dancers. The boys greatly appreciated the success of their first venture.

The Business of Agriculture

FARMING is more than an occupation; it is a highly commercialized business which requires careful planning and thoughtful execution. Bountiful production is necessary but much effort is wasted unless the business of disposing of the year's output is properly managed. In conducting the business of the farm the Standard Bank can play a prominent and useful part. Consult the manager and learn how true co-operation between banking and agriculture builds a more prosperous community.
