FATAL ACCIDENT

A fatal accident took place just north of Elgin Mills, early Thursday morning when D. Aulds, of Toronto, met his death. He was proceeding south on his way to his city home from the Summit Golf Club about 1.30 a.m. when it is presumed his car skidded and upset causing him fatal injuries. He was found dead by Serg. Kirk of Newmarket and as far as is known there were no witnesses to the accident.

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. L. A. HILL

The community was saddened by the death on Sunday, August 19 of Dorothy Francis Henderson, beloved wife of Lloyd Allan Hill, of Richmond Hill. The late Mrs. Hill was the daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, of Parkdale, Toronto, and came to Richmond Hill at the time of her marriage about three years ago. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her passing her father and mother and one sister at home, a sister Mrs. Smith of New York and one brother Gerald Henderson, of Toronto.

The funeral services which were held at her late residence Church St. on Tuesday afternoon were conducted by Canon Powell, of St. Clemens Anglican Church, Toronto. The many friends who attended and the floral tributes were testimony of the love and esteem of a wide circle of friends who mourn her death and extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband.

Interment took place at the Richmond Hill cemetery the pall-bearers being; Dr. Carl Hall, P.C. Hill, Albert Hill, Gerald Henderson, J. R. Harrington and Harry Deane.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBINSON—In loving memory of Annie E. Hanna, wife of William Robinson, who died August 19, 1927.

Oh, mother, how we miss you;
In our memory you are near,
Loved, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear.

Some may think that we've forgotten when at times they see us smile;
But they little know the sorrow That smile hides all the while.

—Sadly missed by Pearle, Cecil and Margaret.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBINSON—In loving memory of Annie E. Hanna, beloved wife of William Robinson who passed away, Aug. 19th, 1927.

Dear mother how we miss you,
How our hearts are filled with pain
Oh this world would be a heaven
Could we hear your voice again.

You are gone but not forgotten
Years can never ease the pain
In the hearts of those who loved you
Till the day we meet again.

—Ever remembered by her Husband and daughter Rose.
