Hon. G. S. Henry Now in Italy
Hon. Geo. S. Henry in a letter written in Paris to an old friend, Mr. J. E. Francis of Thornhill, states that they are thoroughly enjoying their holiday.

In this interesting letter Mr. Henry says, "The Lakes of Kilarney are as beautiful as they say they are, a four weeks motor trip through the British Isles was the real joy of our trip, a very varied and beautiful country, which has many sections that particularly appeals to one from Ontario. One could spend months in London and enjoy every hour of it. Next will be our visit to the continent which will no doubt be enlightening, as everything will be so different. We expect to sail from Genoa for home, in the near future. I see by the Press the Attorney-General has appointed a Magistrate to administer cold justice up in your country, you will have to mind your Ps and Qs now."

Rev. J.D. Fitzpatrick of Wesley United church will preach in the United church here, next Sunday evening. This service will be under the leadership of the Young People's Society. We trust that a large number of the young people will be present Sunday evening.

Y. P. S. Held Interesting Meeting
The Young People's Society of the United Church here held their most interesting and enjoyable meeting of the current season last Monday evening. The membership of the society is split up into two teams and last week's meeting was in the form of two programmes of one half hour each, each side arranging one program. One can appreciate that when points are given for different phrases of the program that each side did their best to make an enjoyable program. The captains of the teams were Miss Emma Barker and Bryan Sharpless. Miss Barker's team put on a very enjoyable entertainment consisting of comb band by group of members; violin solo by Bruce McDonald; Reading by Mr. M. J. Johnson; vocal duet by Misses Ila Brillinger and Madeline Ellacott, reading by Miss Jean McDonald; solo by Floyd Davies; and a very interesting Fashion parade showing difference in Dame Fashion in 1900 as against 1928.

All present were of the opinion that Miss Barker's team would win the prize, until team captained by Bryan Sharpless sprang the surprise of the evening. Their program was supposed to be heard by the audience over the radio and each contributor was seen giving their part into an improvised microphone. The program consisted of a humorous reading by Willard Simpson; Vocal duet by Misses Edna Wiltshire and Marion Smellie, two readings by Miss M. Echlin; and a very popular bedtime story by Miss Nancy Davis. There were in addition two selections by the whole team as a chorus and the broadcaster also gave weather reports, etc.

The judges who were Miss A. Cooper, Mrs. J. A. Thompson and Mr. J. E. Francis had considerable difficulty in making decision as to the winner but finally the radio program was given first place.

If you are not attending the meetings of the Y.P.S. at Thornhill you are missing one evening's entertainment each week which is well worth while. All young people in the neighborhood are invited to attend and will be made welcome.
