Dominion Day Celebration at Lake Marie

Plans are now complete for the annual celebration here on Dominion Day July 2. It will be on the beautiful grounds of Sir H. M. Pellatt at Lake Marie and will be under the auspices of the Lake Marie and King Athletic Association. A full program of sports will be held featuring a ladies' and men's softball tournament for prizes totalling $144. There will be a Horseshoe pitching contest with prizes to value of $30. A feature of the athletic events will be a one mile race for a handsome silver plate donated by Mr. A. J. H. Eckhardt, of Toronto. One of the newest moving pictures will be shown on the screen by an up-to-date machine and operator in the large brick barn, with a seating capacity of 2500. Following the picture a barn dance will be held with ample accommodation for 500 couple. A first class five piece orchestra will play all night. Beeton brass band which won second prize at the C.N.E. last year will furnish music during the afternoon and evening. Refreshments of all kinds will be obtainable on the grounds and in the event of rain the program will be carried out in the large brick barn. For full particulars and prize list apply to the secretary. Admission to grounds 25 cents, children under fifteen free. Free parking of cars. Gen. Sir H. M. Pellatt, Hon.-President; A. B. Wells, president; D. M. Ross, Treasurer, W. Rolling, Secretary.

Garden Party at Eversley

A grand garden party and concert will be held under the auspices of the Eversley Presbyterian church, on the church grounds on Monday, June 25. Supper will be served from 5.30 p.m. Following the supper a grand concert will be given by the well known College Street Baptist Church choir under the able leadership of Mr. H. G. Williams. A well known elocutionist will also render several selections. A hearty invitation is extended to all to attend and enjoy the well known hospitality of the Eversley Presbyterian church. Rev. J. M. Miller is the minister, T. McVittie, chairman of the Board of Managers and W. Rolling, Secretary Treasurer.

A meeting of the Horticultural Society was held in the Orange Hall on Wednesday evening. There was a large attendance and it was decided to hold the first annual Flower Show on August 25. A very attractive prize list will be offered including many special prizes. A very interesting paper on Dahlia culture was given by Miss Alice Ferguson.

King City softball team won a notable victory in the church league on Saturday last by defeating Temperanceville by a score of 29-2. The next game is Saturday at 7 o'clock standard time, when Glennville visits King City.

Mr. and Mrs. Knowles, formerly of Providence, R.I., recently returned to Canada and Mr. Knowles has taken a position with the T. Eaton Co.

SCOTT — LAWSON

On June 2nd, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Strange, was the scene of the wedding of Mary Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lawson, King Ont., to Irving Leigh Scott, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, of Toronto. The Rev. J. M. Miller officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of ivory kitten's ear satin and flounced skirt of Chantilly lace. Her veil of rose point lace and tulle was caught with pearls and orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Columbia roses and lily of-the-valley. Miss Ida B. Smith, of Pembroke, Ont., as bridesmaid, was in a bouffant gown of minuet flat crepe. She wore a large black picture hat and carried Rernet roses and fern. Mr. Harvey Shepherd supported the groom. The ushers were Mr. Maurice Stevens and Mr. Alex. McCallum. Mr. D. R. Piette, F. R. V. C. presided at the organ. A reception followed at the bride's home when Mrs. John S. Lawson, mother of the bride, and Mrs. F. P. Teft, sister of the groom, received with the bridal party. Later the happy couple left for a honeymoon to be spent in Buffalo, Detroit and Windsor, the bride travelling in an ensemble suit of Plaza Grey with hat, shoes and handbag in the same tones. An interesting feature after the ceremony was the presentation of a Bible to the young couple, the bride being the first member to have been married in this historic church since its erection in 1860. Mr. Andrew McClure expressed the formal greeting and Mr. James McCallum, who is a grandson of one of the church's first elders, presented the Bible.

