GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS

When fire broke out in the barns of Basil Fierheller, of Whitechurch Township, about 8 o'clock last Thursday night, it completely gutted the buildings with a total loss of the season's crops. The blaze was the most spectacular seen for some time, lighting up the territory for a radius of five miles from the conflagration. Efforts of the neighbors saved the farm house and outbuildings from destruction, but nothing could be done to save the barns.

The North York Plowmen's Association will hold their fifth annual plowing match on the farm of Levi Burkholder, lot 24, con. 9, Markham, on Tuesday, October 30th. Mr. Burkholder's farm is a little over 4 miles from Markham, and about the same distance from Stouffville.

Roy Crosby, secretary of the Markham Fair, has mailed to hundreds of prominent breeders and live stock men throughout the province the prize list just issued, and said to contain largely increased grants. In the racing program alone more than $1,300 is offered for competition and the football and horseshoe contests represent generous awards.

All over the county, and generally over the province, there is great satisfaction at the recent rains which have been of inestimable benefit to the farmers and dairymen in particular. Late pastures and root crops will be immensely benefited, the only drawback to the general rejoicing being in the delay which will be occasioned to the harvesting of buckwheat and the second crop of alfalfa. Fall plowing will be greatly facilitated.

At the North York township rural school fair in Willowdale, the T. Eaton Co. trophy for the pupil winning the highest number of points was awarded to Nelson Starling of Zion school, School Section No. 12. Miss Elsie Lemon, Newmarket, is his teacher. Birdie Perry of Lansing school was second. There were 1,300 entries in the fair and 1,500 persons attended.

Violet and Marguerite Flynn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Flynn, of Lansing, pupils of St. Edward's separate school, Lansing, are budding young orators. At the North York school fair Violet was proclaimed champion public speaker and Marguerite won first prize in the contest for junior public speaking. She captured the same prize last year.

Premier Mackenzie King, of Canada is touring Italy, accompanied by Hon. P. C. Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner in London. The Premier will return to Geneva for a few days before leaving for Paris to attend the opening of the Canadian Legation, on October 1. Later he will spend about a week in England, but his only speaking engagement is a dinner to be tendered by the Canada Club.

The number of applications for loans from farmers received by the Ontario agricultural development board to the 4th of this month totals 10,351 and the number of loans made is 7,005. During the fiscal year the loans to farmers increased from $12,191,375 to $15,531,360. Repayments in the year amounted to $700,000.

Ontario fruit growers are trying out the British market with shipments of early variety of plums and it is hoped that the experiment will lead to substantial development of trade.

"Dawn", the motion picture representation of Nurse Cavell's tragic career in the great war, is not likely to be exhibited in Ontario theatres.

Rev. J. H. Edmison, D.D., secretary of the home mission board of the United church, passed away after a short illness. Dr. Manning, chairman of the board, died a few weeks ago.

Every motor driver in Ontario is asked by the new Bureau of Complaints of the provincial department of highways to send in reports of violations of the highway traffic act. Persistent offenders who are thus reported are going to be summoned and punished. The cards are now available at all police stations and at the offices of the motor vehicles branch in many towns and cities throughout Ontario.

George Shell, Aurora, died last Thursday in his 73rd year. He is survived by Mrs. Shell. The funeral was held on Saturday and interment followed in Cober's cemetery, 3rd concession of Vaughan.

About 2.30 a.m. one morning, Mr. Ham of the 9th line of Markham was awakened by the squawking of chickens, and suspecting chicken thieves at work he jumped up and lighted a lamp and hustled outside with a shot gun. The thieves became frightened for they dropped two bags of chickens they had reached the road with and ran to a car they had parked further down and made their get-away.

The late potato crop in the vicinity of Ballantrae is said to have been quite seriously affected by the recent frosts, although the early tubers were not injured as indicated by the good crop reports. Job Jordan received 140 bags off a scant half acre and it is interesting to note that plants on this acreage were completely frozen off early last spring. The tubers were planted in April, but the frosts certainly did them no harm.

Mrs. Thos. Klinck was dressing a chicken one day last week when she made a discovery which would put to route any of those have read in the south-east corner of the Globe. This particular bird which was being prepared for the table gave forth no less than sixteen eggs from the egg pouch. Eleven of them were of good size, and encased in a thick skin, ready to be deposited in the nest so soon as a grit shell was put on them. The remaining five were smaller, but when Mrs. Klinck got through she had a nice bowl of eggs that she had not anticipated getting.—Stouffville Tribune.

The seventy-fourth anniversary of Temperanceville United church was observed with fitting services last Sunday.

A number from King attended the funeral of the late Mr. L. Wellar, of Nobleton. Mr. Wellar was a well known and highly respected citizen. The Rev. Mr. Miller had charge of the service at the home, while the Orange Brethren took charge of the service at the cemetery. Two sons, Milton of Toronto, and Howard at home are left to mourn the loss of a splendid father.

A number of Dr. D. R. Piette's pupils went to Toronto last Saturday to try their musical examinations. The results will not be out for some time, but we all join in wishing them success.
