ELGIN MILLS

A very successful garden party was held here, on Friday evening, last under the auspices of the band. There was a good attendance and a goodly sum was realized for the Band treasury. The Horseshoe Pitching contest proved very interesting and the winners were, first prize, G. Moodie and H. MacMillan; second prize J. S. McNair and L.H. Clement.

The Oak Ridges Auxiliary Branch had their meeting at the Elgin Mills Pavilion on Thursday, June 7th. And a good deal of quilting was accomplished. Miss Mason who was a delegate to the annual convention gave a very interesting report of meetings she had attended. The ladies are having a garden party on Thursday, June 21st at Miss Mason's on the lawn. Arrangements will be made for their annual strawberry festival, notice which will appear later.

The Junior Boys softball club are very proud of their new uniforms.

MISSIONARY RALLY AT SUTTON

A splendid representative of ladies the Richmond Hill W.M.S. of the Presbyterian church attended the annual sectional meeting, held at Sutton on Thursday, June 7th. Mrs. Williams, Presbyterial Correspondence Secretary gave a very interesting and instructive talk at the morning session and in the afternoon, the meeting was addressed by Miss Mary Murray, Hospital visitor in Toronto. Many delegates attended from King, Aurora Newmarket, Thornhill, Willowdale and Richmond Hill.

ST. MARY'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
Rev. A. J. Goldring, will preach in St. Mary's Anglican church, on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

WEDDING

REED — HALL

On Saturday afternoon, June 2, the marriage of Miss Winnifred Lily Hall daughter of Mrs. S.E. Hall, Mill road Richvale, and Mr. Percival William Reed, Toronto, was solemnized by Rev. J.W. Fox at his residence on Centre St. West, Richmond Hill. The bride was prettily dressed in yellow taffeta with hat to match and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The witnesses were the brides mother and Mr. Walter J. Baker and Mrs. Baker, of Richvale.

LETTERS MUST BE SIGNED

Please note that all letters for our "Voice of the People" columns must be signed by the writer as a mark of good faith, although a non-de-plume may be used for publication. We regret that two timely communications could not be used this week by reason of this omission. If the writers will communicate with our office we will be glad to publish the letters next week.

CONCERT AT MAPLE

A grand concert will be held in the Community Hall, Maple on Wednesday, June 20. There will be a high class program of songs and instrumental music by talent from Toronto and is in the interests of St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple. Twelve artists will take part. Concert commences at 8.15 p.m.

NEWTONBROOK

Re-Union of The Smith Family

The annual re-union of the Smith family, usually held at Wilcox Lake, was held this year at the home of Mr. Harry Smith, second line, Newtonbrook, on Saturday, June 9th. About fifty members of the Smith connection gathered and spent a most enjoyable afternoon on the beautiful grounds. The younger people put through a jolly round of sports, while the older people preferred to quietly reminisce of other olden and golden days. After a delightful supper, served on the lawn, an election of officers took place, as this family is fully organized. Mr. Harry Smith was chosen as President; Mrs. J. Cameron Weston, R.R. 3, Secretary; Mrs. I. Wright, Weston, R.R. 3, Treasurer; and a sports committee, consisting of Mr. Herbert Smith, Wilcox Lake; Mr. Fred Clubine, Toronto; Miss Alma Smith, Newtonbrook and Miss Muriel Hostrawser, Malton.

LANGSTAFF

Athletic Association Notes

The local Athletic Association is making excellent progress. A Girl's softball team is in training, which hopes to carry off the first honors at the Thornhill Field Day on July 2. Any persons interested in softball are requested to communicate with Mr. Harry Banks the manager of the team at Langstaff.

Work has been started on the Tennis Court and to those interested in tennis we can promise playing in about a weeks time.

To the older people of the community we are still open for more horseshoe pitchers. Thirty members are on the schedule, and the association are hoping for 100 so come on you folks, forget gardening once in a while and come out and play.

You remember the old adage "all work and no play" all right come on out and give yourselves a treat and become a part of the finest little Association under the sun.

If you don't play baseball come and see the team you are going to shout to victory on the 1st.

You don't have to take tonic these days come and join the Association, and let natures exercise keep you young vigorous and healthy.

Sport for all, young and old, none too young and none too old.

A boost for the Association is a boost for the village and eventually Langstaff is going to be noted for its clean healthy village. You are needed to help us gain this reputation.

Football Game Saturday

Langstaff football team will play the C.P.R. (league champions) on Saturday next at 3.30 p.m. on their new grounds at Thornhill Recreation Park. This should be a real interesting game. The grounds are situated immediately behind the Standard Bank, Thornhill.

Rowing, canoeing and yatching races will be featured on the Canadian National Exhibition Aquatic Sports programme.
