

Inspiring All Day Session Faith Mission Conference At Victoria Square United Church

Monday, July 2nd, 1928 will live in the memory of those who were present at the Faith Mission Conference held in the Victoria Square United Church, as one of the outstanding days in their spiritual experience. Under the leadership of Pilgrims Gibb and Rowden, assisted by Pilgrims Dorman, Decker, Waugh and McDonald, the meetings were carried on in such a way as to bring honour to God and a blessing to those who were privileged to enjoy them.

The workers were much encouraged by the large attendance throughout the day. The neighboring districts of Gormley, Maple and Carrville were well represented, while bus and carloads of interested friends of the mission came from St. John's Evangelical church and Olivet Congregational church, Toronto, filling the building to its utmost capacity. The Rev. Mr. Haig pastor of Victoria Square church presided at each session of the conference. In his address of welcome at the morning service, Mr. Haig laid great stress on the value of the work of the Faith Mission under the leadership of Pilgrims Gibb and Rowden, pioneers of the movement for the evangelization of the rural districts in Canada. The same work has been in operation in the country districts in different parts of the Old Land since 1886, when it was begun by the late J. G. Goran, of Edinburgh. During the last Winter and Spring months' evangelistic campaigns were carried on by the Misses Gibb and Rowden in the districts of Victoria Square, Gormley, Carrville and Maple, with the result that numbers of people both young and old have been brought to an acceptance of Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour, thereby transforming lives and homes in the Community, whilst professing Christians have been revived in their souls, and awakened to a new sense of their responsibility for the spiritual needs of others.

Prayer Unions have been formed in various churches, the one in Victoria Square having a membership of 54.

Following the chairmans words of welcome, a solo was feelingly rendered by Pilgrim Dorman.

The speaker of the morning was then introduced. The Rev. George Hunter of Olivet Congregational church, who kindly consented to take the place of Rev. V. Bingham who was unavoidably absent.

Mr. Hunter's subject was "What the Spirit saith," quoting from Rev. 2 "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches." He emphasized the Christian's need of listening for the voice of the Holy Spirit in the hurry and bustle of this restless age, and warned against the danger of being over zealous in the matter of service, which might result in following individual leadings instead of quietly waiting for the Holy Spirit's guidance. There were many false voices clamoring to be heard the speaker said, but the test of the true voice (that of the Holy Spirit) is that He always speaks in accordance with the "word of God." The message was applied in a heart searching manner, which left a distinct impression on his hearers.

An open session of prayer followed which concluded the morning session. Luncheon was then served by the Ladies of Victoria Square, for all those coming from a distance, and later on a supper, and the visitors were unanimous in praising their hostesses for the excellence of the repast and for the generosity and kindness shown in thus providing for their comfort.

The afternoon session began at 2 p. m. with a service of song led by Pilgrim Rowden, followed by a solo by Pilgrim Waugh, entitled "Speak Saviour Speak." A pithy and convincing testimony was then given by Pilgrim Dorman, who prefaced her remarks by saying, "It is a grand thing to be saved and to know it, but it is a better thing to know one is saved and to show it. The message of the afternoon was brought by Rev. W. A. Nisbet, of St. John's Evangelical church, Toronto, his subject being "A living sacrifice" Rom 12-1. Mr. Nisbet's address was inspirational in character and followed as a sequel to Rev. Mr. Hunter's address of the morning. Mr. Nisbet pleaded with his hearers to "present their bodies a living sacrifice to the Lord," and receive in return a transformed and transfigured life. True service for God could only emanate from such a life. True service is the out-flow of the in-flow of the Holy Spirit in the heart and life of the Christian.

Every true Christian is a servant, and God has work for each of his servants. If you are idle and fruitless, it is because you haven't had a real in-filling of the spirit. When the Holy Spirit grips us, we will overflow. The speaker spoke also of the necessity of a removal in the life of the Christian and also in the church of God. A season of prayer followed this address, in which many took part.

A praise and testimony meeting beginning at 6.30 p. m. was a valuable preliminary for the last meeting of the conference. It was encouraging to hear the voices of those who had been redeemed, lifted up in praise and thanksgiving to God for His love in providing a way of salvation for sinners, in the person of His Son Jesus Christ and of their acceptance of that way.

At 7 o'clock the meeting proper began. Pilgrim Decker was the first speaker and she based her remarks upon the 15th chapter of Genesis, and traced an analogy between the animal sacrifices of Abraham's time which God demanded, and the sacrifices most pleasing to God at this time. She pointed out that God desires to possess each Christian wholly, his strength and labor, his usefulness, his fighting ability, his affections, his all. As Abraham obeyed God and gave the best of his flocks and possessions in sacrifice, should not the Christian gladly give God what he most desires himself?

Rev. Mr. Hunter again took the platform, and delivered the last address of the conference, his subject being "The fevered soul." The world he said is divided into two classes, the saved and the unsaved, those who walk close to God, and those who do not. All have not the same spiritual experience's — Some show symptoms of fever in the restlessness and unsatisfied longing for something they do not possess. Fifty per cent. of the Christians are dissatisfied with their lives. They haven't enough of Christ to satisfy them. They need the healing touch of Christ to heal them—Christ is asking us to-day to go all the way with Him. Following this appealing message, was a time of silent prayer, then the quiet singing of "Where He Leads Me I will follow." An earnest appeal was made to the audience to surrender all to Christ to back-sliders to renew their vows, and to sinners to accept Christ as their Saviour. Many throughout the different services responded, by publicly signifying their desire to go all the way with Him and follow anywhere He would lead.

