Oak Ridges

The Institute met at the home of Mrs. J. Brown on Wednesday, April 4th. The roll call was answered by gardening hints and a splendid program followed. Miss Morton sang a delightful solo "There is a Green Hill far away" and received hearty applause. Miss Alice A. Ferguson recited a number of her poems which were well received. Mrs. H.G. Mitchell read an Easter reading and Misses Margaret Sloan and Grace Southmaid of Aurora, (pupils of Miss Alexina Morton) delighted those present with two instrumental numbers each, which were appreciated very much. At the close a social half hour was spent.

Through an error the March meeting held at the home of Mrs. Frank Legge was not reported. Our thanks are due Miss Moyle of Richmond Hill who was present and delivered an inspiring address on the Liquor question. Mrs. Wilkins gave a splendid reading and Miss Mary Vanek played two instrumentals which were a credit to herself and teacher Miss Morton. At the close afternoon tea was served.

A typewriter that writes in an intricate code has been invented by an English farmer.

Newtonbrook

There was a large and a representative audience at the Union Good Friday service in the Newtonbrook United Church. The people of the Baptist, Presbyterian and United Churches joined fellowship in this impressive service to commemorate the death of their common Lord and Saviour. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. R.N. Burns, of Toronto. He spoke of Christ and the two thieves, who were crucified with him; the one finding faith, the other ridiculing his day of opportunity. All of which, the preacher considered was a parable of life to day. The other parts of the service were taken by Rev. E.R. Young, Rev. B.R. Strangways and Rev. George Waugh. The choir of the Willowdale United church occupied the choir loft and led the music. They rendered two fine anthems splendidly. Mr. Freeman Waugh contributed a solo. A generous offering was given for the Sick Children's Hospital.

Easter Sunday was very stormy but many worshippers braved the elements and filled the churches. The choir of Newtonbrook United church rendered very inspiring music at both services. In the morning Mrs. Douglas Bales and Mrs. Glenn Shaw sang a duet. Rev. E.R. Young spoke in the morning upon the earthly and the heavenly image; as we have borne the one, through Christ we shall be permitted to bear the other. In the evening Mr. Young dealt with Peter's argument for the Resurrection; "Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God, was raised up by God, for it was not possible that he should be held down by death. As God is God, argues the Apostle, good men though they may be tested and tried, will finally, be triumphant. Life on any other terms would make the world a place too hideous to dwell in. One of the greatest services a good man does for his generation is that he feeds the flickering lamps of hope and faith, said the minister. When life around us is selfish and mean, it is easy to doubt. But in the presence of good men and good women, life has a new significance. They make immortality credible; in fact, they make anything else incredible. And with illustrious men like Socrates and Christ, Wordsworth and Tennyson, the preacher pressed home the argument for eternal life.

The members of the Woman's Association are preparing to present the amusing sketch, "Sophronia's Wedding," in the parlors of the Newtonbrook United Church. Those who wish to spend an enjoyable evening will reserve for that purpose either Tuesday, April 24th or Thursday, April 26, and come to Newtonbrook.

A new can opener with a device for piercing the can without hammering is now in use.
