Humorous Mock Election Put on in Young People's Society

A very interesting and humorous mock election was put on by several members of the young people's society of the United Church here last Monday evening. The ladies had held a majority in the Dominion Parliament for the last five years and an election was now taking place in the year of 1940 of which the main object was to abolish votes for men. One of the lady speakers promised if she was re-elected she would see that the city of Thornhill would have lovely rose bushes planted around the walks of the park, and several other rash promises were made, and as the ladies won by a majority of two votes, the citizens of Thornhill may look forward in the future to some wonderful improvements in our village. The following took part in the election:—Mrs. W. Luesby, Premier, Willard Simpson, Premier and leader of the opposition, Nora Johns, Minister of Finance, Bruce McDonald, Minister of Finance for the opposition, Lela Brillinger, Minister of Health and Education and Rud Fee, Minister of Health and Education for the opposition. During the counting of the Ballots by the returning officers Miss E. Barker, and Bryan Sharpless, Miss Nora Tew rendered a couple of instrumental solos. Next week's meeting will be withdrawn on account of the rehearsals for the Christmas tree.