The encouraging responses gladdened the hearts of all present and all felt the urge within them to go forth and proclaim the good news of the gospel to those around them who are still in darkness, and under the power of sin.

After the benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. A. Nisbet, of Toronto, Mr. Louis Nichols of Victoria Square arose and in a few well chosen words moved a vote of thanks to the Pilgrims of the Faith Mission, through whose efforts the conference was made possible, and to the Rev. George Hunter and Rev. W. A. Nisbet, who had so ably assisted them with such inspiring messages. Mr. Avison seconded the motion, which was presented by Rev. Mr. Haig and carried unanimously. The meeting concluded with the singing of "God be with you till we meet again."

Presentation to Esteemed Residents

We are sorry to lose some of our good citizens, Mrs. McCague, Miss Margaret and Miss Laurine, and Master James who are moving to North Toronto. At a meeting in the church last Thursday evening, Mrs. McCague and Miss Margaret McCague were each presented with an address;— Mrs. McCague's address was accompanied with a Pen from the W. M. S. and Miss McCague was presented with a Parlor lamp. The following address was made by Mrs. W. Haig: Dear Mrs. McCague,

The members of the W. M. S. would like to express their appreciation of your loving sympathetic influence and willing service in their work.

We regret you are so soon to leave us, but know changes must come. We hope you will very soon find a place in our Master's Work where you will live and that the workers there may soon learn to value the member and friend we are losing.

This small remembrance we would ask you to accept from your fellow-workers in this Society. Signed on behalf of the members, Mrs. Haig and Miss Hopper.

Mrs. McCague made a very fitting reply.

The following address to Miss McCague was read by Mr. L. Nichols, the presentation being made by Mr. R. F. Boynton the Superintendent of the Sunday School. Dear Miss McCague,

We, the members of the Sabbath School of the Victoria Square United Church, are sorry to learn that you, your mother, and other members of your family, deem it wise to sever your connection with us. You will all indeed be missed very much in our community as your family has always been an important factor of this church and more especially of this Sunday School.

When an individual gives her time, freely and willingly, Sunday after Sunday, year after year, we think everything is just going on naturally, but, when a vacancy occurs, then, and only then, do we begin to look back upon the past to realize how valuable and faithful that person has been.

So, upon reflection, we are reminded how regular and punctual you have been in the discharge of your duties as leader of the singing in our school. When the bell rang you were mostly in your place prompt and prepared to assist in the opening exercises of the school. This alone is very conducive to the welfare of any Sunday School as we remember the old saying—"Well begun is half done."

And, whenever we had a Christmas entertainment or a special service in our school we felt that you did your utmost to bring about the favorable results that were attained, and, if we ever or often failed verbally to express our appreciation of your untiring efforts it was unintentional, or thoughtless on our part and you would certainly have the conscious assurance that your labors were crowned with success which is the best possible evidence of it.

As a small token of remembrance and of the esteem in which we hold you we ask you to accept this lamp—a meagre gift, no doubt, but we would not attempt to measure or compensate a person's worth here, that can only be recorded and rewarded in the great beyond. We chose this present especially that you may share its brilliance with the other members of your home. If at any time you become weary with the responsibilities of the life remember that Victoria Square Sabbath School has given you this lamp whose light is to gladden your heart and make your path brighter. May the light of this lamp shine in your life in unison with the light from the Sacred Word which is a lamp unto your feet and a light unto your path. And, as you leave us our one unselfish interest in you is this—that you may soon become united with another definite church and Sunday School, there, to improve your God-given talents in singing His praises in similar spheres of usefulness so that our Sunday School's loss may be another's gain.

Signed in behalf of the school,—Rolph F. Boynton, Wilnot Brumwell, Louis L. Nichols, Miss H. Hopper. Mr. and Mrs. J. Brethet of Bond Head, visited at the Parsonage on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cerswell and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Watt, Master James Watt, of Bond Head, attended service here on Sunday afternoon and took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Haig, their former pastor. Mr. Robert Wilson, of Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCague, Miss Myrtle McCague, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wright, Richmond Hill were the guests of the McCague family this week.

Remarkable Coincidence

Seventeen years ago on the first Tuesday in July, the barn of Mr. E. Caseley on the Fifth Line was struck by lightning. On Tuesday of this week it was again struck. Seventeen years ago the young man working for Mr. Caseley was killed and Mr. Caseley was badly stunned. The barn was not burned either time.

The Mission Band held their first picnic and organization on Wednesday afternoon. The boys and girls report a very pleasant time together.

CHICKEN THIEVES FOUND

Chicken thieves of the Markham Township police is an example of the difficulties sometimes encountered by "arms of the law" in the execution of their duties. It is reported that they received a call to a farm in the eastern section of the township this week to investigate the disappearance of several batches of young chickens. The indignant farmer was quite sure he could put the thief on the trail of the offender; in fact he was quite sure he knew the guilty party. Before making any arrests however the officers decided to investigate quite fully and on the second visit to the premises discovered that the thieves were not motor bandits nor prowling marauders but merely a lot of rats who were making a cache of the freshly hatched chickens. No arrests were made.
