Thornhill

Davey—Taylor

On Friday, November 25th, at seven o'clock, the home of the brides Grandmother, Mrs. C. Taylor, 197 Crawford St., Toronto, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Ida Lillian only daughter of Mr. C.H. Taylor, Thornhill, became the bride of Mr. James Ernest Davey, youngest son of Mr. W.J. Davey, of Carrickfergus, Ireland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J.H. Peer, pastor of Willowdale Baptist Church. Palms and baskets of chrysanthemums shaded from pale to deep yellow, made an effective setting for the bridal party. The bride who was given away by her father entered the room to the strains of Lohengrins wedding march played by Miss Marion Effie Bird, and looked charming in a dress of white flat crepe, prettily draped and caught with orange blossoms and veil with cornet of orange blossoms and carried sweet-heart roses and lily of the valley. Miss Mae Alexander of Syracuse, New York, cousin of the bride acted as bridesmaid, wearing a dress of coral georgette trimmed with cream lace and carrying a bouquet of beautiful pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Ralph Brown of Anderson, Indiana, U.S.A. During the signing of the register Miss Emma G. Barker sang "Because God made thee Mine." Following a buffet luncheon the bride donned a chic travelling costume of seal brown with carmel brown trimming, with hat, shoes and hose to match. After a brief honeymoon spent at Guelph, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Davey will reside at 1288 King Street West, near Sunnyside, Toronto.

Y. P. S. Meeting

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather an interesting meeting was held by the young people's Society of the United Church here last Monday evening. Rev. J. W. Fox, pastor of Richvale United church gave a very impressive address on "The Task" or "The responsibility of young people," which was certainly enjoyed by all present. Next Monday evening a Mock Election will be put on with six members of the Y.P.S., speaking as candidates for different wards. This promises to be very interesting as well as humorous. Old and Young are invited to be present at this meeting.

Ladies Softball Club Entertained by Miss N. Watson

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the Ladies Softball club, here when they were entertained by Miss N. Watson at her home last Wednesday evening. Progressive games of all kinds were played, stars being award-

G. A. M. Davison was a Prominent Winner at The Royal

An outstanding York County winner at the Royal Winter Fair was G.A.M. Davison of this village, who, in the face of the keenest competition in the pony classes, was successful in carrying off many of the leading awards. In the harness breeding class with "Whitegate Smile," Mr. Davison won four firsts, together with the championship and grand championship, beating out the great American stallion "King of Spades." In the Shetland class, with "Thelma of Pitsford," he was similarly successful, winning the championship and grand championship. In the progeny class he won first and second, and in the harness class, in competition with ten of the leading American stables, carried off a large number of awards.

Mr. Davison's outstanding triumph, however, was scored in the children's turnout, when his grandchild, Master Davy McKay, won the highest award, beating out "Fashionable Larigo," the great American pony, fresh from a signal triumph at Madison Square Garden in New York City, together with a big field.

Oak Ridges

The regular monthly meeting of the Oak Ridges Branch of the Women's Institute will be held at the Parish Hall, Wednesday, December 7th at 2.30. The answer to the Roll Call is a Christmas Shower. Mrs. Wilkins will give a report of the Convention. Rev. P. R. Soanes a Christmas address, musical selections by Miss Alexina Morton and a reading by Miss Emily Wilkins, Mrs. Chas. Joyce and Mrs. John Brown will be the Hostesses. All are very cordially invited.
