GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS

National taxation in Canada will be reduced by $19,000,000 this year, including ten per cent. reduction in personal income.

On September 1st, in the province of Manitoba, there came into force the Old Age Pension Act, under the provisions of which every person who has reached the age of seventy years, and has resided twenty years in Canada, five of which must have been spent in Manitoba, will be eligible for a pension, not exceeding $20 a month.

West King school fair will be held at Schomberg on Friday, September 17th.

One hundred and fifty pupils registered for the fall term at the Aurora high school on Tuesday morning. Three new teachers are on the staff this year, Miss J. Smith, Miss Izzard and Miss Howlett.

A street sign in the village of Hal-briter, Sask., reads: "Go Slow; Two Fools Might Meet."

"Drink Canada dry," reads an advertisement. Well, any number of Americans have been trying to do that very thing this season.

The highways department of Ontario has laid down an inexorable law that traction engines and other heavy vehicles of that kind are not to be moved along the paved highways of the province without having first removed the cleats from the wheels.

A new cigarette has been invented that has a tab on one, which when pulled out supplies the necessary light.

A Frenchman has invented an attachment for shot guns with which darts, carrying lines and floats, can be shot into large fish.

Dresden policemen have been equipped with roller skates to enable them to cover longer beats.

A San Francisco inventor has patented a new gas burning heater that can be built into the floor of a room.

Dr. Arvid Reuterthal, a St. Paul scientist and writer, has perfected an alphabet which he believes is adaptable for a universal language.

Portable apparatus has been invented to remove wall paper with steam fed through a hose to a perforated plate moved over the wall.

A new stereoscopic X-ray apparatus is applied to drug traffickers and other smugglers in England to show exactly what articles are secreted in a human body.

A device for utilizing the radiant energy of the sun to heat water for household uses has been invented in Miami, Fla. It is designed to be installed on the roof of the house.

In the Sandwich Islands the people go into mourning by knocking out their front teeth and painting the lower part of their faces black.

Certain Eskimo tribes are said to bury a dog with a dead child that the dog might guide the child in another world.

Mr. Emerson Simmons, contractor, left at The Drayton Advocate office a peculiar curiosity in the form of a petrified mud turtle which his men discovered in the edge of a large stone which they had broken while working at a culvert in Peel. The turtle was a small one, the shell being only three inches in length and two inches in width and had petrified and become as solid as the stone itself.

Confidence sharks, professing to be optometric specialists, recently duped a farmer near Exeter out of $412 of hard earned cash. The strangers called at the house and offered the farmer $12.00 spectacles for $3.50 as a special offer. Conversation continued and the agent professed to find something wrong with the farmer's eye-sight, and told him that "out in my car right now there is a noted eye specialist waiting for me to come out of here." Called to the home, the specialist prescribed an "operation," which consisted in rubbing some liquid supposed to be radium, on the eye. He collected $412, after claiming to have removed a cataract.

Durham tax rate will this year be 52 mills, a raise of 4 mills from last year.

Ali Zadina, a Turkish laborer, aged 29, weighing 732 pounds is the largest man in the world.

The Taoists of China believe that continually finding fault with the weather is a sin which will be punished in purgatory.

Three billion dollars in cash and securities were transferred from an old bank building to a new one in New York recently. The only precautions taken were the use of 18 steel, bullet-proof vault cars, each with five guards armed with machine guns and tear bombs, and a number of policemen along the route carrying sawed-off shot guns.

Seriously injured by the explosion of a stick of dynamite, John Fawcett, King township farm boy is lying at his home on the 5th Concession of King, and Robert Gellately, farmer is at home recovering from the effects of the explosion. The two were in the kitchen of the Gellately farmhouse, and Mr. Gellately was explaining to the boy the uses of dynamite, using a stick of the explosive in his lecture. While they were handling the stick on the kitchen table it went off, splitting the table to smithereens, smashing articles all over the room, and seriously injuring the two men about the face, chest and abdomen. Mr. Gellately was unaware that a cap was in the stick.

IMPROVED in Performance and Appearance

TODAY'S Pontiac Six is the most impressive example of value-giving in the whole history of the low-priced six!

Substantial gains in motoring pleasure and economy result from important mechanical advancements, such as a new Marvel carburetor, new manifold, etc. More intriguing beauty and the much desired air of rugged compactness have been achieved by the use of smaller, smarter wheels and larger tires.

And, beneath all its brilliance of beauty and performance, Pontiac Six is a supremely dependable car... a car that sails through a wearing, tearing, day-long drive and finishes with the same spirited freshness with which it started the trip.

Come in and investigate this amazing car—General Motors' lowest-priced six.

Ask your dealer about the G.M.A.C. Deferred Payment Plan which makes buying easy.
