BIG JOB COMPLETED

The construction of the sewer and sidewalk on Church Street has been completed and there is much favorable comment concerning the fine appearance and quality of the job. There was some difference of opinion as to the best way of handling the proposition when the work was started but even those who disagreed are willing to give the council credit for the way the work has been carried out. It looks like a very satisfactory job. Walter Bone, of Maple, was the contractor in charge.

WORK PROGRESSING FAVORABLY

Interviewed by The Liberal on Thursday morning, Reeve Lunau said that the extension work at the water-works was progressing very favorably and that barring accidents or bad weather it was expected to complete the job next week.

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. STEWART CHARLES

The community was saddened by the death on Sunday, July 8 of Hazel Margaret Kerswell, beloved wife of Stewart Charles and daughter of Mrs. Alice and the late Giles Kerswell, of Elgin Mills. The late Mrs. Charles accompanied by her husband and family arrived here about two weeks ago after a motor trip from their home at Castor Alberta and was visiting at her home and with friends and relatives in this district. She was taken ill on Tuesday, July 3 and was taken to the Toronto General Hospital where her condition gradually improved until a sudden turn for the worse on Sunday night which was followed by her death.

The late Mrs. Charles who was in her thirty fifth year was married fifteen years ago and for five years after her marriage lived at Patterson but for the past ten years has lived in Western Canada.

The funeral service which was held at the home of her mother on Wednesday afternoon was very largely attended, by sorrowing friends, relatives and acquaintances who sincerely mourn her passing. Services were conducted by Rev. Mason, of the Anglican church of which the deceased was a devoted member, assisted by Rev. A. A. Wall of Richmond Hill and Rev. Heathcoat. During the service the Baker Quartette of Baker Hill sang sweetly and impressively "Cast Thy Burdens Upon the Lord." The floral tributes were many and beautiful and were evidence of the high esteem and regard in which the late Mrs. Charles was held by her wide circle of friends in this district. Interment followed at the Richmond Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were Gordon Bennett, Fred Ormerod, George Vanderburgh, Wm. McDonald, Henry Burnett, and George Stiles.

Left to mourn her passing besides her husband are four children, Herbert aged thirteen; Margaret, aged eleven; Paul, aged seven; and Hugh aged four years, her mother, Mrs. Alice Kerswell, Elgin Mills, two sisters, Mrs. Mollett and Miss Evelyn, and one brother James Kerswell.

Among those from a distance noticed at the funeral were Mr. Alfred Patterson, of Australia, Mr. John D. Patterson, Woodstock; Mrs. Sidney Cook, New York; Mrs. Conkey and sons and Mrs. Ingham, of Strathroy.

LATE F. R. RICHARDSON

Frank R. Richardson, stone mason, Hunt Avenue, Richmond Hill, died after a short illness in the Toronto General Hospital on Thursday, July 5, leaving to mourn his passing a loving wife and six small children. The late Mr. Richardson was an industrious workman held in high esteem by all who knew him and who sympathize with the bereaved family. He was born in London, England, and came to Canada 20 years ago. He lived in Toronto, later in Fairbank, where he and his family lived for nine years, moved to this village about a year ago. He was the son of Mrs. and the late Edward Richardson. His mother still lives in the Old Country. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Elizabeth Garrett, and six children, Richard, aged 11; Ellen, 10; Henry, 6; Ruth, 5; Leonard, 3; and Victor, 18 months. Interment took place at the Richmond Hill cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Stewart Charles and family wish to thank the many friends for their sympathy and many acts of kindness during their recent sad bereavement.

TWO FAMOUS FILM WRITERS ADAPTED "THE ACTRESS"

Albert Lewin and Richard Schayer, two of the best known scenarists on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot, are responsible for the screen adaption of Norma Shearer's new starring picture "The Actress", showing next week at the Capitol Theatre. The story is adapted from Arthur Wing Pinero's popular stage play of English theatrical life, "Trelawney of the Wells," and every effort has been made to stay as closely as possible to the story of the stage play which has won a wide reputation both in Europe and America. Ralph Forbes has the leading male role, while Sidney Franklin is the director.

Sporting Notes

STOUFFVILLE vs. ELGIN MILLS
Stouffville girls will play an exhibition game at Elgin Mills diamond to-night (Thursday) at 7.15 daylight saving time. This promises to be a good game.

LANSING vs ELGIN MILLS
In Important League Game Tuesday Evening at 7.15

An important fixture is scheduled for Tuesday night at Elgin Mills, when they take the Lansing girls on in a regular league game and a win for the Elgin crowd will put them on top of the league. Coach White has his team all "pepped" up to hand Lansing a real battle. This will be the best game of the season and all roads will lead to the Elgin Park where this battle will take place at 7.15 (Daylight saving time). Lansing girls have only been defeated once this season and the Elgin crowd, however the Elgin girls are confident of handing the Lansing girls their second defeat.
