Walker, Thornhill, became the bride of Mr. David Anderson Ferguson, of Weston, second son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Ferguson, of Edinburgh, Scotland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. S. Fralick, pastor of Oakwood United Church, formerly of Thornhill circuit. The bride who was given away by her father looked charming in a gown of white flat crepe with large picture hat, shoes and hose to match, and carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses and baby's breath. Miss Bessie Watts acted as bridesmaid wearing a gown of yellow georgette with hat to match and carrying butterfly roses and baby's breath. Mr. Hugh Murdock, of Toronto, supported the groom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Regent House for the immediate relatives and friends. ### AN AMBIGUOUS SIGNAL

An arm protruding from the car ahead means that the driver is:

1. Going to turn to the right.
  2. Knocking the ashes off his cigar.
  3. Telling the small boy to shut up or he won't buy any red pop.
  4. Pointing out a scenic spot.
  5. Going to back up.
  6. Feeling for rain.
  7. Telling his wife: "Yes, I'm sure the kitchen door is locked!"
  8. Saluting a passing motorist.
  9. Going to stop.
- Guess which—but guess safely.

Village Constable—And I walks in and catches him there takin the money out of the safe. I shows him my badge, and he looks at my papers so I sez, "You're under arrest," but he wouldn't believe I was a officer, and by cripes, I had to let him go.

Doubling the Arguments for Saving

ALL that can be said in favor of opening a savings account in the Standard Bank may be repeated with greater emphasis as regards a joint savings account. Joint accounts are primarily for convenience of depositors, but where two people are bound together by common interests, the moral as well as the practical value of working together, planning their financial betterment with the aid of a joint bank account is clearly evident. The Standard Bank solicits your joint savings account.
