WEDDING

LUBBOCK — SMITH

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the brides parents, Mosley Street, Aurora, on Saturday afternoon, December 31st when Lillian Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith became the bride of Harold Edmund Lubbock, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lubbock of Temperance Street. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Patterson, minister of the United church. The bride who was unattended, entered the living room on the arm of her mother to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Vera Lubbock sister of the groom. The bride looked charming in her going away gown of the blue georgette and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses. After the ceremony a dainty wedding luncheon was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Lubbock left on a short trip to Gravenhurst. On their return they will reside in Aurora.

MARRIED

LUBBOCK-SMITH—At the home of brides parent, Aurora, on December 31st, by Rev. J. R. Patterson, Lillian Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith of Aurora to Harold Edmund Lubbock, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lubbock of Aurora.

How about those New Year Resolutions? Let us hold fast lest we find ourselves in the same old grooves. After all 1928 brings the same old tasks and responsibilities but it is for us to say if we see their accomplishment to a greater degree of perfection, and carry them to completion with a nobler spirit.

Names Not on List

Some of our ratepayers think it is time for a change in our municipal matters. Many who have lived in this township for years found that their names were omitted from the voters list, notwithstanding the fact that their names are on assessors roll and they weren't omitted from the collectors roll either. Why spend money printing a voters list and have only a partial list?

Rev. A. A. Wall gave a rousing and inspiring sermon on Sunday on life—its length, breadth, height and depth. He exhorted his hearers to let God live in and through them and in this way they would truly live.

The people in our community are blest with two excellent leaders in our pulpits. From Sunday to Sunday the truths of Holy Writ are expounded by spirit filled men. On reflection on the Sunday discourse we concluded that if one half of the congregations put one half of the message into practice during 1928, our church and community, good as it is, would render a service to God beyond anything ever dreamed of. Let us rally to their support and get warmed up then our preachers will no longer experience those zero temperatures found in spiritual life of many congregations, that blight the best efforts of good leaders.

Mr. Robert Hopper and the Miss Hoppers spent New Year's in Toronto.

Mrs. Egbert Avison spent the first of the week with friends in Toronto.

Mr. Gordon Avison of Mona, spent the week-end with his cousin Mr. Murray Avison.

Miss Eva Sanderson of Hamilton, spent the holiday with her cousin Miss Mabel Sanderson.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Goforth is confined to her bed.

Miss Kaiser of Toronto, spent Sunday with our Merchant.

A number of our young people attended the Watch Night service at Mennonite church, Gormley.

Among those from this district who attended the First Faith Mission conference in Canada, held in St. John's Church, Toronto, on Monday, we note, Messrs David Heise, David Hoover, Egbert Avison, Louis Nichols, Rev. W. Haig, Mrs. L. Nichols, Mrs. E. Avison. Inspiring addresses on the life of Victory through Jesus Christ were given by Rev. Geo. Hunter, Olivet Congregational Church, Rev. Dr. Ira David, Christian and Missionary Alliance, Rev. J. Kirkwood, Creemore Rev. W. A. Nesbitt, B.A., Dr. E. R. Hooper Canadian Bible Institute, Pilgrims Gibb and Rowdon. All sessions were largely attended.

Many of the boys and girls north of the store are well marked these days. Even two of the chaps who thought they could ward off the chicken pox, have come to defeat. Well, well! James and Allen!

Mr. Walter Cloke, with the Misses Cora and Clara Steckley, and Miss Stella Heise, of Buffalo, N.Y., spent Christmas at Gormley.

W. M. S. Meeting

At the regular monthly meeting of the Victoria Square Branch of the W. M. S. the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
President—Mrs. W. Haig; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. T. Reid; Treasurer, Mrs. L. G. Stoutenburgh; Associate Helper's Secretary, Mrs. L. Nichols; Secretary of Christian Stewardship and Finance—Mrs. I. Nichols Literature Secretary, Mrs. H. Flav-elle; Missionary Monthly Secretary, Mrs. W. Haig; Stranger's Secretary, Mrs. E. Avison; Supply Secretary, Mrs. G. Dennis; Press Secretary, F. L. Boynton.

During the past year three Associate Helpers have been added and five new life members making a total of twenty life members. A bale of quilts valued at $45 was sent to the Supply Secretary, Toronto, and 69 jars of fruit and pickles were sent to the Deaconess Home, $275, which exceeded the allocation by $75 was forwarded to Mrs. J. A. Snell, Corresponding Secretary, Toronto.

On Thursday, December 29, the executive met at the home of Mrs. L. G. Stoutenburgh to settle any unfinished business and make plans for the New Year. It was decided to use the new study books for 1928.

It's a strange fact, but history shows that Diogenes didn't even attempt to look for an honest woman.