Clever Recital Given by Pupils

A charming recital concert was given by some of pupils of Miss Marguerite Boyle, elocutionist, (Professional Graduate of Owen A. Smily Studio), at Forester's Hall last Friday evening June 8th. Each selection displayed fine executive ability. The intonation and warmth of expression gave evidence of a high degree of artistic feeling that was most warmly applauded. Clare Henley, tenor and Will McDonald, basso, from the Smily studio assisted with Duets, solos and sketches. The following was the programme:—Duet, "Sunrise and You", Clare Henley and Will McDonald; Recitation, "Luck" Mildred Sumner; Dramatic poem, "John Maynard" Ida Swedlove; Sketch, (at piano) "Mary's Bad Half Hour" Ruth Hetherington; Poem, "My Mother", Eleanor Drury; Humorous Prose, "A confused reciter" Ruth Hamilton; Negro Dialect, "Little Black Baby" Rae Hunter; Humorous poem, "Castor Oil" Nelson Findlay; Song Sketch, "An Irish Wooing" Clare Henley; Habitant Dialect, "Madame Albani" Barbara Forester; Duologue, "An Averted Tragedy" Audrey and Marie Leary; Humorous Monologue, "A Baseball Game," Laura Saddington; Poem, ("God Bless the Prince of Wales") Grandad's story, Marion Forrester; Humorous Parody, "Seven Ages of Men," Arlie Lindsay; Duet, "Smilin' Through," Clare Henley and Will McDonald; Comedy in Dialect, "The Wedding" Doris Tenenbaum; Dramatic Poem "If" Ada Moulton; Humorous Prose, "A leap year proposal" Mary Paterson; Solo "Wi a Hundred Pipes," Will McDonald. On account of illness Jean Brillinger, Mildred Wright and Margaret Cox, also pupils of Miss Boyle were unable to take part. Miss Boyle herself gave an original poem by Owen Smily to substitute for one of the pupils who did not appear.

All In Readiness For Dominion Day Celebration

The officers and committees in charge of the annual Field Day which will be held on Dominion Day, July 2, are busy completing arrangements for the big event and are confident that the day will be a record one for the Association. The advertising is just out and the features listed include a ladies and men's softball tournament for prizes valued at $100 a school parade for which the prize is a handsome silver trophy, a school softball tournament for prizes valued at $24.00. All school tournaments are open to schools in Markham, Vaughan and North York Townships. The executive have recognized the revival of the game of "horseshoes" and there will be $25 in prizes offered for a Horseshoe Pitching contest. In addition there will be a tug-of-war, running races, including a five mile marathon, attractive midway, ladies races, relay races, novelty races and children's races. Supper will be served in the Rink by the Thornhill ladies. In the evening there will be a Grand Concert, given by the Hottentot Musical Mirth Makers of Toronto. Thornhill Field Day on Dominion Day is now one of the events in the life of this County which is looked forward to from year to year. Dominion Day is Thornhill's big day and it is expected that a record crowd will be on hand this year.

Ladies Aid Meeting

A well attended meeting of the Ladies Aid of the United church here, was held at the home of Mrs. O. C. James last Wednesday afternoon. With the president, Mrs. N. J. Smellie in the chair, many important matters of business were discussed. After which a very interesting musical programme was rendered consisting of solos by Mr. Fred James, of Toronto, and a piano duet by Lois Adams and Mary Johns. A sumptuous supper was served. Misses Agnes Boyle and Annie Cooper being the assisting hostesses.

Horticultural Meeting

The June meeting of the Horticultural Society was held in the Public School on Tuesday evening, with a good attendance. The meeting was addressed by Mr. E. Grainger who has recently moved into the village and spoke on the growing of annuals, and different spraying formulas so much needed to-day, which was very interesting and well received. Prizes were given for the best living room bouquet, which was keenly contested by eight close competitors. Mrs. Gordon Brown winning 1st prize and Mrs. Jos. Teeson 2nd. Mr. Grainger acted as judge, also explaining his reasons for his decision. After the meeting the baskets were distributed among the sick of the village.
