

This Smart Sedan with Royal Equipment now reduced in price to $1955

It's astonishing—how much style and luxury this big Advanced Six model brings you at so low a delivered price. Royal equipment means six sparkling wire wheels, two of them mounted smartly on either side. Two extra tires and tubes. And a convenient trunk rack at the rear. At least $300 worth of additional equipment to add new snap and style to your motoring.

You have your choice of three distinctive color schemes—Nash Blue, Green-Gray or Arcadian Blue. There's inlaid paneling of genuine walnut inside, rich mohair velvet upholstery. Deeply tufted, smartly tailored cushions. Silver finished interiorware. And the motor has 7 bearings, of course. It's a Nash!

Reev Lunau and Mr. George Glenn were among those in the village this week to receive letters from Councillor James McLean who is touring the province as a member of the Seed Train staff. He wrote from Shelbourne, Ontario and reported that the snow was so deep in that district that people were hanging their coats on the telegraph wires. He stated that in some districts he had visited the snow was thirty feet deep. If this information was from any less reliable source than our own townsman and a honored member of our municipal council we might be inclined to think this was an exaggeration but in this case we cannot even question the assertion, but accept it as it is and pass it on to our readers for judgment.

A very pleasant social function was held at the Masonic Hall here, on Wednesday evening, when the members of Richmond Lodge held their annual Ladies' Night. About one hundred and fifty guests were received by the ruling master Wor. Bro. J. A. Monkman and Mrs. Monkman, assisted by the immediate past Master Wor. Bro. J. R. Herrington and Mrs. Herrington. A delightful musical program was provided by the Thornhill Orchestra and visiting artists. Dainty refreshments were served after which dancing was enjoyed and the function unanimously voted a most successful one. Visiting masons and their wives were present from Thornhill, Maple, Aurora and Toronto. Among the Toronto guests were Wor. Bro. Fred Graham and Mrs. Graham, Wor. Bro. T. A. Lamon and Mrs. Lamon, Wor. Bro. Gilles and Mrs. Gilles and Bro. A. E. Dickenson and Mrs. Dickenson.

NORMAN J. GLASS

WEDDING

INGS—ATKINSON

One of the largest church weddings ever held locally took place last Thursday evening in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond Hill, at 7.30 p.m., when Aileen Alfreda, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Atkinson became the bride of Jasper Harold Ings, son of Lieut-Col. A. E. Ings and Mrs. Ings of Prince Edward Island. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Mullen. A veritable profusion of ferns and spring flowers and streamers decorated the church in artistic and beautiful fashion. The bride who was given away by her father entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal March, played by Mrs. Mallet and looked charming in a gown of ivory satin and tulle of period design and trimmed with pearls. Her veil of embroidered Brussels net was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore silver shoes and hose to match, and carried an arm bouquet of ophelia roses and lily-of-the-valley. Miss Betty McKenzie of Toronto made an attractive bridesmaid in pink georgette trimmed with pale blue and picture hat and shoes to match Mr. Ted Rust of Toronto assisted the groom and the ushers were Mr. Herman Terry and Mr. Ernest Terry of Toronto. During the signing of the register Miss Emma G. Barker of Thornhill, sang "Because". The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a silver vanity case, to the organist a purse-bag, to the soloist a necklace of pearls, to the best man silver belt buckle and to the ushers cuff-links. Following the service at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was tastefully decorated in pink and white and with spring flowers. A buffet luncheon was served and during the evening music was rendered by the Thornhill Orchestra. About ninety guests were present. Mrs. Atkinson, mother of the bride was becomingly gowned in satin crepe of a soft blue shade trimmed with black velvet. The large number of gifts was evidence of the best wishes of a wide circle of friends and relatives and notable among the many presents was a set of China dishes which is over two hundred years old and originally belonged to the great-great grandfather of the bride, also a silver teapot which was a wedding present of the bride's mother. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Ings left for their new home in Ottawa the bride travelling in a navy blue suit with spring hat to match and wearing a fox fur the gift of the groom.

To The Citizens Of The North Yonge Street District

Having taken over the business previously operated as Pearse and Mills, I wish to thank the people for their past patronage and hope for a continuance in the future of the very pleasant business relationships which have characterized my past five years in business here.

I assure you that it will be my aim at all times to give the very best possible service, and I have made arrangements to have the SHEET METAL work carried on by a capable and experienced man.
