On Sunday morning the Rev. Frank Rae preached an earnest and instructive sermon on Prohibition from the incident described in 2 Kings IV, 38-41. All the great interests in life, political, moral and spiritual, call for prohibitions. There would be no social development otherwise; and where there were conflicts between personal and material claims on the one hand and spiritual and moral on the other; the latter should always come first. Seek first the kingdom of God and then real blessings will be reaped by the community. Mr. Rae spoke favorably of the Ontario Prohibition Union and the good work it was doing in temperance education and leadership. It would receive the hearty support of all good people and be especially remembered by intercession and financial support.

Next Sunday morning, Rev. E. R. Young will occupy his own pulpit.
